NOW APPROACHING PLANET MIRA

FOREWORD

My experience with the original Xenoblade Chronicles was eye-opening, to say the least.

Before playing it, I thought I'd burned out on Japanese role-playing games. Then Xenoblade Chronicles came around and I found that, no, I'd simply burned out on the formula that had been repeated since the 1990s: move from box to box, loot chests, get to know the same well-worn character archetypes, experience the same story tropes, regain the hero's lost memories, lay the smackdown on a god figure, roll credits.

That's not to say Xenoblade Chronicles doesn't feature the above—it does in spades. Still, play enough of these types of games and you can tell which ones are cynically running the formula's numbers and which are actually enjoying and reveling in what they are. Xenoblade Chronicles is most certainly the latter—it's practically a Greatest Hits of RPG formula mainstays, but its presentation and attention to detail across the whole production meant I didn't care and thought the game was actually better for it. Craft was what elevated that game above its peers.

It ended up being one of those rare games that I played for hundreds upon hundreds of hours without getting tired of it. Exploring, battling, and getting to know my party members and the world's inhabitants proved to be invigorating rather than tiring.

Xenoblade Chronicles X repeats the magic by way of an entirely different approach. Instead of following the adventures of a small merry band of characters across two giant land masses, I instead played as a character of my own design as I explored—and several times got lost in—an entire world.

And as I explored this world, I amassed a small army of allies behind me to take on the army that lay in front of me. By the end of the game, I knew these folks better than I knew myself—no small feat given the size of this game's cast.

All this is to say: Congrats on buying Xenoblade Chronicles X and for picking up this guide! I can personally guarantee that with both in your possession, you're in for a good time. This guide is here to make your experience on planet Mira as smooth as we are capable of making it. There will be times when you want the pace of this game to be leisurely, as well as times when you want to speed things up because you're invested in a character or a world. When either time comes, this book will be here, ever ready and waiting as your ultimate reference.

We've done the hard work so you don't have to. All you have to do now is sit back and enjoy an entire world unfolding.

Welcome to planet Mira.

— Geson Hatchett

SEE YOU IN 40 YEARS

July 2054 A.D.

Unknown alien forces were locked in battle, loosing all manner of firepower into space with their advanced technology.

Earth was caught in the middle. We had no chance. Our planet was destroyed in short order.

Bummer.

However, the governing bodies of Earth knew that this day would come, and in advance they initiated the Earthlife Colonization Project: Project Exodus.

Spacefaring "arks" were launched, only a few of which would make it past the onslaught taking place over the vacuum of space that once held Earth.

One of those survivors was a ship known as the White Whale.

The White Whale spent two years wandering in space in search of a new world before the aliens attacked yet again. If not for the efforts of a lone hero, the ship wouldn't have survived. As it stood, it was incapacitated and ended up crashing on the closest planet.

Two months have passed since that crash—a crash onto a world teeming with ferocious beasts, natural wonders, curious sapient beings of all kinds...oh, and hostile alien forces, both on- and off-world, who know exactly where humanity has situated itself.

A single person awakes from stasis after the crash. This person doesn't know it yet, but they may well be the greatest hope for humanity's survival, even with so many odds against them.

That person is you.

WHAT IS XENOBLADE CHRONICLES X?

Xenoblade Chronicles X is a role-playing game that emphasizes characterization and exploration above all else. Along the way, several themes are explored: friendship, camaraderie, transhumanism, survival, the ethics of advanced technology, tolerance and respect for other living things and their cultures, and basic human nature.

(It also helps if you have a thing for robots, because wow does this game have a thing for robots.)

Xenoblade Chronicles X explores all of these things against a backdrop of a rich, vast world to explore, tons of technology to play with, and a massive cast. Finally, driving the experience is a deep tactical semi-real-time battle system that rewards positioning and timing, while also allowing players to fight on two planes of scale at once.

INFO FOR VETERANS OF XENOBLADE CHRONICLES

If you're a fellow fan of the original Xenoblade Chronicles, you're in for a treat, as the adventure contained in Xenoblade Chronicles X is even larger in scope—so long as you approach the proceedings with the proper mindset.

Xenoblade Chronicles' journey took a very linear approach to progression. Bionis and Mechonis were two huge continents that you could explore at your leisure, even getting caught up in doing missions in its various villages. However, there was always the overarching narrative pointing you in a single direction toward said narrative's conclusion. In that way, Xenoblade Chronicles was like a line with dozens of branching points.

Xenoblade Chronicles X leaves absolutely everything in your hands—when to meet party members, when to advance the story, when you want to explore Mira or get to know the people in New LA. While you're soaking in one of the game's elements, the rest of the game's narrative will, for all intents and purposes, courteously stand still and wait for you. All of the above takes place in a world that is constricting and even intimidating at first, but it opens up to you more and more as you gain power and influence.

In this way, Xenoblade Chronicles X can be likened to a spiral, or a widening circle, expanding and moving ever outward, until you find yourself just as much of a master of planet Mira as its natives and indigenous species. Even with this guide by your side, trying to linearly move through Xenoblade Chronicles X's narrative will result in a bumpy ride.

Rush nothing. Explore everything.

Explore Mira. Explore New Los Angeles. Explore characters, explore species, explore your weapons, explore the minds and hearts of your teammates, allies, and even enemies. Far more often than not, exploration is rewarded with mechanical benefits such as new techniques, new weapons, and secret loot.

Savor Xenoblade Chronicles X while using this guide as a reference, and you will find it to be an adventure and journey like no other.

The power is yours.

A PRIMER FOR PROSPECTIVE CITIZENS OF MIRA

To survive on planet Mira, you'll need the help of friends, businesses, and technology. Your own personal skills need to be up to the task as well. From surviving in the wilds to surviving the ranks of BLADE, read on to be prepared for any situation.

MAIN MENU AND BASIC FUNCTIONS

TITLE MENU

From the title screen, you can access these options.

NEW GAME

Starts a new game from the beginning. You'll configure your game settings to your liking from the outset, then create an avatar for your player character before starting the game.

CONTINUE

Continue the previously saved game. (You only get one slot for saved games.)

SETTINGS

Configure game settings. More on this can be found in the Main Menu section.

NINTENDO ESHOP

Connect to the Nintendo eShop.

MAIN MENU

You can access the main menu by pressing (+) during gameplay. The main menu gives you a wealth of control and information regarding your status and progress.

STATUS

View a rundown of character stats.

GROUND GEAR

View and change a party member's ground gear, such as armor and equipment.

SKELL GEAR

View and change the gear/equipment belonging to the Skells of party members.

ARTS

View, equip, and upgrade a character's Arts.

SKILLS

View and upgrade a character's equipped and available Skills.

CLASSES

View and modify the player character's current and possible classes.

SOUL VOICES

View and customize the player character's available Soul Voices. You can also view your party's Soul Voices.

ACTIVE MEMBERS

Shift and remove members from your active party in this menu. The character in the top slot on the left is the character you play as.

RETURN TO SKELL

Once you have a Skell, you can use this option to warp back to where you parked your Skell and board it automatically.

MISSIONS

Check mission descriptions and requirements, and set missions as navigation targets.

AFFINITY CHART

View the relationships between every character in the game, including how well they get along with one another.

INTEL

INVENTORY

Check on your items here.

INFO

The Info menu contains information learned from the people of Mira. Use this to uncover the planet's secrets and increase your survey rate by acting upon this information.

ACHIEVEMENTS

View the Achievements you've accomplished and have yet to accomplish during the game.

ENEMY INDEX

Once you encounter an enemy, you'll see it listed here. After you defeat an enemy, you can see its stats, strengths and weaknesses, and what items it's capable of dropping (so long as they've been dropped for you at least once).

COLLECTOPEDIA

A list of the collectible items you've added to the Collectopedia.

SOCIAL

This set of menus is all about the various online functions in the game. You can view information about players you've met, join or change your squad, see rankings, or edit your personal greetings. Refer to the Social chapter of this guide for more details.

SAVE

Saves the game. You can save your progress at any time except during a battle or an event. Only one game-save file can be created per user.

SETTINGS

Here you can change game settings pertaining to the camera, system hardware, user interface, and online notifications.

TOGGLE GAMEPAD SCREEN

Toggle the GamePad screen between showing the game screen and the map. This is most useful for people who want to play Xenoblade Chronicles X in off-TV mode. Once the GamePad shows the game screen, you can reset things using this menu option again.

MANUAL

View the in-game manual.

Your avatar in Xenoblade Chronicles X is made up of several things—looks, statistics, numbers, items, and, of course, your winning personality. That's a lot to take in, however, so let's look at all of these one by one.

EXPRESS YOURSELF

When you first start the game you can create a character to represent yourself as an avatar and the story's main protagonist. You're able to adjust such aspects of your avatar as your skin tone, voice, and hair and eye color.

You can save up to five avatar appearances with the Save & Load menu. You can also view the character from various camera angles and with different backgrounds.

Finally, when you first start the game, you can name your character. You cannot change that name once it's set and saved and the game has begun, so choose wisely!

YOU IN PICTURES

Press (+) during normal gameplay and a screen gives you all sorts of information about your character and your current environment.

WEATHER EFFECTS

The screen shows the current weather, along with any buffs or debuffs granted from it.

EXP LV.

Your current level, pertaining to your base stats. You can check your current EXP and see how much more you need to reach the next level. Levels max out at 60.

CLASS RANK

Check how much class EXP you have here, as well as how much you need to reach the next class rank. Class ranks max out at 10, and this meter resets to zero when you migrate to a new class.

FIELD SKILL LEVELS

There are three levels; mechanical, biological, and archaeological. Increase your BLADE rank to increase each of these levels by 1 and gain the ability to open sufficiently ranked treasure boxes.

TATSU'S TIPS: BE A GEARHEAD!

We recommend maximizing your mechanical field skill level first before working on the others. Not only do a great many treasure boxes require high mechanical levels, but all FrontierNav probe sites are tied to mechanical levels as well. Don't get caught stranded!

TRAVELING COMPANIONS

Portraits of companions temporarily traveling with your party are shown here. This usually happens during missions when you have to escort involved parties—but seeing as Lin and Tatsu are a pair, you should also expect to see his mug in this section a lot.

BATTLE PROBE EFFECTS

Later into the game you receive battle probes that provide buffs to your party. If you're in the field of a probe's effects you'll see it here.

DIVISION

The BLADE division you belong to.

BLADE LV.

This shows your current BLADE level, as well as your division points and how many of those points you need to reach the next BLADE level.

MIRANIUM

Miranium is a precious resource mined by planting FrontierNav probes. This shows how much you currently have and how much you can hold.

REWARD TICKETS

This indicates the number of reward tickets that you have and how many you can hold. Reward tickets are achieved through activities such as squad missions (see the Social chapter for more details). Increase your BLADE level to be able to hold more!

YOU IN THE NUMBERS

Stats
	Level	60	Rank
	HP	8742	TP
	Total Ranged Attack	68	Total Melee Attack
	Defense	342	Melee Accuracy
	Ranged Accuracy	283	Melee Attack
	Ranged Attack	65	Potential
	Evasion	128	Physical Resistance
	Physical Resistance	25	Beam Resistance
	Ether Resistance	10	Thermal Resistance
	Electric Resistance	20	Gravity Resistance

Your stats make up your character and play a great part in dictating how well you can potentially do in combat. You can influence these numbers with ground gear, Skills, and Arts.

The statistics used in this game are as follows:

HP	The character's hit points. When these reach 0 in battle, the character becomes incapacitated.
TP	The character's tension points. Accumulating 1,000 allows the use of Arts that require TP. Accumulating 3,000 allows for the use of Overdrive, Skell Overdrive, and reviving characters in battle.
TOTAL RANGED ATTACK	The total sum of the character's Ranged Attack plus the Attack Power of their ranged weapon.
TOTAL MELEE ATTACK	The total sum of the character's Melee Attack plus the Attack Power of their melee weapon.
DEFENSE	The sum total of a character's defensive potential.
RANGED ACCURACY	Affects the chance of the character's Ranged Attack hitting their opponent.
MELEE ACCURACY	Affects the chance of the character's melee attack hitting their opponent.
RANGED ATTACK	The character's base ranged attack potential.
MELEE ATTACK	The character's base melee attack potential.
EVASION	Affects the chance of being able to avoid enemy attacks.
POTENTIAL	Affects the amount of HP recovered by Soul Voices and Arts, as well as the damage dealt by Arts that use TP.
PHYSICAL RESISTANCE	Resistance to physical-type attacks.
BEAM RESISTANCE	Resistance to beam-type attacks.
ETHER RESISTANCE	Resistance to ether-type attacks.
THERMAL RESISTANCE	Resistance to thermal-type attacks.
ELECTRIC RESISTANCE	Resistance to electric-type attacks.
GRAVITY RESISTANCE	Resistance to gravity-type attacks.

Outside of TP, the game's enemies have these stats as well. You can use this information to your advantage, especially in terms of attribute resistances.

WORLDLY POSSESSIONS

You can hold on to all sorts of things in Xenoblade Chronicles X, and they all show up in your Inventory menu. Your Inventory is broken down into the following categories:

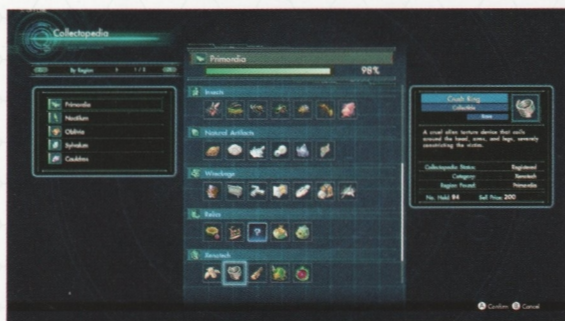

RANGED WEAPONS	Equipment that allows a party member to attack at range.
MELEE WEAPONS	Equipment that allows a party member to attack up close.
ARMOR	Equipment that affects a party member's defensive capabilities.
SKELL WEAPONS	Equipment that affects a Skell's offensive capabilities.
SKELL ARMOR	Equipment that affects a Skell's defensive capabilities.
AUGMENTS	Items that can be slotted into equipment to enhance their abilities.
MATERIALS	Materials salvaged from enemy battles.
PREVIOUS RESOURCES	Resources mined from FrontierNav probe sites on Mira where data probes have been planted.
APPENDAGE FRAGMENTS	Pieces of appendages broken from enemies and/or indigens.
DATA PROBES	Various types of data probes that can be planted at FrontierNav probe sites.
COLLECTIBLES	Items picked up around Mira. These can be filed into the Collectopedia.
IMPORTANT ITEMS	Items picked up that are important to missions. These cannot be sold.
CONSUMABLE ITEMS	Items that can be used in battle. They are obtained from division rewards. Refer to the Social chapter of this guide for more information.

COLLECTOPEDIA

Meanwhile, all of the collectible items on Mira can be registered into the Collectopedia. If the box reads "OK," then you're good to register! The more items you register, the more and greater rewards you accrue:

LUCKY PANEL	Add an item to a panel with a star icon on it and you'll receive some battle points.
ROW COMPLETE	Battle points and a hologram await you for completing an entire row for a region.
CATEGORY COMPLETE	You'll receive battle points for completing an entire category for all continents.
REGION COMPLETE	You'll receive battle points and a data probe for completing all items for a region. Explore everywhere!

Sacrifices Must Be Made

If you add a collectible to the Collectopedia, one of it will be removed from the Inventory. If you only have one of a collectible, you'll have to make a decision about whether or not you might need it later for a mission or a purchase!

For a complete list of collectibles you can place into the Collectopedia, as well as their locations, check the Collectibles section of this guide's Data chapter.

MAKING FRIENDS

Affinity refers to the relationships between characters, whether it be between you and other characters or other characters and each other. You can view these connections in the Affinity Chart menu. Highlight any character to get a glimpse of their relationships.

If the relationship is between you and another playable party member, your Affinity level is displayed in hearts. You can increase Affinity hearts by having these characters in your party and then successfully activating Soul Voices with them, completing missions, or responding to dialogue questions in ways that line up with that party member's personality.

If you gain enough Affinity between yourself and a character, you can trigger a heart-to-heart special event. For locations and requirements of these special events, check the Segment Contents section of the Data chapter.

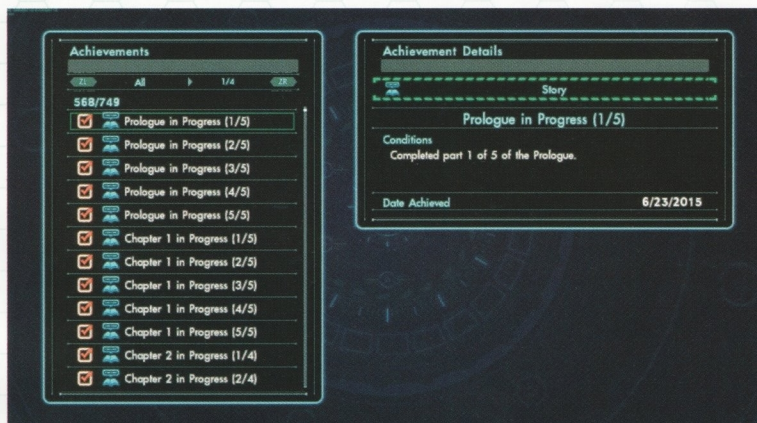

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Xenoblade Chronicles X comes equipped with a robust online component that allows you to passively enjoy adventuring on planet Mira with people from all around planet Earth. You can take on specialized missions, rally behind your BLADE divisions, and earn special rewards that would take far more time to earn in the game's single-player mode alone.

For an in-depth look at the game's social components, check the Social chapter of this guide.

DOING GREAT WORKS

Achievements are different progress milestones scattered throughout the game that provide bragging rights and reasons to cheer your friends on! For a complete list of Achievements, check the Achievements section in this guide's Data chapter.

Soon after beginning the game, you join a military organization known as BLADE. BLADE is responsible for exploring Mira and keeping the peace in various ways.

BLADE is an acronym, but you'll have to play the game to find out what it stands for. It's...actually rather sobering.

THE LEVELS

By working as a member of BLADE, you earn division points. Your BLADE level increases as you reach certain division point thresholds. You can gain division points faster by performing tasks promoted by your division; for example, the Pathfinders emphasize exploration.

THE DIVISIONS

Shortly after joining BLADE, you're asked to choose one of its eight divisions. Each division has a chief role but is not restricted to that role. Choose what division you want to join according to your preferred play style. Roles that are "promoted" will earn you BLADE division points at a faster rate; for example, you can gain division points more quickly by planting probes as a Pathfinder or by defeating tyrants as a Harrier.

Divisions can also lend different types of support out in the field. Approach a base camp bearing a division's symbol and ask for their support if you so wish. That division will then provide automatic and passive bonuses that take effect while you are in battle.

If you are playing online, you can change your division at any time via the Network Console in the BLADE Barracks.

The different divisions, their roles, and support types are as follows.

PATHFINDERS

This division promotes the installation of data probes and the finding of new locations. Pathfinders provide HP Support help, which recovers HP over time.

INTERCEPTORS

Interceptors promote defeating the indigens and completing missions. The Ranged Master support from your fellow Interceptors increases the damage dealt by ranged weapons.

HARRIERS

This division promotes defeating the indigens and tyrants. The Melee Master support increases the damage dealt by melee weapons.

RECLAIMERS

Reclaimers promote retrieving treasure boxes and installing data probes. Their Drop Sensor support increases the chance of obtaining items from enemies.

CURATORS

This division promotes gathering collectibles and defeating tyrants. Other Curators offer the Critical Master support, which increases the chance of landing a critical hit.

PROSPECTORS

Prospectors promote collecting resources and discovering new techniques. Their Defense Support decreases the amount of damage you take.

OUTFITTERS

This division promotes investing miranium in arms manufacturers and gaining R&D points. Outfitters provide R&D Support, which increases the number of R&D points you obtain.

MEDIATORS

Mediators promote completing missions and building good relationships with other players' avatars. Their TP Support allows you to accumulate additional TP when attacking with Arts.

SURVEY THE PLANET THE WORLD MAP AND COMM DEVICE

The world map of Mira is displayed on the Wii U GamePad and is divided into hexagonal partitions called segments. By touching and swiping these segments, you can navigate your way around the world, both on the map and in the game proper.

Different world map features will be available over the course of the game, with icons to match.

Toggle display modes.

Send a BLADE report (see the Social chapter for details).

Turn the BLADE report display (which appears on the upper left corner of the screen) on or off.

Display the game screen on the GamePad.

Select an emote for your character to perform.

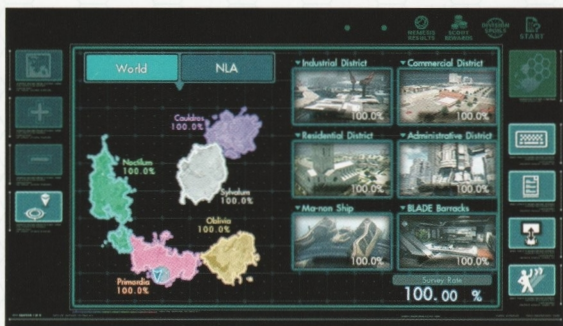

Display the world/NLA maps.

Zoom the map in or out.

Focus the map on your character's current location.

The survey rate is how much of the world you have explored. This will increase upon finishing heart-to-heart events, completing missions, installing data probes, and resolving segment recon objectives.

THE COMM DEVICE IS ALSO HOME TO SEVERAL ALERT NOTICES.

- A story mission is available.
- There is a scout reward waiting for you. See the Social chapter for more details on this.
- There is a battle reward waiting for you. This applies to Global Nemesis battles. See the Social chapter for more details.

WORLD MAP: SEGMENT VIEW

The map screen can be viewed in three distinct ways, each of which provides different sets of information.

Segment view is the default view of the world map and the one with the most functions, such as fast travel.

TATSU'S TIPS: REMEMBER THE REVERSE RAINBOW!

The color of any segment indicates the general danger level of the enemies in that area. The order goes, from least to most dangerous: purple > blue > green > yellow > orange > red. A good way to remember is to think of the colors of the rainbow, but in reverse.

- Denotes a potential FrontierNav site.
- Denotes a FrontierNav site with a data probe installed.
- Denotes a segment that can be reached via fast travel. You can fast-travel by touching any location on the segment map that is specially marked with this icon, then touching the fast travel icon that appears at the bottom left of the map.
- Denotes a segment that has no information available on it yet. Plant probes to uncover these segments' secrets.

RECON AND RESOLVE

Segment recon consists of the activities that are possible within a certain segment.

- Denotes that there's new segment recon to do. This icon usually happens upon hearing conversations from others in New LA or out in the field (for example, base camps). Touch the segment to find out its details.
- Denotes segment recon that has been checked (but not yet resolved). Finish the job! If a segment has outstanding activities, they too will be marked with icons.
- Denotes that a specific tyrant is located here.
- Denotes that a treasure box of note is located here.
- Denotes that a normal mission objective is located at the segment.
- Denotes that an affinity mission objective is located at the segment.
- Denotes a fully resolved segment, which counts towards your survey rate. Go for 100 percent in all territories.

WORLD MAP: MAP VIEW

The map view is great for looking for landmarks as well as looking for rest spots where you can manipulate the time of day.

WORLD MAP: FRONTIERNV VIEW

FrontierNav view allows you to view information related to the data probes that you've planted.

The number near a data probe indicates its grade, and if it's circled, then it is part of a link combo.

Mining information is shown at the bottom right. Planting probes allows for the mining of miranium, as well as income from Miran tourism. The latter comes in the form of credits, which you can spend in places like Armory Alley. The two numbers denote how much of each you'll receive automatically on a regular basis.

Touch any location that has a probe installed to display information about the probe and the FrontierNav site in general.

FN site info is a rundown of the segment's potential—in other words, its yield when a corresponding type of probe is placed.

PRODUCTION	Refers to the amount of miranium that can be mined from the segment.
REVENUE	How many credits the segment can generate.
COMBAT SUPPORT	How effective a battle probe will be in the segment.
SIGHTSEEING SPOTS FOUND	The number of sightseeing spots discovered. Look for those secret landmarks!
MINEABLE RESOURCES	Some segments have rare resources available to mine. You can see these here.

TATSU'S TIPS: MATCH AND MATCH!

It's a good idea to match up the right type of probe with a segment that has a high potential in a corresponding field. For example, if a segment has a production potential rating of A, that's a prime place to set up your highest-grade mining probe! Meanwhile, you can check how well your probe is doing in the Data Probe Info subscreen.

PIECE BY PIECE

Cataloguing Mira is an essential task for humanity's survival. It allows you to get all sorts of info, from types of terrain to mineable resources.

One of your overarching objectives in the game is to plant data probes at compatible points called FrontierNav probe sites. You'll know a site by the distinctive beam of light shooting out of the ground. Approach the beam and press (A) repeatedly to plant the probe.

Once you install a data probe, that segment will be catalogued, as well as others around it, providing precious information and adding to your segment recon rate. Go for 100 percent!

Here are the types of probes you can plant. Note that some of these will not be available until later into the game.

BASIC PROBE	The probe that is planted by default at all FrontierNav probe sites. Has no special attributes.
MINING PROBE	Allows for increased mining of miranium. Up to 10 grades of this probe exist.
RESEARCH PROBE	Allows for increased currency gain. Up to six grades of this probe exist.
BATTLE PROBE	Gives the party various beneficial battle-related effects while inside the region where the probe is installed.
BOOSTER PROBE	Enhances the primary function of connected probes. Up to two grades of this probe exist.
STORAGE PROBE	Allows for increased maximum miranium storage.
DUPLICATOR PROBE	Copies the function of a connected probe. It will not copy other duplicator probes, however.
FUEL RECOVERY PROBE	Allows for greater fuel recovery of Skells standing within the region where the probe is installed.
MELEE ATTACK PROBE	Allows for greater melee attack power of party members or Skells standing within the region where the probe is installed.
RANGED ATTACK PROBE	Allows for greater ranged attack power of party members or Skells standing within the region where the probe is installed.
EZ DEBUFF PROBE	Allows for easier debuffing of enemies located within the region where the probe is installed.
ATTRIBUTE RESISTANCE PROBE	Allows for greater attribute resistances (physical, thermal, etc.) for party members or Skells standing within the region where the probe is installed.

CHANGING PROBES

You can change the type of data probe installed at a segment by switching to the FrontierNav view of the segment map on the Wii U GamePad, then pressing Change Probe. From there simply pick from the list. Changing a probe to anything but a basic probe costs credits, so make sure you have them!

LINK COMBOS

If you link probes of the same type and rank together, you'll gain chain bonuses. Connect three sites with the same probe for an effect boost of 30 percent, connect five for 50 percent, and connect eight for 80 percent. Chaining can really help when you're trying to get lots of credits or miranium.

PROBING AND ITS BENEFITS

Some FrontierNav sites are mineral veins that contain resources. Installing a probe at one of these sites will gain you credits or resources automatically at timed intervals as you play the game.

There are two main types of resources you can gain. The first is miranium, an ore that is useful for upgrading arms manufacturers and for different missions. Meanwhile, rare resources are named and will show up in your Inventory. Check the Segment Info section of the Data chapter for more details. Please note that leaving the game on for a long period of time will not continue to generate revenue.

TAKE ON MISSIONS

Most of your activities on Mira, outside of basic exploration, take the form of missions. Missions can net you loot and gear, in addition to revealing more about the characters and world. There are four types.

STORY	This is the main story thread of the game.
AFFINITY	These missions go in-depth regarding your party members and will increase the Affinity levels between you and them. They also tend to require having already gained a certain amount of Affinity between you and the party member. Some Affinity missions even yield new party members and Arts!
NORMAL	These are missions that task you to do various things around Mira, be they chores, escorting, gathering, you name it. This is the best way to gain most of the game's items and buyables, as well as to learn about citizens of Mira who aren't your party members.
BASIC	These missions are more of the routine variety, such as bounties, collection, or talking to others. Do these for quick rewards or to unlock missions of higher tiers. You can grab basic missions at Mission Control. You can accept up to 20 missions of this type at once, and they can be canceled at any time.

You can check on your progress in the Missions menu.

No Crowding!

You can accept only one story or Affinity mission at a time. Once it's accepted, it cannot be canceled, nor can you switch out any "required" party members for its duration. Make sure you're ready for the challenge! It might be a good idea to save your game immediately before accepting the mission, then reloading your save file if it proves to be too much for you.

TARGET ACQUIRED

When you take on a mission, you can set it as your navigation target, meaning that (usually) the way to the next objective will be shown on the mini-map. For specifically marked missions, as well as for missions that require collecting items, navigation may be unavailable. Your mission objective is also always shown to the right of the screen once you have a mission targeted.

GET TO KNOW NEW LOS ANGELES

New Los Angeles (a.k.a. New LA or NLA) is Mira's only city. It houses its new human residents after the crash of the White Whale. Beings of all walks of life live here, and the city grows in population as you progress through the game. Most normal missions involve citizens of NLA.

NLA is broken up into five regions: Administrative District, Commercial District, Industrial District, Residential District, and Ma-non Ship.

ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT

Part of the upper level, the Administrative District houses BLADE Tower and all of the BLADE facilities you'll be actively using, such as Armory Alley. BLADE operatives of various divisions hang out here as well, including a good chunk of your recruitable party members.

COMMERCIAL DISTRICT

Part of the lower district, the Commercial District offers shops and food galore. This is where the people of New LA go to sell their non-BLADE-related wares. However, these shops aren't available for you, just for the non-player residents of New LA.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

The Industrial District is part of the lower level. It houses the industries of New LA. The massive Outfitters Test Hangar, which you'll be seeing for many missions, is located here.

RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT

Part of the lower level, the Residential District houses the people of New LA and is home to its most scenic sights.

MA-NON SHIP

The Ma-non Ship is part of the upper level. You'll gain access to it after Chapter 5 of the main story.

CONVERSING AND EAVESDROPPING

You can walk up to people who have the correct icon above their head and press (A) to initiate a conversation. You can hear what they're about to say and ask them about their lives.

Meanwhile, you can overhear conversations and gossip if you simply run close to people with the blue speech bubble icon above their heads. If you run into someone with a yellow icon, they'll usually tell you something useful about a mission, treasure, or tyrant. You can check on these in the Info menu.

Stay Ground-Bound

Overhearing conversations won't work in a Skell—it's too big and noisy! You'll have to listen around on foot.

MAKING DECISIONS

At several points throughout the game, you're asked to respond to someone's question or dialogue during a cutscene. Sometimes it's for cosmetic purposes, but many times you'll gain Affinity with your party members if the answer you give lines up with their personality. Do you try to please them or stay true to yourself? The choice is entirely yours.

THE CITY MINI-MAP

Keep an eye on these icons on your mini-map as you traverse New LA. They allow you to reach destinations and progress in the game more quickly.

BLADE FACILITIES

From its top brass to your standard NLA citizen, BLADE requires the support of humanity and xeniform alike to achieve its goals. In the Administrative District of NLA, you'll find various facilities to help you in your missions.

BLADE CONCOURSE

The BLADE Concourse is where it all happens—BLADEs gather to converse, pick up missions, and advance in the ranks.

MISSION CONTROL AND ELEONORA

Mission Control is where you can accept basic missions, which are grouped into bounties, where you hunt enemies; gathering missions, where you collect items; and social missions, where you interact with the populace.

Eleonora, meanwhile, doles out the rewards for when you rise through the ranks of BLADE. Every time you gain a new BLADE level, talk to her; she'll give you a new level in field proficiency, as well as a new way to decorate the BLADE Barracks.

BLADE SCOUT CONSOLE

This console lets you scout other players' avatars for missions. See the Social chapter of this guide for more.

ARMORY ALLEY

The cyber-shopping district of NLA, this corridor of the Administrative District sells everything you could possibly need to gear up and explore Mira on its terms.

SHOP TERMINAL

Here you can buy or sell ground gear for your characters, in addition to Skills and Skull gear.

AM TERMINAL

The arms manufacturers terminal has functions that deal with arms manufacturers. Head here for the really special stuff.

AM TERMINAL	Invest miranium in New LA's arms manufacturers. The more miranium you invest, the higher you can raise their R&D level, allowing them to craft more powerful gear for you.
UPGRADE BATTLE TRAITS	Using materials mined or gathered in the field, you can upgrade attributes of ground or Skell gear.
ENGINEER AUGMENTS	Using materials mined or gathered in the field, you can create special devices called augments, which can be inserted into ground or Skell gear that contains open augment slots.
DEVELOP NEW GEAR	Using materials mined or gathered in the field, you can develop entirely new gear not found in the shop terminal, provided the arms manufacturers are of a high enough level to unlock them. Go for the superweapons!

TATSU'S TIPS: BEING A SHOWOFF PAYS OFF

You can also automatically gain points with an R&D company upon visiting this terminal by "advertising" their products—that is, going out and defeating enemies using weapons or armor manufactured by a particular company. Want easy pointage with Sakuraba Industries? Keep their stuff equipped!

L'S SHOP

Completing the "Booming Business" normal mission (see the Normal Missions List section in this guide's Walkthrough chapter) unlocks L's Shop, where you can create augment slots for weapons and armor for a fee.

BLADE BARRACKS

The barracks are your home away from home and your base of operations. Certain facilities are found here as well.

BLADE BARRACKS CONSOLE

Use this to redecorate the barracks and manage your Skills.

HOLOFIGURE GALLERY

You can use this to check out the hologures you've received as mission rewards or for defeating tyrants.

BLADE NETWORK CONSOLE

When playing online, you can accept or join online missions here or reap division rewards. Check out the Social chapter of this guide for more info.

PARTY MEMBERS

When characters join your party, you'll find them littered around New LA in their usual hangout spots. You can find information on those spots in the Segment Info section of the Data chapter. Unless that character has temporarily relocated due to an active heart-to-heart event, you can head to these spots and recruit them.

SEEING THE WORLD

In order to survey planet Mira, you'll need to explore it—step by step, mountain by mountain.

THE HELPFUL HUD

The HUD gives you several pieces of information to help you keep your bearings as you explore Mira.

LOCATION NAME	Where you are. The overall region name is above the line, while the area name is below the line.
WEATHER	Mira is host to all sorts of weather depending on the time of day and the region. Weather also often comes packaged with buffs and debuffs, so it helps to keep an eye on the reading.
IN-GAME TIME	Mira has a day-night cycle. Some missions can only be taken at certain times of the day. This also applies to the appearance of certain indigens.
MINI-MAP	Your quickest tool to let you know where you are and where you're going.
ENEMY LEVEL	Keep a close eye on this to make sure that the enemy you're encountering is something that can be handled by your party!

The mini-map also uses these helpful icons:

	LOCATION AND DIRECTION		CURRENT DESTINATION		ENEMY		FIELD ACCESS POINT (SUCH AS A TREASURE BOX)		REST SPOT
--	------------------------	--	---------------------	--	-------	--	--	--	-----------

LOCATIONS

Mira is full of sights and views to take one's breath away. Keeping them catalogued is also the only way to be able to efficiently perform one's job as a BLADE. Locations fall under several classifications:

REGION	A vast space, such as one of the continents of Mira, that contains landmarks and areas, both listed and secret.
AREA	A smaller space within a region. Discovering one can gain you experience points.
LANDMARK	A symbolic location. You can gain experience points and battle points for discovering one.
UNEXPLORED TERRITORIES AND SCENIC VIEWPOINTS	These are hidden—hence the name. As such, you can gain lots of experience for finding one!
BASE CAMP	These are scattered all across Mira, and they allow you to change the time of day at the rest spots located therein. You can gain battle points for discovering one.
FRONTIERNV SITE	Plant probes at these locations to survey the planet. You'll gain experience and battle points for discovering one of these.

FOLLOW THE FOLLOW BALL!

You gain use of the Follow Ball after Chapter 3 of the main story, and there's no better way to get your bearings! Set a navigation target for a mission, then hold (R) and press (X). The Follow Ball will, 99 percent of the time, zoom off in the best path toward your objective. For the 1 percent of the time when it gets lost, simply activate it again.

Sadly, this means that during missions where navigation targeting is disabled—such as item collection missions—the Follow Ball will be unavailable. However, that's what the Collectibles section in the Data chapter of this guide is for. Don't hesitate to use it!

OPEN THOSE TREASURE BOXES!

Treasure boxes are littered all across Mira, from New LA to Cauldros. They can look like anything, from indigen nests to broken-down vehicles to... piles of dung. If you see one, run up to it and press (A) repeatedly to open it. Note that some treasure boxes require certain field skill levels. See the Welcome to BLADE section of this chapter to learn how to raise your ranking to meet these.

GRAB THOSE COLLECTIBLES!

Collectibles show up as small shining baubles sprinkled all across Mira, with the exception of New LA. Collect all of these to fill out your Collectopedia and to complete missions that require them.

TAKE A LOAD OFF ON REST SPOTS!

The large gray rooms at base camps and the red benches in New LA allow you to manipulate the in-game time by activating them. You can use this for time-sensitive missions or to fight powerful indigens that only show up at night.

INDIGENS ARE EVERYWHERE!

WHAT ARE INDIGENS?

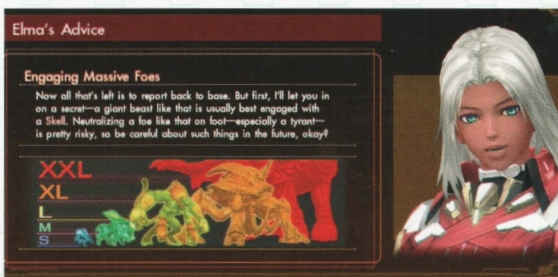

"Indigens" are the creatures "indigenous" to the planet Mira. They are untamed and usually rather dangerous. Some will keep to themselves, but many will attack on sight or if they hear you approach.

GAUGING INDIGEN STRENGTH

You can see how strong an indigen is by examining the color of its name and level number (accessible by coming into view of an indigen or highlighting one directly). From lowest to highest, the threat level goes gray > purple > blue > green > yellow > orange > red. An easy way to keep this in your head is to think of the colors of the rainbow, but in reverse—plus gray.

ENEMY SIZES

This applies to all enemies, not just indigens. There are five grades of enemy sizes: S > M > L > XL > XXL. The bigger the enemy, the tougher it is to take down, regardless of level parity. You'll want to take the biggest enemies on in a Skell. Note that there are enemies out there that dwarf even Skells!

HOW INDIGENS DETECT YOU

Most indigens detect you and attack based on two factors: sight and sound.

Visual-type indigens will attack you if you enter their field of vision. Do your best to step around or behind them to progress.

Auditory-type indigens will attack you if you wander too close to them—especially while sprinting. Give them a wide berth.

THE THREAT OF TYRANTS

Tyrants are powerful indigens—often super-powered versions of normal indigens. Even if they are your size or level, you should never underestimate them, as they tend to be far more powerful and able to take far more punishment than a standard enemy of the same size and level. Beating a tyrant nets you special rewards, so be brave whenever you think you stand a chance.

Indigens won't be your only enemies on your Miran adventure. You can view a rundown of the enemies you've encountered in the Enemy Index menu. For a complete list of indigens and other adversaries, check out our Enemy Index in the Data chapter.

Meanwhile, for more information on planet Mira in general, with detailed maps, visit the World of Mira chapter of this guide, as well as the Map Segment Contents section of the Data chapter. Careful—the Data chapter contains massive spoilers!

DRESSING THE PART

WEAPONRY

If you want to survive the harsh elements and indigens of Mira, then it's all about having the right gear and the wits to use it. Fortunately, members of BLADE have access to only the best of the best.

You know weapons—they're the things you hit baddies with to make them fall over. The type of weapons a character can wield depends on what class they are. For a complete list of classes, check out the Characters chapter.

All weapons bear the following attributes:

ATTACK	The weapon's power.
LV.	The level a character must be in order to equip the weapon. Raise levels to equip more powerful gear.
MANUFACTURER	The arms manufacturer that developed the weapon. Raise the level of the manufacturer to get them to produce higher level gear.
COOLDOWN	The number of seconds between auto-attacks.
ATTRIBUTE NAME	The type of damage dealt by the weapon. As with your personal statistics, this is broken down into six classes. Physical, beam, ether, electric, thermal and gravity.
AMMO COUNT	The number of shots per attack.
STABILITY	The weapon's potential damage range. The higher the stability, the more consistently it can deal the highest amount of damage.
TP INCREASE	The amount of TP gained per auto-attack.
UPGRADES	The number of times the weapon has been upgraded, and how many times it can be upgraded before it reaches its maximum level.

ARMOR

TATSU'S TIPS: WEAR IT ALL

Some pieces of armor take up more than one body part, and as such, they often have greater stats than comparable ensembles made up of separate armor pieces. Experiment to see what works for you!

Armor affects all personal statistics and resistance. There are five areas where armor can be equipped: head, left arm, right arm, torso, and legs.

Equip different armors to influence type resistances as well as stats such as defense, attack, and potential. You can also use the sub-menu to upgrade armor with augments bought from the armory if the armor has a free augment slot open.

TATSU'S TIPS: BE FASHIONABLE!

Like the stats of a piece of armor but don't like how it looks? Grab a piece of armor you do like the look of, and use the sub-menu (by pressing (X) in the Ground Gear menu) to set it as fashion gear. Fashion gear lets you dress how you want while still keeping the stats you like. Go forth and dazzle the indigens of Mira with your style!

BATTLE META

Now that you've got your gear, it's time to use it. Don't just rush into battle, however—get your intel on first.

DOUBLE THE WEAPONS, DOUBLE THE POWER

Depending on their class, every character wields two weapons at all times: melee and ranged.

Melee weapons are powerful and generate more TP per auto-attack than an equally specced ranged weapon, but they incur risk by requiring engagement up close.

Ranged weapons can be used from far away but attack with multiple hits that don't do nearly as much damage per hit as an equally specced melee weapon. Enemies can also target you more easily if you constantly hang back with ranged attacks. Switch between both weapons with (X) depending on the situation.

RANGED WEAPONS	MELEE WEAPONS
ASSAULT RIFLE	Longsword
SNIPER RIFLE	Javelin
DUAL GUNS	Dual Swords
GATLING GUN	Shield
RAYGUN	Knife
PSYCHO LAUNCHER	Photon Saber

DOUBLE THE WEAPONS, DOUBLE THE POWER

Through the course of the game, characters learn special abilities and attacks known as Arts. There are five different types of Arts, noted by color.

ART TYPE	DESCRIPTION
Melee Arts	Attack Arts related to melee weapons.
Ranged Arts	Attack Arts related to ranged weapons.
Aura Arts	Arts that consume 1,000 TP upon use. They can be melee or long-range Arts, and they are quite powerful. Their use can turn the tide of battle.
Debuff Arts	Arts related to debuffing (weakening) the enemy. They range from poisoning enemies and putting them to sleep to controlling them! Can be close or long range.
Buff Arts	Arts that support allies. They can grant resistances, recovery, etc., and can be close or long range.

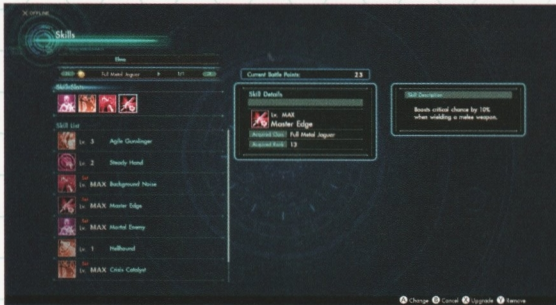

TATSU'S TIPS: MIND THE DETAILS

Some Arts may have a special effect added to them under certain conditions. For example, an Art may add TP if you attack an enemy from the front. Check the descriptions of your Arts to maximize effectiveness.

The Arts menu is your one-stop shop for all things Arts. You can check which ones you've learned, add or remove them from the Arts list with the (Y) button, and upgrade them using battle points with the (X) button. The level cap for Arts is 5. For a full list of Arts available to your avatar and party members, see the Characters chapter.

SKILLS

Unlike Arts, which are active abilities and effects launched while in battle, Skills are passive abilities and effects that automatically activate under the correct conditions when equipped.

You can view your party members' skills in the Skills menu. For a complete list of Skills available to characters, check the Characters chapter.

CLASSES

Classes are designations that are applied to your avatar and other party characters that dictate combat capabilities. Different classes specialize in different battle roles and weaponry, so it's best to learn as many classes as possible. Some are battle masters, some excel at support, some are ideal for crippling enemies. Experiment for best results.

Going through the ranks of a class yields Arts and Skills, which you can then take on to the next class—with a caveat. Some Arts are tied to weapons, so if you move to a class that requires use of a different weapon than the previous class, you won't be able to use those Arts. However, mastering a branch in the class tree allows you to equip that class's weapons on a different class.

You can view the tree of classes in the Class menu. If you reach the end of a tree and master the final class there, you can master its weapons, meaning you can use them (and the Arts that require them) in any class from then on!

For a complete list of classes available to characters and what they entail, see the Characters chapter.

WHAT ARE BATTLE POINTS?

Battle points are used to strengthen Arts and Skills. You can get them by:

- Increasing your level or class rank.
- Discovering base camps on Mira.
- Opening treasure boxes.
- Adding items to the Collectopedia—either complete entire rows or look for squares marked with a star.
- Completing squad missions (see the Social chapter for more info).

BUFFS AND DEBUFFS

Most often activated by Arts or weather effects, buffs grant temporary positive effects to party members, while debuffs inflict temporary negative effects. You can manipulate a character's resistance to damage, the ability to take damage, and a litany of other effects.

BUFFS

Buffs are temporary positive effects granted to party members. Buffs with higher levels have stronger effects and tend to last longer than buffs with lower levels.

NAME	EFFECT
 MELEE ACCURACY UP	Increases melee attack accuracy.
 RANGED ACCURACY UP	Increases ranged attack accuracy.
 EVASION UP	Increases the character's chance of evading enemy attacks.
 MELEE POWER UP	Increases melee attack damage.
 RANGED POWER UP	Increases ranged attack damage.
 POTENTIAL UP	Increases the amount of HP recovered by Soul Voices and Arts, and increases damage dealt by tension Arts.
 PHYSICAL RES UP	Decreases the amount of physical damage the character will take.
 BEAM RES UP	Decreases the amount of beam damage the character will take.
 ETHER RES UP	Decreases the amount of ether damage the character will take.
 THERMAL RES UP	Decreases the amount of thermal damage the character will take.
 ELECTRIC RES UP	Decreases the amount of electric damage the character will take.
 GRAVITY RES UP	Decreases the amount of gravity damage the character will take.
 BARRIER	Surrounds the character with a barrier that absorbs a certain amount of damage.
 SUPERCHARGE	Doubles the damage the character's next attack will do.
 DECOY	The character will evade a certain number of enemy attacks.
 CRITICAL POWER UP	Doubles the damage of the character's critical hits.
 EFFECT STASIS	Buff effects will last longer.
 DEFENDING	Greatly decreases the amount of damage the character will take.
 AURA	An aura becomes active. The effect of the aura varies depending on the Art used.
 INVINCIBLE	The character becomes invincible for a certain amount of time.
 WEATHER IMMUNITY	The character will become immune to weather effects.
 TERRAIN IMMUNITY	The character will become immune to terrain damage.

WEATHER AND BATTLE PROBE BUFFS

These are positive effects gained from either the weather or from placing battle-related probes.

NAME	EFFECT
 ALL ATTRIBUTE RES UP	Decreases all damage the character is taking.
 CRITICAL CHANCE UP	Increases the character's chance of scoring a critical hit.
 ETHER ATTACK UP	Increases ether attack damage.
 THERMAL ATTACK UP	Increases thermal attack damage.
 ELECTRIC ATTACK UP	Increases electric attack damage.
 GRAVITY ATTACK UP	Increases gravity attack damage.
 RES DOWN	Reduces the enemy's resistance to debuffs and makes it easier to inflict Stagger and Topple.
 SKELL FUEL RECOVERY	Recovers Skell fuel constantly.
 SKELL FUEL RECOVERY SPEED UP	Parked Skells recover fuel more quickly.

DEBUFFS

Debuffs are negative effects inflicted on party members. Debuffs with higher levels have stronger effects and tend to last longer than debuffs with lower levels.

MOBILITY DEBUFFS

These debuffs will either forcefully move a character or affect that character's ability to move. The affected character will not be able to move until the debuff is removed or wears off on its own.

NAME	EFFECT
 STAGGER	Knocks the character off balance, making him or her susceptible to Topple and Bind.
 TOPPLE	The character topples, opening him or her up to further attack.
 KNOCKBACK	The character is shoved backward a certain distance.
 LAUNCH	The character is sent flying away.
 FLINCH	The character flinches, unable to act for a certain amount of time.
 STUN	The character faints.
 SLEEP	The character is put to sleep but will wake upon being attacked.
 BIND	The character is pinned down by an enemy Skill.
 CONTROL	The character seizes control of the target and turns it into an ally.

STATUS DEBUFFS

These affect either a party member's or enemy's stats.

NAME	EFFECT
 TAUNT	Draws the attention of the target.
 BLACKOUT	Reduces accuracy, evasion, and the amount of damage dealt by ranged weapons.
 VIRUS	The afflicted cannot use ranged weapons.
 FATIGUE	Decreases melee attack damage.
 SLOW ARTS	Slows down Art cooldown speed.
 TIME BOMB	Inflicts a large amount of damage after a certain amount of time.
 DEBUFF RES DOWN	Decreases resistance to all types of debuffs.
 HP RECOVERY DOWN	Reduces the amount of HP recovered by Soul Voices and Arts.
 MAX TP DOWN	Reduces Maximum TP.
 BLAZE	Inflicts thermal damage at regular intervals.
 SHOCK	Inflicts electric damage at regular intervals.
 PHYSICAL RES DOWN	Increases the amount of physical damage taken.
 BEAM RES DOWN	Increases the amount of beam damage taken.
 ETHER RES DOWN	Increases the amount of ether damage taken.
 THERMAL RES DOWN	Increases the amount of thermal damage taken.
 ELECTRIC RES DOWN	Increases the amount of electric damage taken.
 GRAVITY RES DOWN	Increases the amount of gravity damage taken.

WEATHER DEBUFFS

Certain weather conditions inflict debuffs.

NAME	EFFECT
 MELEE ACCURACY DOWN	Reduces melee attack accuracy.
 RANGED ACCURACY DOWN	Reduces ranged attack accuracy.
 MELEE POWER DOWN	Reduces melee attack damage.
 RANGED POWER DOWN	Reduces ranged attack damage.
 POTENTIAL DOWN	Decreases the amount of HP recovered by Soul Voices and Arts, as well as damage dealt by tension Arts.
 CRITICAL CHANCE DOWN	Reduces the character's chance to score a critical hit.
 BEAM ATTACK DOWN	Reduces beam attack damage.
 WEATHER DAMAGE: HEAT	Inflicts thermal damage at regular intervals.
 WEATHER DAMAGE: LIGHTNING	Inflicts electric damage at regular intervals.

A NOTE ON DEBUFF RESISTANCES

Some enemies show resistance to some debuff effects. If an enemy is partially resistant to an attempted debuff (resulting in a prevention of the effect), the message "RESISTANT" will display. If the enemy is completely resistant to the attempted debuff, the message "IMMUNE" will display.

BRAVING THE ELEMENTS

Different weather conditions bring with them different buffs and debuffs.

TATSU'S TIPS: THE NUMBERS GAME

You can potentially cancel out buffs by using a debuff of the same type and level, and vice versa. For example, a level 2 Physical Res Up can be canceled out by a level 2 Physical Res Down. Fight fire with fire!

TATSU'S TIPS: THE BEAUTY OF TOPPLING

The Topple status can wreak major havoc on even the biggest of enemies. It sends them crashing to the ground, leaving them helpless to attack. You can topple an enemy by using an Art that inflicts Topple—check your Arts' details. Careful, however—some enemies require being hit with Stagger before Topple will hit.

COMBAT FLOW

When you draw your weapon and advance toward an enemy, it's officially go time. Use the onscreen information, your knowledge of positioning, and the tools at your disposal to pull off the victory.

THE HELPFUL HUD

In this screenshot we can clearly see the following previously explained concepts:

But what are the rest? Glad you asked!

MORALE LEVEL

This shows your party's solidarity. The higher the morale, the better your characters work together. You'll get chances to activate Soul Voices more often and gain additional TP from their successful activation.

ARTS PALETTE

This shows your currently equipped Arts.

POSITIONAL RELATION

This shows your position in relation to the enemy. You can attack from the front, but it's often advantageous to attack from the side or the back. Use the left stick to move your character's position in real time (shown on the left). You can even jump and sprint in order to manipulate your elevation relative to the enemy (shown on the right). Go for the high ground!

CURRENT WIELDED WEAPON

This is a good way to keep track of which weapon you have equipped and what sort of damage it's doing to the enemy.

BATTLE MENU

Press (+) during combat or while targeting an enemy to open the Battle menu. You can then press (X) to scroll through submenus.

ISSUE ORDERS	You can order your party members to follow the tactics you command of them.
ITEMS	You can use consumable items, which are received as division rewards. For more on division rewards, check the Social chapter of this guide.
EMERGENCY ESCAPE	If you can hold out for 15 seconds after issuing this order, you'll escape battle and reappear at the nearest landmark, no matter what. This is great for getting out of a bleak situation.

AUTO-ATTACKING

Once combat has begun, your character will automatically attack the enemy at timed intervals. These intervals are determined by weapon stats.

APPENDAGES

2 Appendage HP

3 Enemy's HP

Appendage Lock

Get close to the appendage you want to attack, and press ○ to lock on to the target.

By clicking the right stick during battle, you can zero in on an enemy appendage and concentrate your attacks on it. This has several benefits—increased damage from your attacks and decreased resistances for the enemy for each appendage destroyed. You can also disable enemy Arts by destroying certain appendages, as well as gain special materials—some of which are appendage-exclusive!

The green meter on the left shows the appendage HP, and any name that shows up near the appendage shows the Art that the appendage is associated with.

COOLDOWN

After you use an Art, a cooldown period takes place; you'll be unable to use that Art again for a set time. That time varies by Art and that Art's level and stats.

Once the cooldown timer has passed and the Art is usable again, a secondary cooldown is activated. Wait out this timer and you'll have access to a more powerful version of the move. It may last more time, it may do more damage, or you may be able to use it more than once!

TATSU'S TIPS: THE THIRD WAY

You can activate a tertiary cooldown by using Overdrive. Go for the ultimate powerful attack! Learn more about tertiary cooldown in the section "All About Overdrive."

SOUL VOICES AND SOUL CHALLENGES

During battle, you and your party members will call out encouragements, commands, and tactics. You can respond to these calls by noting the color of the Soul Voice and activating an Art of the same color. Your party members can do the same when you successfully complete a Soul Challenge and call out a Soul Voice yourself.

Soul Voices are powerful and can have highly beneficial effects, such as restoring HP and TP, adding temporary levels to Arts, and more. You'll be able to change all of these in the Soul Voices menu.

The colors respond to the different types of Arts:

Melee Arts
Ranged Arts
Debuff Arts
Buff Arts
Aura Arts
Overdrive

Successful activations also result in recovered HP and increased Affinity between all characters involved in the Soul Voice. Morale also increases.

Soul Challenges are unique to your player character. After certain conditions, such as performing an Art, you'll see a diagram. Press (B) while the shrinking orange circle is overlapping or within the white circle to successfully complete the challenge. If the orange circle is within the white circle, you earn a Good score, but if it overlaps the white circle, you get a Perfect score and a TP boost, so get the timing right!

While party members' Soul Voice loadouts are static, you can customize your own Soul Voices in the Soul Voices menu. Check the Characters chapter for a list of Soul Voices, activation conditions, and effects assigned to recruitable party members and customizable for your avatar.

Trying to get Soul Voices to appear more often? Here's a list of how often they appear and how long it takes them to appear again.

SOUL VOICE APPEARANCES

SOUL VOICE	PRIORITY*	APPEARANCE RATE	COOLDOWN (SECONDS)	TRIGGERS
PARTY MEMBER SOUL VOICES
DRAW MELEE	2	20	60	Drawing a melee weapon.
DRAW RANGED	2	20	60	Drawing a ranged weapon.

HP RISK	15	75	10	When HP = 60% or below.
HP PERIL	14	75	8	When HP = 30% or below.
LAST WORDS	3	75	8	When HP = 0.
HEAVY HITTER	17	1	30	When critical hit occurs.
DISMEMBERER	8	75	10	When enemy part is destroyed.
UNDERDOG	10	50	10	When a +2 size enemy drops below 50% HP.
ARTFUL EXECUTION	16	15	10	When Arts are used very effectively.
AURA READY	13	30	10	When aura Arts are used.
ACTIVATE OVERDRIVE	4	50	10	When entering Overdrive.
CUSTOM SOUL VOICES
FINISHING BLOW	5	100	10	When defeating an enemy who's not the last.
UNTOUCHABLE	6	100	10	When you dodge three enemy attacks in a row.
CRITICAL COMBINATION	6	100	10	When you get three critical hits in a row.
WAYWARD WEATHER	7	100	10	When the weather changes and has an effect.
SPRINTER	7	30	10	Sprint for more than three seconds.
MEDICINE MAN	18	30	10	When a male character buffs you.
MEDICINE WOMAN	18	30	10	When a female character buffs you.
DAREDEVIL	9	15	10	Using attack Arts when your HP is 30% or below.
HIGHER GROUND	11	5	10	Attack from a higher position than your target.
TOPPLER	8	50	10	Attack your target inflict Topple.
STUNNER	10	50	10	Attack your target inflict Stun.
SANDMAN	10	50	10	Attack your target and inflict Sleep.
BINDER	8	30	10	Bind your target.
SKELL CRUSH	12	50	10	When you break a part of the Skell you're riding in.
WRECKED SKELL	3	100	10	When the Skell you're riding in hits HP = 0 and breaks.
RUNNING ON EMPTY	13	30	10	When the fuel of the Skell you're riding in reaches 30% or less.

*LOWER NUMBERS TAKE APPEARANCE PRIORITY OVER HIGHER NUMBERS.

TENSION

Tension points, or TP, rise with each auto-attack, as well as by fulfilling certain conditions with some Arts. When your TP reaches 1,000, you can use Arts that require TP, which tend to be quite powerful. Meanwhile, if you reach at least 3,000 TP, you can dismount from your skull to revive a character or activate Overdrive, which enhances all your combat abilities temporarily.

You keep your TP after each battle, but it resets to 0 if you are ever incapacitated.

INCAPACITATION AND REVIVAL

If a character's HP drops to zero, they will be unable to take further action. If your avatar becomes incapacitated, they can elect to return immediately to the nearest landmark by pressing (A) or wait to be teleported after 30 seconds.

TATSU'S TIPS: WAIT IT OUT

If you're incapacitated, there are two ways to get back into the game: be revived by your party members or have the rest of your party win the battle. If your party members defeat all enemies, you'll be automatically revived and reap the rewards. Trust in your teammates!

If one of your party members has at least 3,000 TP, they'll automatically attempt to revive you or another fallen teammate.

When the player character revives party members, the mechanics are as follows:

SOUL VOICE CHALLENGE RATING	RESULT
FAILURE	Party member receives 30 percent of their Max HP when revived.
GOOD	Party member receives 80 percent of Max HP.
PERFECT	Party member receives 80 percent of Max HP and 1,000 TP.

When party members revive a player character, HP recovered and TP added are the same as when the player character revives party members; however, the level of reward depends on your Affinity with the party member who revives you.

When party members revive other party members, they will recover only 30 percent of their maximum HP.

ALL ABOUT OVERDRIVE

Once you or one of your party members accrues 3,000 TP, the fun really starts. Activate Overdrive to break the limit of what you can normally do in battle. When Overdrive is active, you instantly gain multiple benefits.

TERTIARY COOLDOWN

You unlock even more powerful versions of your Arts for a limited time. You'll still have to wait for a timer to complete to use them, but the benefits are worth it.

You can activate Overdrive once you clear Chapter 5 of the main story.

THE OVERDRIVE DISPLAY

OVERDRIVE COUNTER

This appears when you activate Overdrive and then use Arts. Its color changes based on the last Art used. Each successful hit from an Art increases this counter. Keep in mind that using ranged and melee attacks or Arts back to back will not increase the counter. Use non-physical Arts (debuff, support, aura) to change the counter's color and get it climbing again.

OVERDRIVE TIMER

This is the meter on the side of the Overdrive Counter. It diminishes over time. Once it runs out, the Overdrive ends. Your job is to make sure that doesn't happen.

OVERDRIVE BONUSES

These are bonuses accrued from activating Overdrive and doing all you can to keep it going! Benefits range from decreased cooldown time to extra damage.

MULTI-BONUS

If more than one person activates Overdrive at the same time, more bonuses can occur.

NUMBER OF PEOPLE IN OVERDRIVE	BONUS EFFECT
1	None
2	Soul Voice Occurrence odds increase by 50 percent.
3	You gain an extra 50 TP with every hit.
4	You acquire super armor (invulnerable to Break, Topple, Flinch, Launch, and Knockback) and take 50 percent less damage from attacks.

COLOR COMBO

The color of the Overdrive Counter changes when using different types of Arts. Different orders of color grant different effects.

	2ND PREVIOUS ART USED	PREVIOUS ART USED	CURRENT ART USED	EFFECT
Single Bonus	—	Purple	Any	Appendage damage increase
	—	Green	Any	Double Overdrive count bonus
Double Bonus	—	Blue	Purple	Debuff extension
	—	Blue	Green	Recover HP
Triple Bonus	Orange	Orange	Orange	Party EXP bonus
	Yellow	Yellow	Yellow	Class EXP bonus

OVERDRIVE ALL OVER

When Overdrive ends, you'll receive a reading of the total amount of damage dealt by the character who initiated Overdrive (Total Damage), followed by the total amount of damage dealt by all party members while Overdrive was active (Party Total). Use this information to refine your Overdrive tactics.

AFTER THE BATTLE

Once you're victorious, it's time for the spoils.

EXPERIENCE

You gain two types of experience after a battle: EXP and Class EXP. EXP goes toward your character's level, allowing for base stat boosts. Class EXP goes toward the character's class rank, allowing them to attain new Arts or skills, or even advance to a new class.

Experience scales with your level and the level of the enemies you defeat, so it's worth it to continue to seek out stronger enemies.

DROPS

There is a chance that enemies will drop items such as materials or weapons. You can choose what to do in this situation.

TAKE ALL	Acquire all items.
TAKE INDIVIDUALLY	Choose which items to take, one by one.
SELL ALL	Sell all the items.
TREASURE DEAL	Send items to other players in your squad. For more on this, check the Social chapter of the guide.

TATSU'S TIPS: TOUGH IT OUT!

After a battle, all party members are revived, HP gradually regenerates for all party members and Skells, and all debuffs (and buffs) are cleared. Try to pull out the win in a fight even if you're in dire straits—it'll all be worth it in the end, teammates!

RETREATING

You can press (B) during combat to stop attacking altogether. Once you're no longer attacking, run away from the enemy! After a certain distance, the battle will end and you'll be able to recover your HP.

SKELLS: TAKE IT UP A NOTCH

Upon completing Chapter 6 of the main story you'll be able to take the Skell license test. Pass the series of missions, and you'll receive a Skell of your very own.

Skells are awesome mobile battle mechs with myriad applications—the most obvious of which is to be able to take on the indigens of Mira on a massive scale. You and your party members can even fight side by side with Skells while on the ground.

VEHICLE MODE

The Skell's version of sprinting! Click the left stick to convert from walking mode to vehicle mode. Roll around the countryside at high speed!

SKELL GARAGE

The Skell Garage is located at the BLADE Barracks. Approach the BLADE Barracks main console and select BLADE Barracks Hangar. Functions of the Hangar include:

FLIGHT MODE

Once you beat Chapter 9 of the main story, a mission opens up. If you complete it, your Skells will be able to fly and reach places on Mira you've only dreamed of exploring.

TATSU'S TIPS: RUN 'EM OVER!

Skells can damage smaller enemies simply by touching them. Usually they'll get kicked around and take some damage. Be careful with this, because the game counts this as initiating a battle; you'll have to run away to avoid the fight.

REGISTER SKELL	Associate a Skell with a party member. This is the only way a party member can ride a Skell. Note that the party member must be at least the same level as the Skell; if the Skell frame is level 30 and the party member is level 27, you'll need to buff the party member up first.
CHANGE GEAR	Manage the selected Skell's gear. You can also do this from the Skell Gear menu.
REFUEL SKELL	Use miranium to refuel the selected Skell. It takes 5,000 units of miranium to refuel 3,000 units of Skell fuel. Heavy-type Skells can guzzle miranium like crazy when refueling.
RENAME	Change the Skell's name.
CUSTOMIZE COLORS	Change the color scheme of various parts of the Skell.
SELL	Sell the selected Skell and/or its gear.

THE POWER OF THE SKELL

SKELL STATS AND ARMOR

Skells contain some extra stats along with the ones sported by party members on the ground.

FRAME LV.	The level of the Skell's performance. Most analogous to levels of party members. Skells with a higher frame level can wield more powerful weapons.
SKELL INSURANCE	How much insurance the Skell has left. See the Skell Insurance section for a rundown on this mechanic.
ARMOR	The sum defensive quotient of all armor, base and equipped.
FUEL	The maximum amount of fuel that the Skell can hold.

SKELL TYPES

There are three types of Skells:

LIGHT-TYPE	Cheap cost, low HP, low armor, low fuel (but easier to refill with miranium).
MID-TYPE	Average cost, HP, armor, and fuel count.
HEAVY-TYPE	Expensive, high HP and armor, high fuel. Can take a while to refill fuel with miranium alone.

Light-Type Skells are speedier and more maneuverable both while driving and flying. Heavy-Type Skells are slower on both land and air, while Mid-Type Skells offer average speed and maneuverability. Each type of Skell can be equipped with armor of the same grade or lower, meaning heavy-type Skells can equip all armor but light-type Skells can only equip light-type armor.

SKELL WEAPONRY

Skells have access to a massive number of equipable options, but in the end, they amount to the same number of attack venues as a ground-based character has, minus the Skells.

One Skell can equip:

- Two auto-attack weapons. These can be any mix of ranged and melee weaponry, meaning you can dual-wield two of the same type if you so wish.
- Two back weapons, which count as Arts.
- Two shoulder weapons, which count as Arts.
- Two arm weapons, which count as Arts.
- Two spare weapons, which count as Arts.
- Five pieces of armor.

When managing a Skell's gear, you can check the Arts available to a given Skell weapon by highlighting that weapon and pressing (R).

SKELLS IN BATTLE

This is how the battlefield looks to a Skell:

FRAME HP	Analogous to a person's HP. If this reaches zero, the Skell is destroyed.
GP (GEAR POINTS)	Analogous to a person's TP. These accumulate as the Skell lands auto-attacks. Once GP reaches 3,000 or higher, Skell Overdrive can be activated.
SKELL DEFENSE	This is a cool feature of Skells that makes sure ground-based party members aren't instantly obsolete. When at least one party member is in a Skell, the total defense of characters not currently in Skells increases. This depends on how many characters are and aren't in Skells. With one Skell in play, the other three characters receive a 20 percent defense boost. With two around, the other two characters receive a 40 percent defense boost, and with three Skells, the lone ground-bound party member will receive a whopping 60 percent extra defense.
SKELL FUEL	Skells use fuel every time they auto-attack, use an Art, or fly. If fuel reaches zero, the Skell will be unusable until it is refueled. Skells can be refueled at the Skell Garage, or they gradually refuel over time if no one is riding them.

BINDING ENEMIES

The effect of a Skell achieving a Bind on enemies is similar to a ground-bound character's Tackle. A bound enemy can't move, and it will take extra damage from attack. Binding also restores some fuel to the Skell that pulls it off.

To bind an enemy, get close to a staggered enemy and press (ZL) and (ZR) simultaneously when the prompt appears.

Continuous Soul Challenges will appear. Press (B) when the orange circle either overlaps or is inside the white circle to keep the Bind going until the timer runs out. If you fail a Soul Challenge, the Bind will be broken.

TATSU'S TIPS: THE POWER OF GRAVITY

The G-Buster weapons from the shop terminal are fantastic at a lot of things, like doing damage. They're also an almost surefire stagger, allowing you to inflict Bind on even the toughest of bosses. Always have one on your Skell!

COCKPIT TIME

Cockpit Time has a 10 percent chance of occurring whenever a Skell uses an Art. If this happens, you're in luck—all cooldown timers on your Arts are reset, and you become temporarily invincible! GP will also increase when this takes place—usually by 500.

Also, when you're in Skell Overdrive, if Cockpit Time is activated, the chance of Overdrive being extended raises as well.

SKELL OVERDRIVE

Here's where the ultra-fun starts. When you have 3,000 GP or more, you can initiate Skell Overdrive, which enhances the base capabilities and performance of the Skell along with its fighting capacity. The types of enhancements vary depending on the Skell, as can be seen by this table.

OVERDRIVE TYPES

SKELL FRAME(S)	OVERDRIVE DESIGNATE	BONUS EFFECTS
FORMULA (LIGHT-TYPE)	Type 1: JINRAI	Zero Fuel Use Accuracy & Evasion Up Critical Chance Up Cooldown Boost
LAILAH (MID-TYPE)	Type 2: NAGI	Zero Fuel Use Timed Regen Appendage Regen Take Less Damage Debuff Immunity

ARES	Type 9: LEGION	Zero Fuel Use Accuracy & Evasion Up Cooldown Boost Deal More Damage Appendage Regen

EXTENDING SKELL OVERDRIVE

Once the Skell Overdrive timer expires, there's a chance for it to be reset so you can keep the pain going.

- Set 1: 15 seconds, 100 percent chance to extend to Set 2, 30 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.
- Set 2: 13 seconds, 100 percent chance to extend to Set 3, 20 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.
- Set 3: 13 seconds, (50 + 20 per Cockpit Time activation) percent chance to extend to Set 4, 30 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.
- Set 4: 13 seconds, (0 + 20 per Cockpit Time activation) percent chance to extend to Set 5, 20 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.
- Set 5: 13 seconds, (0 + 20 per Cockpit Time activation) percent chance to extend to Set 6, 30 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.
- Set 6: 13 seconds, 20 percent chance of activating Cockpit Time with each Art used.

Skell Overdrive can be extended up to five times—after six rounds, that's all she wrote.

SKELL BATTLE DAMAGE

While Skell HP and fuel can be recovered using consumable items obtained as division rewards (see the Social section for details), they have other hazards to worry about.

APPENDAGE LOSS

If a Skell takes too much damage, it will lose appendages. A loss of an appendage means the loss of any weapons or arts attached to it, as well as a reduction in GP. It will be fixed once the battle ends, however.

WRECKING A SKELL

If a Skell's frame HP drops to zero, it will be destroyed. Just before the fated explosion, however, a Soul Challenge will appear. Try to get a perfect rating for this Challenge! It decides what happens next.

PERFECT RATING	You will evacuate the Skell safely, with no loss of HP. Meanwhile, your Skell will be towed in for repairs absolutely for free—no Skell insurance will be used. Finally, you'll automatically have secondary cooldown reached on all of your personal Arts, so you can come out swinging.
GOOD RATING	You will evacuate the Skell safely, with no loss of HP. However, you lose one unit of Skell insurance as a Skell repair fee.
FAILED	You just barely make it out of the wreck alive, with 1 HP. You also lose two units of Skell insurance as a Skell repair fee.

TATSU'S TIPS: YOUR FRIENDS HAVE ALL THE LUCK

If a party member's Skell is destroyed, their evacuation will automatically receive a perfect rating, and the Skell will be repaired free of charge. This means that if you have a Skell that's running low on insurance or a powerful Skell that you don't want to risk using insurance on, you might be better off giving it to someone else rather than piloting it yourself. The choice is yours.

SKELL INSURANCE

So you just wrecked your Skell! First off, don't fret, it happens to everyone. Second, you have three options from here:

- Get a Perfect rating on the Soul Challenge that happens when your Skell explodes. If you do, there's nothing to do but to go to the Skell Garage and grab it back, free of charge.
- If you're out of Skell insurance units, you can use a salvage ticket—one of the consumable items that are given out as division rewards. See the Social chapter for more info on this.
- If you have no more insurance and no salvage tickets, then you can spend your own money to repair your Skell. Use this only as a last resort because the expenses for repairing a giant robot can come to 70 percent of the original cost of the Skell plus its equipment!

THE WORLD OF MIRA

To risk a supreme understatement: Everything about Mira is big, from the lumbering megafauna that graze its seemingly endless plains to the unfathomably deep canyons that scar its surface. It should go without saying that much of it is deadly to boot. Because of this, one of BLADE's primary objectives in the planet's settlement is to map its surface and become acquainted with its hazards. You'll do a whole lot of exploring in the course of your adventures, and as you discover locations, exterminate hostile indigens, plant probes, and unearth treasures, BLADE's understanding of Mira will grow. This is all reflected in your survey rate.

Here we present some maps to give you a head start. While many mission objectives will give you handy navigation cues toward your objective, you'll frequently find yourself hunting monsters or collectibles with only the names of regions to go on. The info on these maps can give you a leg up on those!

NEW LOS ANGELES

New LA is humanity's beachhead on Mira, a spacecraft converted into a city with a few surprising recreations of the comforts of old Earth. New LA is a BLADE town through and through, and as you progress through the game, it becomes increasingly cosmopolitan. Humanity has a good thing going here; do your best to protect it.

EAST GATE

ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT

This is New LA's pulsing heart. BLADE Tower commands the skyline, projecting humanity's resilience onto this alien world. Here you'll find Division Drive, where the factions that make up BLADE muster and congregate. The Administrative District is where you'll likely spend most of your off time, be it shopping at Armory Alley, scouting jobs at Mission Control, or rustling up your troops around the local hangouts.

COMMERCIAL DISTRICT

The Commercial District is a surprisingly sophisticated urban oasis amid New LA's otherwise Spartan environs. Its cafés, strip malls, and promenades provide a respite for weary BLADEs in their off time. As the city's population begins to diversify, various aliens find their footholds in New LA's commercial center, perhaps presaging its future as a multi-species metropolis.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

Here is where you'll find New LA's manufactories and hangars, and it's easy to get the feeling that the machines of heavy industry outnumber people. You'll have frequent business at the Outfitters Test Hangar, and you'll get to know the West Gate, one of the main thoroughfares leading out to the wilds of Primordia, quite well. Repenta Diner is also located in the district, and it's a known haunt for at least one notable BLADE operative.

MA-NON SHIP

Once you make contact with this friendly alien species, they'll make themselves quite at home in New LA—by docking their ship in the sky right across from BLADE Tower after Chapter 5. The Ma-non are an enterprising people, and it doesn't take long for them to enmesh themselves in the city's commerce and industry. Expect to spend a lot of time scouring the ship's decks while wheeling and dealing with humanity's newest friends. Please note, the Port Side isn't accessible until you've completed "Prone Sweet Prone."

RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT

People have to live somewhere, right? It may as well be an idyllic suburban tract built right into a crashed colony ship. New LA's Residential District boasts many of the amenities of home, including tennis and basketball courts, a serene little park, and a majestic cathedral.

MIRA

Beyond New LA's walls lies a vast, alien world that's as beautiful as it is hazardous. You can—and will—spend countless hours exploring Mira's five continents, and each one has enough variety within it to sustain even the most dogged explorers. Some areas are pristine and untamed; others are aggressively peopled by hostile aliens bent on humanity's extinction. The constants are stunning beauty, danger, and riches.

PRIMORDIA

Humanity's new home and, if you squint, the most Earth-like continent on Mira, Primordia's landscape is a veritable Eden. There are miles upon miles of pristine, sandy beaches (albeit with ferocious piscinoids patrolling the skies), stunning peaks in formations that feel like they defy gravity, and verdant grasslands dotted with unspoiled lakes. If it weren't for the city-block-sized indigens already living here, it would almost make leaving Earth behind feel like not so huge a deal. But no one said reestablishing the species was going to be easy.

NOCTILUM

Northwest of humanity's foothold in Primordia is Noctilum, a lush forest continent that'll dazzle you with its beauty. It's all too easy to get lost in its canopied lowlands, and you can be sure that hiding beyond the gorgeous, titanic fungal growths are wild beasts all too eager to devour the unwitting adventurer. The Skybound Coil Tree stands out as an obvious landmark.

SYLVALUM

The second you set foot in Sylvalum, you are overcome with its overwhelming alienness. It is no less stunning for it, however. Its skies feel constantly alive with an otherworldly aurora, shrouded beneath an ever-present haze, and its natural jagged rock formations seem to have cropped out of the earth with malicious intent. Rambling among the weird phosphorescent plant life are some of the craziest-looking indigens on Mira. After spending some time in the place, it starts to make sense how these majestic monstrosities evolved in this odd landscape.

CAULDROS

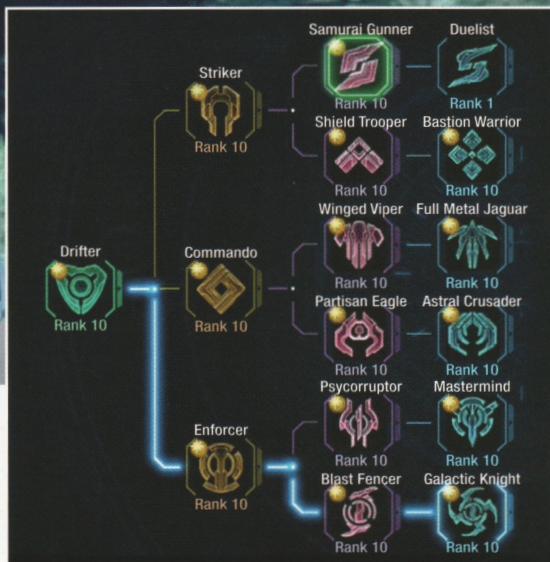

Cauldros is likely to be the last continent you discover, and for good reason: It's lousy with Ganglion, the alien race bent on eradicating humanity, and they're quite high-level enemies to boot. Once you're strong enough to face the dangers, though, the place is a sight to behold. Ruins of an alien civilization pepper the surface, and long-abandoned mining platforms hover in the hazy skies. There's quite a bit to see here, provided you can effectively swat away the Ganglion Skells on constant patrol.

THE PLAYER CHARACTER

Unlike the characters that join your party during your adventures, your character—the protagonist with the mysterious past—can choose freely from all the game's classes and switch between them at will. New classes become available as you progress through the class tree's numerous branches, and with enough time spent braving Mira's hazards, you soon have access to them all. Your beginnings are decidedly humble, however.

DRIFTER-STARTING CLASS

The class you start out with as a baby BLADE operative is nothing fancy. Its spread of Arts covers all the basics, but there are no stat bonuses or skill selections to push you in any particular direction. Once you reach rank 10, the possibilities broaden.

STANDARD ARMS

Assault Rifle
Knife

SKILL SLOTS: 5

ARTS

FLAME GRENADE

Acquired Rank	1
Target	Single enemy
Description	Deals thermal damage, Inflicts Blaze, Boosts damage vs. Toppled targets.

PLAYER CHARACTER SOUL VOICES

Mira is fraught with hazards, in the form of hostile wildlife, mechanoids programmed to kill, and alien malefactors intent on wiping out humanity. As a BLADE operative, though, you're no slouch yourself. Pulling off clutch combos is key to overcoming the odds, which will often feel as if they're stacked against you. For the basics on combos, check out the Soul Voices and Soul Challenges section of the Primer.

Here is the list of Soul Voices you have at your disposal. As the story's protagonist, you can set specific effects for each combo trigger, so don't be afraid to go under the hood to tailor your voices to match what you're likely to encounter during your current objective. You also have four custom Soul Voice slots that can set with any available trigger, which makes it so you can guarantee tight synergies with your current squad. It's good to be the star, isn't it?

Each of your voice options comes with different dialogue for the Soul Voices. The following tables give you examples of these, but your own dialogue may vary.

DRAW MELEE

TRIGGER: CHARACTER STARTS A BATTLE BY DRAWING A MELEE WEAPON.

Dialogue A: "I'm in the zone! Let's close in and clean up!"	Effect: +100% damage.
Dialogue B: "They're open! Use melee attacks!"	Effect: Inflict Stagger I.
Dialogue C: "Let's move in and take 'em out! Who's with me?"	Effect: +200 TP per hit.

PARTY MEMBERS

You amass quite the squad as you come into your own as a BLADE operative, comprising individuals from all walks of life, representing a multitude of species. Some you recruit as a matter of course as you play through the story missions. Others require that you advance far enough to unlock their unique affinity missions. One in particular demands that you jump through some serious hoops and explore a large portion of Mira.

Here are details on the brave BLADEs that serve alongside you. Each character has two signature Arts that you gain access to as you build your Affinity with them, so be sure to mix up your squad and build those battlefield bonds with as many party members as possible!

MIA

CLASS	Psychruptor
DIVISION	Curator
USUAL LOCATION	Ma-non Ship
RECRUITMENT REQUIREMENTS	To start the process, accept the normal mission "Mamma Mia" in New LA's Administrative District once you've completed Chapter 3. Once it's completed, complete Chapter 5 and you can then encounter Mia again in Noctilum's Skybound Coil Tree, where she gives you the normal mission "Adventure." Finish "Adventure" and Chapter 6 and you can then find her in Oblivia's Leaning Ring for the "Mighty Mia" normal mission. After taking care of "Mighty Mia", Chapter 9 and the "A Girl's Wings" affinity mission, she'll next turn up at the Nopon caravan in Sylvalum's Cleansing Spring area. The last step requires that you've finished all of the previous missions, as well as Chapter 11, the "Definian Downfall" normal mission (see the Secret Files chapter for more info), and surveyed 80% of Cauldros. Once you've achieved all that, "Mia Is Missing" starts in the Ganglion Antropolis in Cauldros.
CHARACTER NOTES	She'd better be worth it, right? Luckily, Mia's got some clutch signature Arts that purge you of nasty enemy debuffs and damage large groups. On top of all that, she idolizes you for the fine example you set during your many rescues. You have to bring her along.

THE MIRAN UNIFICATION QUEST

If humanity hopes to stand any chance against the Ganglion, then they will have to stand together and stand with friends.

They will have to reach out to the unknown. They will need to know when to be diplomatic and when to defend themselves.

They will have to make the right decisions in conversation or in battle.

Finally, and most importantly, they must know the lay of the land.

HOW TO USE THIS WALKTHROUGH

Xenoblade Chronicles X is an extremely open-ended game, which puts the vast majority of moment-to-moment decisions entirely in the players' hands.

There are no traditional "stages," "dungeons," or "mazes" in the sense of many role-playing games. Mira is a living, breathing world containing expansive interconnected territories, all of which play to separate themes, but whose terrain and challenges are constantly mixed and matched. The result is that adaptation not only becomes just as important as preparation, but sometimes is the only option.

This walkthrough honors that spirit. It will be your ultimate reference tool for mission completion, as well as battles, events, and collectibles. We will also provide insights into game mechanics and even provide tips on maintaining a brisk pace for game completion.

However, the journey between all of these points of interest—which are clearly labeled on mission objective lists, or as large arrows and dots on the game's maps—is left entirely up to you, the player. Due to factors ranging from player skill and playstyle to simple human taste, each "optimal" run through Xenoblade Chronicles X's story will differ with each player.

In short, we'll tell you where to go and how to handle yourself when you arrive. Getting there, however, is your own unique adventure. Are you ready?

WALKTHROUGH COMPONENTS

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

Story missions have requirements that must be fulfilled before you can tackle them. These usually require exploring more of Mira, doing some missions, unlocking field skills, raising Affinity between characters, or gathering collectibles. We'll tell you how to efficiently clear these so you can get to the sweet story meat you crave.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENTS

Xenoblade Chronicles X doles out new game mechanics during the course of the entire story. All of these new mechanics give you more fun ways to play the game, so you'll definitely want to dig into them once they pop up. We tell you how.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: BASIC COMBAT ABILITY

The Prologue will get you used to the basics of the combat system so that you can easily dispatch enemies. Combat will get far more complex—and rewarding—as your adventure on Mira progresses. If you want to know how deep the rabbit hole goes (as well as get an early jump on mechanics such as Soul Voices) check out the Combat Rundown in our Primer starting on page 8.

For now, however, get used to targeting enemies with (R) and draw your weapon by pressing (A) once you've targeted them.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

The meat of our mission walkthroughs, this step-by-step section outlines mission objectives and how to best accomplish them.

NEW STORY MISSION: "CHAPTER 1"

2

HEAD TO MISSION CONTROL IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Follow the mini-map to Mission Control in the BLADE Concourse to learn how to grab Missions from its bulletin board. Introduce yourself to Eleonora while you're at it—she handles your BLADE rankings and doles out rewards when your rank rises.

TATSU'S TIPS

Is there special treasure waiting out there or a great way to dispatch an enemy? Tatsu is here with helpful tips to get the absolute most out of your mission!

TATSU'S TIPS: KEEP A WIDE BERTH

Right now, both of your party members are rocking single-digit levels—you start at level 1, and Elma starts at level 5. Make absolutely sure to avoid enemies that are more than a few levels above you!

Q&A TIME!

Frequently during cutscenes and dialogue, you will be allowed to respond to characters' words and actions. Sometimes doing so will raise Affinity with your party members.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"How are your limbs? Can you move?"

Answers

Nod: Show your body is working fine.

Shake Your Head: Show you're still disoriented.

CAUTION

Always heed the warnings in these red boxes—doing so could save your hide!

Tyrants Rule For A Reason

Tyrants are no joke. They look like regular enemies but are far more ferocious than their size and level let on. Think of them as boss-class versions of your usual indigens. Even if they're your level numerically, you should approach them with extreme caution.

ENEMY AND BOSS BATTLES

Many missions involve bouts against vicious enemies or imposing bosses—you'll find data on them here, along with strategies on how to beat them and attacks to watch out for.

TAINTED CARO X3

LV. 21-30

Tainted are tough and fast, lashing out with powerful Bite attacks and debuffing Roars. Absolutely stay behind these monsters if you can while dishing out your attacks. Try to be at least level 25 before wandering into this battle.

Topple is your best friend here, as is noting elemental weaknesses: If all else fails, use fire.

PROLOGUE: AWAKENING

Your adventure begins here and now, after humanity crash-lands on the distant and unknown planet of Mira. Your actions will shape the fate of an entire race...but right now, you have to make it to sanctuary in one piece!

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

To access the Prologue, begin the game at the title screen. Nothing could be easier!

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Go ahead and watch the opening cutscene. It's okay to shed some tears. Once you're done, create your character, then witness the awakening from stasis.

You find yourself in the company of a woman named Elma. Listen to what she says, because she knows...things. Enter your name when she asks.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"How are your limbs? Can you move?"

Answers

Nod: Show your body is working fine.

Shake your head: Show you're still disoriented.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: MINI-MAP

The Prologue gives you access to the mini-map, which guides you to your next objective, warns you of dangers, and alerts you to helpful items like treasure chests and camps. For now, follow the yellow arrow, but you don't have to do so in a straight line—veer off the beaten path once in a while! You never know what you might find.

For more information on the mini-map and how it can help you on your journey, check out the Exploration section of the Primer.

Once Elma tosses you a weapon for self-defense, head forward to a cutscene and then your very first battle.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: BASIC COMBAT ABILITY

The Prologue will get you used to the basics of the combat system so that you can easily dispatch enemies. Combat will get far more complex—and rewarding—as your adventure on Mira progresses. If you want to know how deep the rabbit hole goes (as well as get an early jump on mechanics such as Soul Voices) check out the Combat Rundown section in our Primer.

For now, however, get used to targeting enemies with (R) and drawing on them by pressing (A) once you've targeted them.

ORIGIN BLATTA

LV. 1

This battle is here as a quick tutorial on how battles work. In general, you want to strafe around the enemy, striking at its sides and back. There's rarely a good time to charge enemies from the front—at least for now.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"There's plenty of work back in the city for someone who knows how to handle a weapon, you know."

Answers

Nod: Show interest in finding work.

Scowl: Look depressed at the idea of work.

Continue onward, in the general direction of the yellow arrow. If you want to do some light exploring, go for it. Check the yellow boxes on the mini-map if you want to be directed to treasure chests.

TATSU'S TIPS: KEEP A WIDE BERTH

Right now, both of your party members are rocking single-digit levels—you start at level 1, and Elma starts at level 5. Make absolutely sure to avoid enemies that are more than a few levels above you! By default, level numbers are shown above enemies' heads.

Keep following the yellow arrow until you are led to the flashing yellow circle indicating your destination. It is here that Elma will show you the vastness of planet Mira, and you'll get your first look at New Los Angeles, your home-to-be.

TATSU'S TIPS: MORE ON ENEMY LEVELS

Although levels are shown above enemies' heads, there's an even easier way to tell if they're safe to fight. As a general rule of thumb, if an enemy is of the same size or smaller than you, and it has purple or white text for its level indicator, then you stand an excellent chance against it.

Use this knowledge to get your levels up to par with the surrounding indigens—trust us, you'll need them!

More on enemy levels and sizes, and on picking your fights wisely, can be found in the Exploration section of the Primer.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: SPRINTING

You will be doing a lot of this on your journey through Mira, so it's best to get used to it now. Click in (the left stick) to toggle sprinting during movement. If you want to automatically sprint (think cruise control), hold (R) and then press (B).

You have a new objective now: getting to New LA. As Elma says, the high road is your best bet for survival, as lower level indigens roam above. If you jump down below (don't worry, there's no fall damage), you'll have a slightly more direct path, but also have to sneak around higher-level indigens. Whatever your choice, follow the yellow arrow once more.

Eventually, you'll reach the West Gate of New LA. You can't just walk in, though: Some nasty indigens don't want you to make it inside alive.

CALLOW GREX X2

LV. 3

ELDER GREX

LV. 4

Concentrate your efforts on one callow grex at a time to take them out quickly, then turn your attention to the elder grex. This battle is simple and straightforward, and won't be tough if you and Elma are at least level 6.

With your path to New LA unimpeded, go to the elevator, head up, and Elma will formally introduce you to Mira's first—and only—human city.

CHAPTER 1: NEW LOS ANGELES

Welcome to New LA! This chapter's a bit of a break after your mad survival dash through the Prologue. In this chapter, you'll meet the rest of humanity, make some friends, and be shown around the city proper.

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites besides completing the Prologue—Chapter 1 starts directly after you do so.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Upon arriving in New LA, Elma gives you a tour of the city, starting with the Industrial District. Along the way you'll be introduced to some of your primary party members and supporting cast. First up are Irina and Gwin.

Q&A TIME!

Irina

"Nice work out there, ma'am."

Answer

Show interest: Ask who these two people are.

Look puzzled: Wonder why they call Elma "ma'am."

After the cutscene, head to the nearby yellow dot to meet Doug and Lin.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"I'm Lin Lee Koo—mechanic and top all-around fix-it gal for BLADE."

Answer

Look skeptical: Find out how old Lin is.

Look worried: Find out what happened with the exhaust.

Go ahead and add Lin to your active party, then head to the flashing dot on your mini-map and talk to the NPC with the green exclamation point over his head. He pilots a transport, which allows you to get a view and tour of New LA via cutscene.

You land in front of BLADE Tower in the Administrative District. Feel free to explore and talk to the locals. When you're ready to progress, the yellow arrow on your mini-map directs you to the BLADE barracks.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Consider yourself our guest until we finish getting you registered. Feel free to come and go as you please."

Answer

Show interest: Ask about registration.

Look away: Frown and say nothing.

You'll be introduced to Secretary Nagi and learn about BLADE—the military organization that handles matters of exploration, combat, and peacekeeping for the human race on Mira.

Q&A TIME!

Nagi

"Well then...where should we begin?"

Answer

Inquire: Ask how we ended up on Mira.

Clarify: Ask for more information about BLADE.

Question: Ask about registration.

Note: This dialogue choice loops after each question is asked. Giving each of these answers will allow you to learn different things about the situation of the human race and BLADE, as well as the importance of the Lifehold. Go ahead and exhaust all of your choices.

Once you're done in the barracks, it's time for another tour. From here on, the game is broken up into missions and objectives that take place within those missions.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 1

Take a guided tour of the BLADE Administrative District with Lin and Elma and learn more about life as a member of BLADE.

1

LEAVE THE BLADE BARRACKS.

This one's simple enough. Explore the barracks at your leisure. When done, simply head for the doors located at the flashing dot on your mini-map.

You'll be sent on a cutscene tour of the Administrative District, starting with an introduction to Skells. It's here where you'll also learn of Lin's...admiration...for all things robotic.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Get...a load...of that Skell... Even the way that they WALK is sooo cooooool... Oh yeah, work it baby..."

Answer

Clarify: Ask what a Skell is.

Geek out: Gaze longingly at the Skell.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO MISSION CONTROL IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Follow the mini-map to Mission Control in the BLADE Concourse to learn how to grab missions from its bulletin board. Introduce yourself to Eleonora while you're at it—she handles your BLADE rankings and doles out rewards when your rank rises.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE BLADE SCOUT CONSOLE IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

The Scout Console is directly to the right of Mission Control. Approach it and Lin will give you the rundown.

4

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO ARMORY ALLEY IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Armory Alley is around the corner from the Scout Console. Follow your mini-map to keep this show going.

TATSU'S TIPS: THE BEST (AND ONLY?) DEALS ON MIRA

You might have seen this alley on the way to the BLADE barracks previously: This is your one-stop shopping mall for everything your party needs to be battle ready. Gear, Skells, augments, you name it—if it lets you fight, odds are it can be bought or upgraded here. Armory Alley gets better wares as your adventure progresses, so be sure to keep coming back.

5

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO BLADE TOWER'S ENTRANCE IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

BLADE Tower is on the other side of the block where Mission Control and the Scout Console are located. Follow your mini-map. After this stop on the tour, this mission is over—and so is the chapter! Head back to the barracks when you're ready to start Chapter 2.

CHAPTER 2: THE NEW FRONTIER

Here you'll get a crash course in the duties of BLADE, humanity's military organization. Are you up to the task?

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this chapter—going back to the BLADE barracks per Elma's request at the end of Chapter 1 triggers it.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Right at the end of Chapter 1, Elma suggests that everyone go back to the BLADE barracks. Go ahead and do so when you're ready, because you're going to be scouted for BLADE the second you do.

Q&A TIME!

Nagi

"Well, friend, what do you say? Can we count on you to do your part?"

Answer

Accept: Look into Nagi's eyes and nod firmly.

Refuse: Shrug your shoulders and shake your head.

Whichever answer you pick, Nagi's sly wit will make it so that you're drafted into BLADE no matter what. Soon afterward, you'll be thrust into your first BLADE training mission.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 2

Install the data probe at the FrontierNav site and complete your training.

THE STUDENT BECOMES THE TEACHER

Need a quick and early power boost? Go ahead and use the Active Members menu to switch Elma to the party leader and playable character. Since she starts out at a higher level than your avatar, she can dispatch indigens more easily, and help bring your avatar up to speed.

1

HEAD TO THE DESIGNATED SITE ON THE EAST GATE PLAINS.

Go ahead and leave the barracks. In a cutscene, Elma and Lin ruminate on the state of the gates leading out of New LA.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"One of our teams must have gone out there and kicked some furry indigen butt, huh?"

Answer

Boast: Suggest it was you and Elma.

Speculate: Suggest it was Irina and Gwin.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: THE SEGMENT MAP

The segment map, found on the screen of your Wii U GamePad, is your absolute best friend in Xenoblade Chronicles X. The more of Mira you explore, the more of Mira gets put at your fingertips, allowing you to get detailed information about regions, missions, and even fast travel. For a more detailed rundown of its capabilities, refer to the Segment Map section in the Primer.

Now you can head to the East Gate. As usual, it's as easy as following the arrow on your mini-map. It leads you out of New LA, via the East Gate, to the data probe planting location.

Getting close to the probe installation site triggers a cutscene, along with a boss battle directly afterward. Get ready for your first battle with a tyrant!

Tyrants Rule for a Reason

Tyrants are no joke. They look like regular enemies but are far more ferocious than their size and level let on. Think of them as boss-class versions of your usual indigens. Even if they're your level numerically, you should approach them with extreme caution. You can read up more on Exploration section of the Primer.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Ah, right—they couldn't track it if there's no local probe. They must have lost it when it went off the grid."

Answer

Attack: Suggest killing the tyrant.

Inquire: Ask what a tyrant is.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Even some of BLADE's very best teams have come back with serious injuries after running into a tyrant in the field...if they come back at all."

Answer

Unite: Suggest the three of you can handle it.

Protect: Say you can't just leave it so close to New LA.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: GEAR AND ARTS

Before your tyrant battle, Lin gives you the scoop on equipping gear and leveling up your Arts. Listen to her—and check the Battle Mechanics section of the Primer if you want to be completely up to speed!

2

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT VOLKAMPF, THE PURSUER.

You'll be given a chance to deck yourselves out to the nines and level up your Arts. Once you've done both, go ahead and engage the foe standing in the way of you and your data probe installation.

VOLKAMPF, THE PURSUER

LV. 5

Generally, tyrant fights go well if your entire party is at least five levels above the enemy. Right now, unless you've done some grinding beforehand, you're probably nowhere near that point. Don't worry, it's still quite beatable.

As with most fights, you do not want to tackle Volkampf from the front—it'll stab at you with its horns and pincers, and generally make life miserable for you. This is before we even talk about its Ether Laser attack, which emerges from its mouth. Go for its sides and back, and pay special attention to its legs—whittling down their HP will impair it significantly and give a greater chance of inflicting it with Topple. Keep the pressure on and you'll pull through.

Once you beat Volkampf, Lin and Elma explain to you how probes work, then allow you to plant it.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Why don't you do the honors? You can launch it right from your comm device. Give it a try."

Answer

Agree: Launch the probe.

Refuse: Suggest Lin should launch the probe.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: INSTALLING DATA PROBES

Congratulations on installing your first FrontierNav data probe! Installing more from this point on is easy—just approach a vacant FrontierNav point and press (A) repeatedly. Doing so allows you to survey data for greater swaths of Mira, as well as fast-travel to these points. Make sure to keep your Mechanical field skill leveled up, as some probe installations require higher levels.

3

OBJECTIVE

REPORT TO SECRETARY NAGI IN NEW LA'S BLADE BARRACKS.

Make your way back to the barracks at your leisure. Once there, you'll be rewarded for your efforts and introduced to Commander Vandham, whom you'll be seeing a lot of from here on out.

CHAPTER 3: BUILDERS OF A LEGACY

Now that you've had your first taste of BLADE, it's time to be officially welcomed into the fold.

TATSU'S TIPS: PARTY MANAGEMENT

From here on in, the story kicks into high gear! Elma and Lin are highly capable warriors and are required for the overwhelming majority of the story missions, so it's a good idea to keep them in your party and build their affinity and power.

It's also a good idea to switch off between Gwin and LaoImd! Their early affinity missions are prerequisites for some of the story, so you'll have to build your relationship with them as well.

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this mission—it's triggered as soon as you complete Chapter 2.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Once you're done with Chapter 2, you're whisked directly into Chapter 3. You learn about the specific divisions of BLADE here before choosing one for your own.

Division choice is an important decision... which you can change your mind about at any time in the future. In other words, don't sweat it too much.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"Anyway, first we need Chatty Cathy here to choose a division and pull an assignment."

Answer

Get started: Ask about the assignment.

Get more info: Ask about divisions.

Go ahead and choose your division, making sure it's your final answer, and you're officially a BLADE. Welcome to the big leagues. Once you're inducted, it's time for a new job—locating a Pathfinder team that's mysteriously gone missing.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 3

Search for Nelson's missing team in southeast Primordia.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE PATHFINDERS' LAST KNOWN LOCATION IN SOUTHEAST PRIMORDIA.

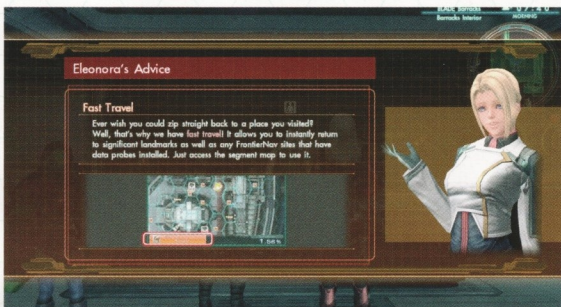

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: BLADE SERVICES

Now that you're officially a BLADE, all of the goodies hanging about the Concourse and Armory Alley are yours for the buying. You can grab missions from Mission Control or shop till you drop at the armory and various shops. Be sure to check all of these spots often—they're your key to personal growth!

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: FAST TRAVEL

You can now fast-travel using the segment map on the Wii U GamePad. Simply point to a fast-travel-capable location (places where you've installed data probes are excellent candidates) and off you go! Fast travel is also great for heading back to New LA after a mission.

You'll definitely want to take this time to truly fortify your team and raise some levels. Outfit your party with gear from Armory Alley, hunt some indigens for experience and rewards, and take on some missions from Mission Control's job board or people scattered about New LA for more spoils.

This will be the general flow of the game from here onward, so learn it well. Once you think you're comfortable with your party and how the game is set up, look for Nelson's team. Note the yellow arrow on the mini-map marking the location, but to reach it, you can't travel in a straight line. Wrap around a mountain and possibly avoid or fight enemies, including some disguised as plants!

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: R&D SUPPORT

Miranium, which can be donated to corporations at the armory, can help fund new breakthroughs for better gear. For more info on this, check out the BLADE and Its Benefits section of the Primer.

The team's disappearance site is marked by a suspiciously wrecked Skell.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"If they were eaten, we'd know it. So did they walk away, or were they taken?"

Answer

Investigate: Suggest searching the area.

Retreat: Suggest heading back to New LA.

Lin detects multiple signals, some which belong to BLADE, some to...other life-forms. All of them originate from an unnatural structure. It's time to investigate.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Multiple signals, moving around inside the structure. Elma, you don't think...?"

Answer

Hypothesize: Suggest they must be intelligent lifeforms.

Guess: Suggest indigens must have wandered inside.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"They know about Earth?! You may have been right after all, Lin..."

Answer

Stand down: Lower your guard and negotiate.

Grip weapon: Prepare to attack.

Around this time, you're set upon by weapon-brandishing intelligent life-forms.

Whatever your answer, you'll be thrust into a battle. Diplomacy is not an option with these particular newcomers!

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE PRONE SCOUT.
- » DEFEAT THE PRONE SCOUT.

PRONE SCOUT X2

LV. 1-10

Honestly, even if you went straight here from the Volkampf fight, you should be able to take these two. If you did sufficiently gear yourself up from Armory Alley and gain some levels in the field beforehand, then this fight will practically be over before it starts. Be sure to use the same teamwork you always have, and sync your attacks with your party members' using Soul Voices. Stay vigilant, however—this is merely the calm before the storm.

The scout attack was out of left field, but Elma remains optimistic. Perhaps someone higher up the chain of command might be receptive to diplomacy. The only way to find out is to venture into the belly of the beast.

3

OBJECTIVE

ENTER PRIMORDIA'S SEASWEPT BASE AND SEARCH FOR THE PATHFINDERS.

When you're ready, follow your radar into the stronghold ahead. Lin notices a building in the distance, and your party makes haste. Be sure to follow the road for a safe trip—veer off and you could see some super-high-level enemies lying in wait!

As you make your way to the Seaswept Base, battle all of the new enemy types you see so that you can get new and stronger gear for your party, as well as upgrade your party's Arts and Skills. You'll pass by packs of Prone, puges, indigens, and the occasional pugilith on the way to your destination. Keep inching ever forward.

The building summit next to your destination is guarded by a group of level 9 pawn puges. Be sure you're at least strong enough to take them out so you can arrive where you need to be. A level 11-12 party is suggested, but you can even get by with level 9 if you have Healing Aura as a class skill and Chrome Armor as part of your Arts set by now.

Finally, open the door and learn the intentions of the Prone, as well as the fate of Nelson's team. Neither is pretty, but both lead to your next boss battle.

TATSU'S TIPS: THE NEW FACES

Now that the Prone have entered the fray, you'll start seeing different sets of foes in addition to the beastly indigens you've battled so far. From ruthless scouts to massive pugilith mechs, it's easy to become overwhelmed.

That's why we've put together a reference of every enemy in the Data appendix, so you'll know just how to deal with them as they come up! Stock up on intel and go in prepared.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE PRONE RUFFIAN. » DEFEAT THE PRONE RUFFIAN. » DEFEAT GLENNAR.

PRONE RUFFIAN X2

LV. 1-10

GLENNAR

LV. 10

Diplomacy has failed—and then some! Looks like fighting is the only choice.

Much like the grex battle in the Prologue, in this fight you have a leader backed by two grunts. It's your choice whether or not you want to concentrate on each grunt one at a time while bearing Glennar's attacks, or go for Glennar first. Otherwise, it's business as usual—coordinate your party's attacks and make sure to flank whenever possible, since these guys don't have any non-front-facing defenses.

TATSU'S TIPS: A HELPING HAND

If you lose to the boss of a story mission three times, you will be given the option to decrease their levels by five. There are no adverse consequences to this, so if you feel like you need the assist, by all means, take it!

With the situation as resolved as it can be given the circumstances, the party gets ready to report back to New LA. However, just then, a newcomer makes itself known in an unorthodox manner.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"What do you think, Rook?"

Answer

Be bold: Open the crate.

Play it safe: Suggest leaving the crate as-is.

Meet Tatsu. He's your new team ambassador and Lin's go-to object of psychological torture. Fortunately, he's helpful in a pinch. This is one of those times. Listen as he comically explains the Prone menace.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Someday, Tatsu will turn tables and eat THEM for a change!"

Answer

Reassure: Show Tatsu you mean him no harm.

Tease: Stare hungrily at Tatsu.

For your help, Tatsu has a gift for all of you—one of the most useful items in the game.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Friend, do you ever get lost? Tired of bulky maps and flawed memory?"

Answer

Agree: Tell Tatsu there's got to be a better way.

Disagree: Tell Tatsu that not all who wander are lost.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: TATSU'S FOLLOW BALL

Mira's a big planet that's easy to get lost in. Bring it down to size with the Follow Ball! Deploy it by holding (R) and pressing (X) when you have a mission's destination set.

WARNING: If the priceless and indestructible Follow Ball is somehow destroyed, the cost is full price plus restock fee. Do not attempt to engage in conversation with Follow Ball, as it contains no vocabulary to speak of. Should user find Follow Ball's movement speed to be excessive or purpose-impairing, the only existing course of action is to simply—as phrased in contemporary intergalactic vernacular—"step it up."

Don't try to add Tatsu to your party—you'll find you can't. He's more of an idea man and prefers to stay on the sidelines during battles.

5

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT THE BLADE BARRACKS.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Got all that?"

Answer

Nod: Show you understand.

Look confused: Show you're completely lost.

After the briefing you're turned loose, in more ways than one. Your BLADE adventure starts here, and many significant characters you've met up to now can be officially added to your party by visiting their NLA hangouts. Congrats!

This is a great chance to try out fast-travel if you haven't already.

Once this chapter's mission is marked as complete, Elma decides to see if you've become acclimated to the status quo. Listen as she explains the situation and about squad missions, answering her questions along the way.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"So, Rook, feel like you're starting to get the hang of things?"

Answer

Nod: Show confidence.

Shake your head: Show hesitation.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"You still with me?"

Answer

Nod: Assure Elma you understand.

Cock your head: Look confused.

CHAPTER 4: THE GANGLION MENACE

BLADE plunges deeper into the mystery of hostile xenofoms as they chase after the Lifehold Core. What they find, however, may not be good news...

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » EXPLORE 15 PERCENT OF PRIMORDIA.
- » COMPLETE THE MISSION "BLADE LEVEL BASICS."
- » COMPLETE THE MISSION "THE PROBE-FESSIONAL."
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 3
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Once you've completed your prerequisites, it's time to accept the story mission proper. Go to the barracks and do so.

When you accept the mission, it's time for dinner, courtesy of Lin!

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Hmm, what should I whip up today?"

Answer

Something fried: Fried Chicken

Something braised: Beef Braised in Wine

Something baked: Pot Pie

Something broiled: Tandoori Chicken

Something stir-fried: Chicken Sauté

Something fancy: Foie Gras

Go ahead and make a request. Every new story mission from here to the end, you'll be able to ask Lin to make a new dish, minus any of the ones she's made for you already.

After chow, it's time to get to work. A piece of the all-important Lifehold has been sighted in Noctulum. Your objective writes itself.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 4

A piece of the Lifehold was detected in the Noctulum region to the west of New LA.

1

MEET WITH LAO NEAR PRIMORDIA'S GREEN THRESHOLD.

Get yourself geared up, then head to the rendezvous point however you see fit. Once there, you'll be introduced to Lao and his squad of Pathfinders.

Q&A TIME!

Lao

"All right... what about you?"

Answer

Accommodate: Introduce yourself.

Hesitate: Insist he introduce himself first.

Once introductions are done away with and the situation is explained, congratulations—you've got a new party member.

If you let Lao into your party, don't forget to deck him out in your best gear and tend to his Arts and Skills before continuing your mission.

The path to the Sunlit Spring is a little less straightforward than you'll be used to by this point. There's a chance your trip will have you cutting through the Whale's Nostril cave, by entering the southeast entrance and exiting through the northeast entrance. Be prepared for large numbers of indigens within, and use the Follow Ball and the maps located in the Maps section of this guide if you find yourself getting turned around. Fortunately, off-beat paths won't usually be an issue during your adventure.

Tread Lightly!

Noctilum can be very dangerous at this point for your party unless you've been grinding for hours on end. Most indigens here have levels in the 30s, even at the continent's borders! Unless you want to grind for hours on end, be sure to keep a sharp eye on enemy levels as you slowly make your way through this new territory.

Once you reach Goblin's Narrow, you'll know you're on the right track—a cutscene triggers, and a newcomer approaches your party.

Q&A TIME!

L

(Approaches Party)

Answer

Act selflessly: Shield Lin.

Act selfishly: Use Lin as a shield.

Q&A TIME!

L

"The wildlife and insects are all so docile—such gentle dispositions."

Answer

Agree: Concur the wildlife is peaceful.

Disagree: Claim the wildlife is hostile.

This charming fellow is L, and he says he's found a piece of the Lifehold, even if it's not quite the one you're looking for. Fortunately he's a non-hostile, and he offers to lead you to the piece.

With acquaintances made, continue to the Sunlit Spring—get ready for a terrible surprise, as well as a series of fights.

LAMBERT, THE DIVINE WIND

LV. 15

On the trail between you and this chapter's boss, at FN Site 219, stands a possible block to progress. Lambert is a Lv. 15 Tyrant who hits fast and hard.

However, if you're comparatively leveled to him and know how to break out the offensive Arts as quickly as possible, you definitely stand a chance against him. If he beats you, simply grind a level or two and re-challenge him.

3

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE PRONE DESTROYER.
- » DEFEAT THE PRONE DESTROYER.
- » DEFEAT THE PRONE DESTROYER.

PRONE DESTROYER X3

LV. 11-20

Concentrate your attacks and use standard flanking maneuvers. With four characters in your party instead of three like before, you won't have to be over-leveled to stand a chance. That doesn't mean you don't have to be careful, however.

Once you've dispatched the destroyers, reinforcements show up—heavy ones. Meet your first Ganglion general: Goetia.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE
MARNUCK ROOK.» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK ROOK.

» DEFEAT GOETIA.

MARNUCK ROOK X2

LV. 11-20

GOETIA

LV. 16

Goetia has a tough hide, uses powerful debuffs and electrical attacks, and can heal herself when her HP gets low. If your party members' levels were only up to par with the Prone destroyers, then this fight could go either way. If you lose, there's no shame in it—go grind some levels once you're warped back to the landmark.

Still, odds are you want to do your best to make sure it doesn't come to that. The best way to do so is to order your party members to concentrate their fire on one enemy at a time. You can do this by pressing (+) and picking the corresponding order once you're locked on to your desired enemy. This is a tactic that serves you well over the course of the entire game, so it's best to learn it now.

Start with the Marnuck rooks. Treat them like your normal Prone, and don't give them a chance to breathe. Once they're dispatched, go for Goetia herself. Cure yourself of any status ailments or heavy hits that you needed to take, but for this battle, the best defense is a good offense. Never let up your attacks, and with patience, Goetia will fall.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Hmm...what do you think, Rook?"

Answer

Trust: Suggest it sounds like fun.

Distrust: Suggest L could be a spy for the Ganglion.

5

REPORT BACK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM IN NEW LA'S BLADE TOWER.

Once you're debriefed at BLADE Tower, you'll have a new party member and a new corporation (Meredith & Co.) to donate miranium to for Armory R&D. Good times.

» NEW PARTY MEMBER:

L

CHAPTER 5: MA-NON MANEUVERS

BLADE makes inroads into the desert continent of Oblivia. Sand, sand, more sand, and... friendly technologically advanced intelligent life? It's more likely than you think!

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » INSTALL A DATA PROBE AT OBLIVIA'S ENTRANCE.
- » COMPLETE THE "RENEWED WILL" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 4.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: IRINA AND GWIN.

MAIN MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Go ahead and choose your meal so your briefing can start. A double mission order from the higher-ups leaves Irina and Gwin short-handed—thus, you and the rest of Team Elma are called to pitch in.

The extra mission? A helpless ship is in distress and under Ganglion fire. It's time to do what you do best: make the enemy of your enemy your friend.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 5

Investigate the unidentified xenoform spacecraft spotted in Oblivia and look for any other interesting objects.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO INGRESS IN OBLIVIA.

Your destination this time is Oblivia, the desert continent to the east of Primordia's borders. Gear up, explore eastward, fight some indigens to raise levels if you wish, and then head to the marked point on your mini-map.

You won't be walking very far—Oblivia is actually very close to the border. Once you make it, a cutscene triggers, introducing you another alien race seemingly in conflict with the Ganglion. Tatsu calls them the "Ma-non."

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Huh. Good point."

Answer

Guess: Suggest they learned our language.

Hypothesize: Suggest some device must be translating.

2 OBJECTIVE TALK TO THE MYSTERIOUS XENOFORMS.

If you've been doing your best to only be playing this game's critical path, then you will be grinding for levels here. There's no way around it. Get your party up to snuff and push forward until you make it to the ridge where the Ma-non are.

The Wrath of Sandy Bum Canyon

Oblivia introduces you to sandstorms, which completely obscure your vision, and electrical storms, which sap your HP and eliminate HP recovery after a battle! To get away from both of these terrible weather conditions, you can either wait it out in a safe spot or fast-travel to a destination close by. The latter will usually shift the weather instantly.

Once you make it to the Ma-non and convince them that you're not working for the Ganglion, they ask you for assistance in destroying three Ganglion turrets scattered across the western leg of the continent. Doing so frees the Ma-non's spaceship.

3 OBJECTIVE DESTROY THE FIRST TURRET.

4 OBJECTIVE DESTROY THE SECOND TURRET.

5 OBJECTIVE DESTROY THE THIRD TURRET.

The three "turrets" are actually three enemies called targeter zigs. One can be found near Cliffside Camp, and two can be found at the northern ends of Mesa Fortress.

Navigation isn't a problem with the Follow Ball at your disposal. What is a problem is that both of these are highly fortified Ganglion strongholds[Md]Mesa Fortress even more so. Expect troops at least five levels higher than you unless you've been taking your time grinding up to this point. You have to make a decision: stealth, or combat?

Stealth maneuvering requires lots of stepping around enemies, as well as making good use of Elma's Shadowrunner Art, if you have it, to slip past Ganglion troops. This method takes less time, but it also means less fighting and less leveling up.

Meanwhile, if you go in guns blazing, you'll most assuredly get your party wiped out multiple times on your way to the turrets, and it will take more time to accomplish your objective. However, you will also slowly level up and be better equipped to take on the challenges ahead.

Whichever option you choose, the important thing to remember through all of this is to not give up. The more Ganglion you defeat, the stronger you'll become, and you'll eventually be able to break through their lines.

6

OBJECTIVE

RETURN TO WHERE YOU ENCOUNTERED THE MA-NON AND MAKE A REPORT.

7

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S RUINS ON THE BUTTE AND RESCUE THE MA-NON.

Ganglion Skells are menacing the Ma-non, threatening them while demanding their help. Team Elma decides to punish them for bullying the weak.

Of course, this means that you'll be fighting Skells while on foot. The good news is that they'll be around or even below your party's level, since you've had to level up by raiding Ganglion strongholds while going for the turrets. The bad news is that you're still fighting Skells while on foot. And if you thought the pugilists were big, you're in for some perspective.

Worry not, though. It can be done.

8

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE PLATOON QMOEVA.
- » DEFEAT THE PLATOON QMOEVA.
- » DEFEAT THE CHIEF QMOEVA.

PLATOON QMOEVA X2

LV. 18

CHIEF QMOEVA

LV. 20

Fight the platoon Qmoevas first, as they are likely laughably below your party's current level. If you want to make things go even faster, tell your party to concentrate their fire on them.

Even with their lower levels, the Qmoevas can take a while to go down due to their size. If any of your party members have Arts that inflict Topple, the battle will go that much more smoothly. You're also a lot faster and more maneuverable than they are, meaning you can get in more attacks than they can in the same amount of time. In exchange, they hit hard. Press your advantage, mind your party's HP levels, and you'll pull through.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"How's that new left arm feeling?"

Answer

Reassure: Check your arm and nod approvingly.

Worry: Check your arm and shake your head.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: OVERDRIVE

Completing Chapter 5 gives you access to one of the absolute coolest mechanics in the game: the Overdrive! With it, your body or your Skell (once you get it) can be pushed to new heights, allowing for more and faster attacks in battle, as well as more powerful ones. For a complete guide to how Overdrive helps in combat, check out the Combat section of the Primer.

9

REPORT TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT THE ENTRANCE TO NEW LA'S BLADE TOWER.

There's not much to do here but be debriefed. However, since you helped out the Ma-non, they have worked out a friendship treaty with humans, and their ship moves into New LA as a package deal, bringing their technology with it, as well as the Candid & Credible R&D team for the Armory.

Oh, and one more thing you'll really like.

CHAPTER 6: DARK MATTERS

It's a race between BLADE and the Ganglion to see who can uncover a vital piece of tide-turning technology first. Don't fall behind!

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » SURVEY 20 PERCENT OF NOCTILUM.
- » COMPLETE THE "A FRIEND IN NEED" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 5.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

MAIN MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Once you accept this mission, a cutscene gives you your first look into the hierarchy, inner workings, and plans of the Ganglion. You're also introduced to Luxaar, the Ganglion commander. An ominous cloud hangs over the proceedings.

Then it's time for dinner!

Go ahead and choose your meal, and prepare for the briefing. Lao's team has found an alien mech, and taps L and Team Elma regarding a mysterious mech to be found in Noctilum. Neither BLADE nor Ganglion can get to it, and L knows why—it's guarded by ferocious territorial beasts known as the Tainted.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 6

Head to Noctilum and retrieve the alien mech.

1

OBJECTIVE

RETRIEVE THE ALIEN MECH FROM NOCTILUM'S DEAD MAN'S GULCH.

After a discussion between Lin and Lao, it's time to head out. As usual, Noctilum can be a bit of a maze, so make sure you use the Follow Ball to help you out.

TATSU'S TIPS: STICK TO THE SHADOWS

This is one of the better places to switch to Elma as your party leader/playable character, and use her Shadowrunner Art. This Art allows you to sneak past enemies undetected for its duration.

There's one catch: Shadowrunner requires 1000 TP to activate! If you don't have enough TP, you can target an enemy (without going into battle) and use the Blood Sacrifice Art to halve your HP and gain 1000 TP.

When you arrive at the gulch, you'll see the tainted up close. From here on, it's pseudo-stealth time. Elma says they won't bother you if you don't bother them. Take this to heart. They won't attack you unless you attack them first.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"This must be their handiwork..."

Answer

Show curiosity: Ask Elma if she has any idea what it is.

Show concern: Ask Elma if she's all right.

It looks like you're about to make a clean escape. However, no plan survives contact with Tatsu, and without a second thought, the tainted are upon you. It's time to fight!

2

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE TAINTED CARO.

TAINTED CARO X3

LV. 21-30

Tainted are tough and fast, lashing out with powerful Bite attacks and debuffing Roars. Absolutely stay behind these monsters if you can while dishing out your attacks. Try to be at least level 25 before wandering into this battle.

Topple is your best friend here, as is noting elemental weaknesses: If all else fails, use fire.

The caro are down. Unfortunately, this only invites more trouble. There's still no way out but through, so it's boss time.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE TAINTED SPHINX.

TAINTED SPHINX

LV. 24

The tainted sphinx is bigger and tougher than the tainted caro. Expect more of the same as the last fight, only more painful. Speaking of the caro, the sphinx will call some in to the fight halfway through. If you had an easy time against the caro in the last fight, then you may wish to just have your entire team concentrate on the sphinx—once it's gone, the battle's over no matter what.

As Team Elma is set upon by a seemingly insurmountable number of tainted, a scene takes place that will prove very familiar to players of the original Xenoblade Chronicles. Enjoy!

4

OBJECTIVE

REPORT TO COMMANDER VANDHAM IN FRONT OF THE RESTRICTED HANGAR IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Come the end of the mission, you'll be able to take the Skell license test to get your Skell license, which is something you absolutely want. We'll talk about that in the next section.

CHAPTER 7: TREACHERY

It's more adventures in Oblivia as BLADE tracks down another piece of the Lifehold. However, the Ganglion forces are only growing larger and more ruthless...

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » EXPLORE 25 PERCENT OF OBLIVIA.
- » COMPLETE THE "CLOSE COMRADES" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 5.

- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.
- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: IRINA AND GWIN.

TATSU'S TIPS:
SKILLS. ARE. AWESOME.

Lin actually had the right of it: Skills are so rad it's not even funny. Skills can traverse across land much faster than you can on foot, and enemies that were previously a challenge or impossible to challenge at all become child's play, or at least approachable. They also may or may not make some amazing julienne fries.

Be sure to complete "The Skill License" mission as soon as possible to get one of your very own!

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Go ahead and eat dinner. Hopefully you've gotten your Skill license, but don't worry too much if you don't. For this chapter, it's not really a prerequisite. For the next one, however...

BLADE has found another piece of the Lifehold. It's not the Core, but it's still a big find. Unfortunately, there's a Ganglion fortress nearby. It's action time.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 7

A piece of the Lifehold has been found in Oblivia. Head there and rescue Irina and her team from the Ganglion.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S IBRA RAVINE AND ASSIST IRINA'S TEAM.

The way to the ravine is fairly straightforward, but just the same, the Follow Ball will get you there without any trouble. You arrive just in time to stop Irina and Gwin from essentially going on a suicide run. Instead, keep the enemies busy while they look for an opening and secure the Lifehold piece.

Go straight ahead and prepare to fight a gauntlet of mechs.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE ASSAULT QMOEVA.

» DEFEAT THE ASSAULT QMOEVA.

ASSAULT QMOEVA X2

LV. 22

Treat these Qmoevas like the last ones you fought—side flanks and back attacks, while attacking as often as possible. Concentrate fire if need be.

Once those are out of the way, reinforcements show up!

3

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE ASSAULT QMOEVA.
- » DEFEAT THE ASSAULT QMOEVA.
- » DEFEAT THE PURSUIT QMOEVA.

PURSUIT QMOEVA

LV. 19

A Qmoeva by any other name can still be handled the same way. The odds are tilted slightly more in their favor, however, so be careful. If your party is at least five levels above theirs, you should be just fine.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Friends get all of them? Tatsu not even break a sweat!"

Answer

Boast: Remark how strong your team has become.

Worry: Express concern that it felt too easy.

4

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE LIFEHOLD UNIT
IN OBLIVIA.

Use whatever means you deem necessary to reach your destination, where you see the Lifehold unit sticking out the side of a mountain.

However, you also run into a Ganglion who's already got a grudge against you. Goetia's back—with her own ride, Almandal!—and this time it's personal. Elma makes it personal right back, and the game is on.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT ALMANDAL.

ALMANDAL

LV. 28

Almandal is a cut above the Qmoevas you've been fighting. Fortunately, it's a four-on-one fight, and you have Overdrive at your disposal. If you have a Skell, this fight isn't much to worry about—if you don't, you'll have to play smart to pull off the win.

Have your party at least level 31 if you want to stand a chance on foot. Chain and combo all of the attacks you can and let loose all of your debuffs. Almandal hits hard, and faster than any mech you've fought thus far despite its size. However, stay persistent and you'll walk away with the victory.

6

OBJECTIVE

REPORT TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT THE ENTRANCE TO NEW LA'S BLADE TOWER.

CHAPTER 8: THE GATHERING STORM

The Ganglion have officially had enough of your shenanigans and are bringing the fight to your doorstep. Time for you and the rest of New LA to be gracious hosts.

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » EXPLORE 10 PERCENT OF MIRA.
- » COMPLETE "THE MATCHMAKER" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 7.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

TATSU'S TIPS: PREP FOR BATTLE!

If you didn't get the Skell license last chapter, make sure you get it for this! Having at least two Skells to go around will help immensely for this chapter's boss battle.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Dinner is interrupted by alarms, and Secretary Nagi tells you in short order that the Ganglion are marching en masse toward New LA. All fighting personnel are to defend the city—no matter the cost.

Team Elma is tasked with defending the Administrative District. No one is to get in through the gate if you can help it.

Elma

"And you, Rook. You ready?"

Answer

Nod: Boast you could take them all on by yourself.

Shake your head: Confide that you're actually a bit scared.

Q&A TIME!

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 8

Ganglion forces are approaching! Defend New LA against the onslaught.

1

LEAVE THE BLADE BARRACKS.

Tatsu and the Nopon have made it so that you can buy supplies and gear and use the Armory in the barracks for this chapter. Get whatever you need, and gear up however you see fit. If you have any Skells, outfit them with as many weapons as possible.

Once ready, walk out that door to punch Armageddon in the face.

Q&A TIME!

Lin	Answer
"Yeah, but..."	Approve: Remark that the title is already starting to grow on you.
"Brigadier General"?"	Disapprove: Joke that the title makes Vandham sound like an old movie villain.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE SCOUT PUGES.

» DEFEAT THE STRIKE PUGILITHS.

SCOUT PUGE X3

LV. 28

STRIKE PUGILITH

LV. 28

You're battling fodder of all sizes in this fight. You've fought them before—don't be afraid to advance a little in order to hit them from the back and sides. Having at least one Skell makes this battle much easier.

3

DEFEND THE EAST GATE OF NEW LA FROM THE GANGLION'S ATTACK FOR THREE MINUTES.

Once you've gotten rid of the warmup, it's time for the real appetizer. Level 28-29 Ganglion mechs assault your position. Once again, you've fought them all before, and Skells will only make defeating them easier. If you don't have Skells, then conquer your enemies by concentrating all of your party's fire on one foe at a time. Three minutes is enough to tear through a few Qmoeva. Then prepare for the next wave.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE IMPACT GALDR.
- » DEFEAT THE IMPACT GALDR.

IMPACT GALDR X2

LV. 27

Impact Galdrs are rather new, and also rather massive. Treat this like the fight against Almandal last chapter—their capabilities are similar. Expect fast, hard-hitting attacks that can only be matched by hitting harder and faster. Topple them if possible, and if you have Skells, you have a lot less to worry about.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"We did it...? We did it!"

Answer

Caution: Suggest another wave might hit soon.

Rejoice: Propose a grand celebration tonight.

A massive Ganglion ship presence makes its way toward the city, filled with loads of mechs. Like it or not, this battle's going to the streets. It also appears two new generals are leading this charge...

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Looks like a number of enemy Skells have entered the city."

Answer

Be bold: Suggest you take them head-on.

Be pragmatic: Suggest a strategic withdrawal.

Vandham has a job for you as soon as you enter the city—two really nasty Ganglion are tearing through absolutely everything. If Team Elma can't handle it, it's safe to say no one can.

5

HEAD TO NEW LA'S
COMMERCIAL DISTRICT AND ELIMINATE THE INVADING FORCES.

You'll fight some enemy fodder and mechs along the way, none of which should prove a problem after the waves you just went through to get this far. Dispatch them as quickly as possible so you can arrive at the Commercial District and the real fight.

The biggest threat blocking your way to the Commercial District is this level 30 talon knight Qmoeva. Treat it like any other boss-class Qmoeva you've fought thus far, and don't give it an inch.

Once you make it to the Commercial District, the Ganglion give you an extra-warm welcome. Whatever you do, don't rush into the fray full-force. Instead, pick at the assorted enemy mechs and troops from as far away as possible, pushing slowly into the ranks. You don't want too many enemies drawing a bead on you at once, otherwise you will be toast, Skull backup or no.

Survive the onslaught and it's time for the main event: Team Elma vs. Ganglion generals Ryyz and Dagahn! They have an imposing presence and absolutely have the strength to back up that presence and their words.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"I know..."

Answer

Encourage: Tell Lin there's no way you'll lose.

Panic: Get ready to grab Lin's hand and run.

6

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT DAGAHN.

» DEFEAT RYYZ.

DAGAHN

LV. 31

RYYZ

LV. 31

So far the enemies being thrown at you have been relentless and stronger than in previous chapters. This boss battle follows suit. Either general will give you a run for your money, so it doesn't matter who you go for first. However, you do want to be quick about shaving off those hit points, so definitely have all four party members concentrate on one general at a time.

Ryyz brings gravity-based attacks such as Gravity Shell, Gravity Barrier, and Gravity Drop to the party, all of which make her hard to hit while she's able to hit single enemies hard. Meanwhile, Gravity Rain has an area of effect. Suffice to say, if you can tune your gear to defend against gravity, you'll have a much easier time.

When her HP approaches zero, Ryyz surrounds herself with doppelgangers (you won't see them, but trust us, they're there) making all of your subsequent attacks miss. Simply keep hammering her to finally finish her off.

Dagahn, meanwhile, is a flame and physical attacks master. Dynamite Punch and Flame Stomp will light up the field and put the hurt on anyone within their area of effect, and his sword slashes and punches are to be avoided at all costs.

Since Dagahn's so big, you can actually Bind him with a Skell—if you see the opportunity, take it and don't look back (just make sure Ryyz isn't taking pot shots at you while you're holding her partner in place!). Dagahn will take longer to defeat than Ryyz because he's an absolute tank, but if you can get past one, you can definitely get past the other.

Q&A TIME!

Dagahn

"Ryyz, no."

Answer

Intimidate: Keep your weapon raised.

Stand down: Lower your weapon.

Gwin

"And when we do, Marcus will be the first one back in a brand-new, state-of-the-art mim—I promise."

Answer

Lighten the mood: Suggest he get the latest "young and rugged" model.

Be optimistic: Suggest he get the latest "hip and fashionable" model.

After some revelations, optimistic words, confirmations of suspicions, and vows of revenge, this chapter's over! Take a rest—you've earned it.

Before starting Chapter 9, unequip any gear you wish to keep from Lao.

CHAPTER 9: WARRIORS OF WROTH

Warriors' honor and diplomats' ideals collide as representatives of humanity and the Wrothian race meet face to face at last. Can these ferocious people be reasoned with?

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » INSTALL A DATA PROBE AT SYLVALUM'S ENTRANCE.
- » COMPLETE THE "SPY GAMES" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 8.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.
- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: LAO AND DOUG.

Caution: Bring Your Hardware

Skells are absolutely essential now, and we suggest having at least two of them for the fight ahead.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Eat dinner, then get ready for a Lifehold hunt. Another piece has been found in Sylvalum, and Lao's team is already en route. Seems simple enough.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 9

A piece of the Lifehold has been found in Sylvalum. Rendezvous with Lao and investigate.

1

MEET LAO NEAR SYLVALUM'S SEABIRD'S BEAK.

Fast-travel, swim, or Skell your way to the southwestern coast of Sylvalum, then fight your way up to where Lao is. He's directly north, and he directs you to the Ganglion threat that awaits.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE LIFEHOLD UNIT IN SYLVALUM'S SHIVERING SANDS.

Once again, follow the trail north, being careful to step around the more powerful indigens that populate the area. If you can, take some time to take on the more diverse life here and gain a few levels for your party. Every bit helps, especially in this chapter.

Once you reach the Shivering Sands, it's time for a long-awaited reckoning. Prepare to officially meet the Wrothians, an honor-bound people who understand only the language of battle!

Q&A TIME!

Ga Jiarg

"Defeat us in battle, and yes, you will also win your freedom."

Answer

Accept: Agree to their challenge.

Refuse: Say you cannot trust them.

3

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT GA JIARG.
- » DEFEAT GA BUIDHE.
- » DEFEAT THE WROTHIAN WARRIORS.

WROTHIAN ENACTOR X2

LV. 32

WROTHIAN SNEAKER X2

LV. 32

GA BUIDHE

LV. 33

Even more than Dagahn and Ryyz, the Wrothians will prove to be a wake-up call for most players. Their melee attacks are brutal and their speed and evasion are off the charts. Try to have your entire party at least at level 36, though higher can't hurt.

GA JIARG

LV. 34

Concentrate your fire on each of the Wrothian warriors first, one by one. You want to get them out of the way quickly before taking on the prince and his adjunct. Get either ringleader's HP low and they will "strengthen their teamwork"—meaning they'll buff up even further.

You can't use Skells in this fight, so go in with your best ground gear, and, if you have them, auras for at least two of your party members and some buff/debuff Arts. Toppling the Wrothians is also an abusable tactic. This will be a tough battle that a comparatively leveled party will not be able to win by matching power with power. The only way to win here is with endurance.

If you prevail, Ga Jarg and Ga Buidhe up the ante and climb into massive Skells. You get a short reprieve to recover and climb into your own Skells. Do both and join the battle!

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE VASARA.
- » DEFEAT DEVA CALADAR.

CALADAR (MULTIPLE)

LV. 33

DEVA CALADAR

LV. 34

VASARA

LV. 35

In Skells, the Wrothians exchange speed for power, but they're no less deadly. Lay into Deva Caladar first with everything you have. The Vasara has the ability to render itself invincible via force field once you deal enough damage to it, forcing you to take on the Caladar Skells until the Vasara lowers its defenses. On the bright side, it's very susceptible to Binding.

Near the end of the battle, the Vasara sets itself ablaze and gains even greater offensive power. Don't be intimidated or overwhelmed—make sure no other foes are on the battlefield, then team up on it with your strongest attacks. Go all out!

Win here, and the Wrothians will finally retreat.

5

OBJECTIVE

ENTER THE MAINTENANCE CENTER IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Doug

"Well, what do you think, Rook? You think he's a spy?"

Answer

Nod: Agree with Elma.

Shake your head: Show you still trust Lao.

Once you complete this mission, you can try to get your Skells flight-capable! Go to Mission Control and choose the "Flight Module" mission when you're ready.

CHAPTER 10: THE ZU PHARG MENACE

A routine maintenance check turns into a knock-down, drag-out battle against a doomsday weapon. Just another day in the life of BLADE.

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » SURVEY 15 PERCENT OF SYLVALUM.
- » COMPLETE THE "MANHUNT" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

Caution: Get in the Air

Let's just say the boss of this chapter has an altitudinal advantage. You absolutely want the Skell flight module before tackling this mission, and you'll want as many as you can afford. Try to get four battle-ready if you can.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Go ahead and eat the last dinner on the menu. You'll need all the strength you can get for this mission.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Especially when they weren't your mistakes to begin with. Wouldn't you agree?"

Answer

Agree: Absolve the Commander of any guilt.

Disagree: Tell Elma a simple apology isn't enough.

There's an important data probe in Sylvalum that's acting up. Coincidentally, the Ganglion have been awfully quiet. Repair expert Lin and the rest of combat-ready Team Elma are sent out to investigate.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 10

Repair the data probe installed on Sylvalum's Northern Delusian Mountains.

1

REPAIR THE DATA PROBE
INSTALLED IN SYLVALUM'S
DELUSIAN MOUNTAINS.

This probe's pretty high up, so flying is your best bet. Your destination is the North Summit of the Delusians. Look for the purple data probe light. Approach it and enjoy the story.

That was the easy part. The hard part shows up right about...now. Did you miss Dagahn and Ryyz? Well, miss them no more, because they're back and they want revenge!

Elma

"We can't let it get anywhere near the city. We have to put a stop to it here."

Answer

Agree: Swear to defeat it here.

Give up: Abandon all hope and prepare to run.

2

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE ZU PHARG.

ZU PHARG

LV. 39

You don't have to defeat Zu Pharg entirely just yet—just get it down to half of its HP. Use this time to feel out your enemy. You'll need to fly just to meet it on equal terms.

Zu Pharg launches aircraft. Whenever they show up, knock them out of the sky with concentrated fire so you can leave the battlefield clean. When engaging Zu Pharg directly, fly above the craft so you can have a better view of your targets and give yourself a "high ground" advantage. Once in position, go for the each of the dishes on its sides, then lay the smackdown on its center.

Caution: Stay in the Air

Keeping your Skells alive is highly important for this phase of the fight. If you lose them, your chances of defeating Zu Pharg from the ground are pretty much nil until you go back to the BLADE barracks and have them repaired.

Get Zu Pharg down to half of its life and it will transform into a massive ground-based behemoth!

3

DEFEAT THE ZU PHARG.

Despite the added intimidation factor, the exact same strategy applies on the ground as in the air. This time, Zu Pharg launches Qmoeva Skells—run interference and pound them ASAP before going for the battle station itself. Keep putting on the pressure until it falls. This chapter ends directly afterward, so give it all you've got!

TATSU'S TIPS: EVERYONE'S USEFUL!

The good news is that any ground-bound characters you have are actually useful in this phase of the fight. Ground-based characters get a 20% defense boost for each active Skell in the party. They can even target Zu Pharg! That said, try to keep your Skells intact through this fight anyway. The added maneuverability will do you good.

CHAPTER 11: CONSEQUENCES

The story nears its climax as tensions bubble over within BLADE ranks, and the Ganglion make their biggest move yet...

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » EXPLORE 10 PERCENT OF CAULDROS.
- » COMPLETE THE "NINE LIVES" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE THE "BOOT CAMP" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 10.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.
- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: NAGI.

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Eat your dinner—tonight it's special.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"So, what should I whip up today?"

Answer

Chef's choice: Ask for the Chef Koo Choice.

House special: Ask for the Lin Lee Special.

Once the sequence is over, you're called by Vandham in a hurry—so much so that the mission doesn't even officially start before you're given your first objective.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE RESTRICTED HANGAR IN NEW LA'S ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Go ahead and fast-travel there to continue the story. The rendezvous point is not far from where Doug normally hangs out.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"So what are we waiting for?"

Answer

Assume: Suggest it's because of Lao.

Be patient: Hear the Commander out.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"He took the terminal that was analyzing the data and deleted all the backups for good measure."

Answer

Regret: Say you should have shot Lao.

Clarify: Ask if the analysis can be redone.

You have a new, urgent mission now—retrieve the Lifehold Core data at any cost!

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 11

Respond to Commander Vandham's urgent request.

2

OBJECTIVE

FOLLOW LAO TO THE GANGLION BASE IN CAULDROS.

Gather your best and brightest, and then head for Cauldros.

Your destination is the O'rrh Sim Gate.

3

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR LAO IN CAULDROS'S O'RRH SIM CASTLE.

You want good ground gear and personal stats for this, as your Skells can't fit inside the entrance. Try to have your party members' levels at least in the mid-40s.

Go inside the castle and follow the passageways and elevators, taking on all comers. Eventually you'll descend low enough to reach the O'rrh Sim Keep.

TATSU'S TIPS: THE ENSEMBLE CAST

You'll face scores of enemies inside O'rrh Sim Castle, from Marnruk imperials to multiple types of robots. If you need an edge, don't forget to check the Enemy Index in the Data chapter for stats and elemental weaknesses!

4

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE FORCE SEIDR.

FORCE SEIDR

LV. 44

You've faced multiple Skells on foot by now—this just happens to be one of the most powerful ones. The same strategies apply; the battle will just take longer. If your levels are comparable to or higher than its, then smart debuffing and offense will win the day handily.

The Seidr is also your only target, so four-on-one dogpiling is the order of the day. Topple it whenever you can, and flank it with as much damage per second as possible. Ranged fire works well against this target, as it likes to dart around the room sometimes.

5

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR LAO IN CAULDROS'S O'RRH SIM CASTLE.

After you beat the Seidr you'll be able to bring in your Skells for the final act. Go down the elevator to confront Lao.

6

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE PROG ARES.

PROG ARES

LV. 45

The Prog Ares is a formidable machine, but now that you're in your Skells, it's an enemy that's on the same scale as you, that's (hopefully) of a comparable level as your party, and that's fighting alone. In other words, this fight will be easier than you think, especially since you can Bind it until the cows come home. Fight it like any normal enemy (albeit a speedy one).

There is a wrinkle to this fight, however: You have to win it twice. The first time, you have to get it down to half HP. Then, after a cutscene intermission, you have to fight it from full strength again.

Get the Prog's HP low and it starts spamming powerful attacks like the rapid-fire Agni Gatling, the distance-covering Avatara Missile, and the piercing Aghasura Cannon. Defeat Prog Ares one and a half times, and the battle's over for real.

7

OBJECTIVE

REPORT TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT THE ENTRANCE TO NEW LA'S BLADE TOWER.

CHAPTER 12: INTO THE CORE

The Lifehold Core has been located.
Nothing else need be said.

CHAPTER PREREQUISITES

- » OBTAIN THE SKELL FLIGHT MODULE.
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 11.
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

TATSU'S TIPS: GET IN GEAR

For the easiest time with this chapter, you want four Skells, armed to the teeth. Also, make sure that you have some ranged weaponry for those Skells—grenades with an area of effect, such as the Cracker series from the Shop Terminal, are a great addition. You'll need them for a particular phase of the battle.

Finally, get your folks up to level 55 for an easier time. At this point in the game, the Sentinel's Nest near the northern apex of Noctulum is a great place to grind for levels. Outfit your Skells with G-Buster weapons from the shop and team up on crazed aeviters for fast XP. They work great against the bosses of this chapter, too!

STORY MISSION WALKTHROUGH

You'll get a long preparatory cutscene and a long dinner. Enjoy it, because this will be your toughest battle to date.

Q&A TIME!

Doug

"Heh. From that place you love, right? Okay. You got it."

Answer

Relax: Enjoy this time with friends.

Chow down: Dive right in and start eating.

NEW STORY MISSION: CHAPTER 12

Secure the Lifehold Core.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM IN NEW LA'S BLADE TOWER.

You'll learn more about your mission after reaching Vandham. Turns out the Lifehold's just like a set of keys—it's always in the last place one looks.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE WATERS OFF CAUDROS.

Head directly west from the center of the continent. Follow the arrow, and don't be thrown off by the ocean's vastness—you'll know the site when you see it. It's rather hard to miss!

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD VIA SKELL TO THE LIFEHOLD CORE OFF THE WESTERN COAST OF CAUDROS.

Keep away from conflict! Weave around the Ganglion forces until you reach the vicinity of the Lifehold Core.

4

ENTER THE LIFEHOLD CORE.

Elma tells you that there's no going back from here. Listen to her. If you haven't saved your game already, tell Elma that you're not ready and then do so before proceeding. Once you go inside, you can't leave to regroup or repair your Skells, so make sure you're ready and that you're fully prepped!

5

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE CENTER OF THE LIFEHOLD CORE.

Just go straight. This is the easiest objective in the game—even "Leave the BLADE barracks" back in "Chapter 1" had you looking for which corner to turn.

However, the easiest objective in the story's narrative gives way to the hardest. Meet Luxaar and his war Skell, the Vita. The real fight begins now.

6

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE VITA.

VITA

LV. 50

LINK SATELLIS

LV. 50

SHIELD SATELLIS

LV. 50

ENHANCER SATELLIS

LV. 48

PURSUIT SATELLIS ALPHA

LV. 47

STRIKE SATELLIS

LV. 47

Have your entire party enter their Skells immediately in order to stand a chance against this monster!

Much like last chapter's Prog Ares battle, the Vita fight has two phases. The first is a four-on-one throwdown that can be won by aiming all of your most powerful attacks at the Vita and never letting up. The Vita can be affected by Bind as well, so take advantage of the opportunity whenever it pops up! Meanwhile, be aware of Vita's powerful ether projectile attacks, many of which attack multiple foes at once. The multi-targeting Multi Cannon and Ether Megacannon in particular hurt like crazy.

You need to get the Vita down to half of its HP to beat the first phase, after which it will transform.

For the second phase, the Vita will be joined by multiple satellis bits, all of which buff the Vita up and make it more powerful and nearly impervious to damage. You need to hunt them down and take them out if you want a chance of bringing the Vita's HP down to zero.

The shield satellises, in particular, will need to be snuffed out. Have your party concentrate its fire on them. They appear to not take damage at first, but keep whaling on them and you'll eventually crack them in two. Make sure you dispatch them fast, because while the Vita is protected, it can regenerate its HP!

Never let up the pressure, even in the face of the Vita's attacks, and you'll eventually win. If your Skells still live after the battle, then you've just beaten arguably the most complicated boss the main story has to offer. Congrats!

Now you just have to get past the rest.

Q&A TIME!

L

Answer

"Let us dance up a storm in any port!"

Celebrate: Revel in your victory.

Inquire: Ask Elma to continue her explanation from before the battle.

7

DEFEAT THE SOLDIER CHIMERAS.

SOLDIER CHIMERA X10

LV. 41-50

Suddenly you find yourself up against a pack of soldier chimeras. They're relentless, and you've never fought this many enemies at once—certainly not as many that move this fast! If you don't have at least one functional Skill, then things are bleak.

However, if you do...then just fly up and rain down ranged attacks and tell your party members to do the same. In lieu of that, hit and run with your Skills' most powerful melee weaponry. The chimeras won't be able to do much in response. It's like shooting mutant genetic abominations in a barrel!

8

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT LAO.

LAO

LV. 50

At last, the final boss of Xenoblade Chronicles X's story is upon us. This fight is, one more time, broken up into two phases. If your Skills are still functional, you'll want to use them for heavy hits and Binding throughout the battle.

Lao's attacks are similar to the Vita's—powerful multi-hit melee and fast single-hit ether bursts are the order of the day. Lao can also be fought in the same manner as the Vita, and you won't have to worry about him being buffed up by outside parties, either. He can, however, inflict status effects like Sleep on your party without a second thought.

Get Lao to half his life, and it's on to the second phase. Early into the battle, Lao saps the fuel from your Skills, and you have to continue the fight on foot. Fortunately, even in his giant form, Lao can still be Staggered and Toppled. Do both to him to ensure he launches as few attacks as possible.

At times, Lao calls forth queen chimeras or soldier chimeras. Quickly take these out with concentrated fire from your party as soon as they come into range, then continue your assault on Lao. Lao will still be able to hit you while you concentrate on the Chimera, but it's better to be able to attack him without interference, so get rid of all of his help!

When Lao gets down to about 20 percent HP, he rains lasers from the sky in all directions. Be ready to fortify your party before and after this happens.

Endure the punishment while dealing the damage and, eventually, you'll pull through. Enjoy the ending—it's a meaty one.

Congratulations on beating the game's central story thread! Kick back and relax—you've earned it—but don't rest on your laurels—there are still plenty of adventures to be had and stories to be shared on the world of Mira. When you're ready, turn the page to get started!

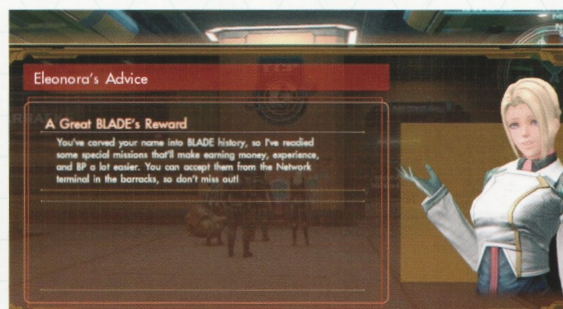

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: POSTGAME

After the credits, you can continue your adventure on Mira. Strengthen your party, complete standing and newly unlocked missions for the story and rewards, go for upgraded tech you haven't unlocked yet, and challenge monsters that you could only dream of battling up to this point! The world is your oyster if you're willing to reach out and grab it.

MECHANICAL ADVANCEMENT: SUPPORT MISSIONS

When you beat the story, Eleonora opens up support missions on the Network Console in the BLADE barracks. These allow you to quickly build up credits, Affinity, miranium, and other essentials to further support your in-game growth. Very handy.

TATSU'S TIPS: ORDERED BY EXPERIENCE

These missions are listed in order of level and Affinity requirements to ensure that you have the least chance of encountering late-game spoilers. You can see these requirements at the top header of every mission. However, please also be reminded that mild spoilers are unavoidable for these missions once you start delving into the text. With all that said, enjoy!

A NEW RIVAL?

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 12

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 3.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Meet Hector Birtwhistle (H.B. for short). H.B. is, to put it lightly, a young man who is very, very confident in his skills.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A NEW RIVAL?

You are now in competition with a BLADE named H.B. for...some reason.

1 OBJECTIVE

COMPLETE ALL THREE NORMAL MISSIONS:

- » INSTALLATION: INSTALL A DATA PROBE ON THE PLAINS NORTHEAST OF PRIMORDIA'S SAYRAM LAKE.
- » RESEARCH: EARN 3,000 CREDITS FROM FRONTIERNV IN A SINGLE RETURN.
- » MIRANIUM: GIVE 900 UNITS OF MIRANIUM TO TAULER ON DIVISION DRIVE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

If you're reading this, then by now you should know how to install data probes and gain cash and resources from them. However, if you need a refresher course, feel free to turn to the BLADE and Its Benefits section of the Primer and read up.

2 OBJECTIVE

TALK TO H.B. ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE.

H.B. "I'll be good enough to offer an extension on our little contest in the meantime."

Answer Brag: Tell Hector that you are already done.
Inquire: Ask Hector what this new issue is.

Q&A TIME!

H.B. "I'm certain someone of your proficiency will only hold me back a little."

Answer Accept: Agree to help.
Decline: Tell Hector to do it himself.

Q&A TIME!

Q&A TIME!

H.B. "You there, the one about to take that mission? I'm speaking to you."

Answer Answer: Ask the man what he wants.
Ignore: Take the mission without paying the man any notice.

Q&A TIME!

H.B. "I invite you to set pride aside and allow me to handle this. For humanity's sake."

Answer Decline: Tell Hector to save his breath.
Inquire: Ask how such a thing could possibly benefit humanity.

3 OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S RUST LAKE TO RESCUE THE BLADES.

H.B. "Let's clear out the creatures ahead, then evacuate our scientist."

Answer Worry: Say that you should help the injured BLADE.
Ignore: Take no more notice of the wounded BLADE and move on.

Q&A TIME!

4 OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT A THIEVING DILUS AT NOCTILUM'S RUST LAKE.

Be sure no nearby indigens join this fight, and take on the dilus four-on-one. Also, make sure you're nowhere near the front of its body, so as to avoid its snapping jaws.

5 OBJECTIVE

TALK TO SOLAN AT NOCTILUM'S RUST LAKE.

H.B. "I see now that you are worthy of the honor of being my partner."

Answer Nod: Tell H.B. that you will think about it.
Shrug: Say that you're nothing special.

Q&A TIME!

» NEW PARTY MEMBER:
H.B.

WE WERE SOLDIERS

MISSION PREREQUISITES

- » LEVEL: 12
- » AFFINITY: ELMA (1 HEART)
- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 3.
- » EXPLORE 15% OF PRIMORDIA
- » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN
- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: IRINA, GWIN, AND DOUG.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"Someone needs to go round 'em all up."

Answer

Question: Ask why they're collecting random parts.

Worry: Express concern about Monty's team.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

A Reclaimer team has found multiple chunks of the White Whale, and they need extra hands to gather them.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: WE WERE SOLDIERS

Debris from the White Whale has been detected on the shore north of New LA. Head there to retrieve it.

1

OBJECTIVE

COLLECT THREE PARTS OF THE
WHITE WHALE AT NORTHPOINTE
BEACH IN PRIMORDIA.

Fire up the radar and Follow Ball. They lead you toward one of Primordia's coasts. Loot all three nodes in the vicinity.

2

OBJECTIVE

FIND THE SOURCE OF THE DISTRESS CALL ON THE NORTH
JANPATH PLAIN.

The path to this destination is elevated, meaning the mini-map can be deceiving. The Follow Ball, however, will take you exactly where you need to go. Once you arrive, a large simian indigen blocks your way. The only way out is through.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE INTIMIDATOR SIMIUS FOUND ON THE NORTH JANPATH PLAIN.

INTIMIDATOR SIMIUS

LV. 14

This is manageable for three party members, but the main strategy revolves around "it hits hard, so hit it harder." Chain all of your attacks, keep your party members in sync, and you'll be fine.

4

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR IRINA ON THE NORTH JANPATH PLAIN IN PRIMORDIA.

The only way appears to be off of the cliff, and that's exactly where you need to go. Jump down (no, seriously) to the waters below and swim west to the small coast to find her.

Art Learned: Shadowstrike (Dual Swords)

5

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM IN THE BLADE BARRACKS.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"You really are something, Elma!"

Answer

Inquire: Ask about when Elma struck back at the enemy on Earth.

Correct: Remind everyone that this was a TEAM effort.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

This mission begins with a young man deep in thought—or lost in thought. It's hard to tell which, really. This is Phog Christoph, and he has a mission request. Give him time and he'll actually get around to it.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"I didn't think anyone would accept my request. This is the best thing that's happened to me all month."

Answer

Urge: Tell Phog to make his point.

Wait: Let Phog sort his thoughts.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"...Hmm?"

Answer

Nudge: Tell Phog that this is a god time to start talking.

Wait: Stand still and let Phog notice you.

Phog

"Besides, field investigation and combat aren't exactly my forte..."

Answer

Propose: Say that you should head out there at once.

Chide: Tell Phog that he should try it himself before relying on others.

Q&A TIME!

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: FOGGY DILEMMA

Some of the data probes in Oblivia seem to be malfunctioning. Look into it with the Prospector, Phog.

1

OBJECTIVE

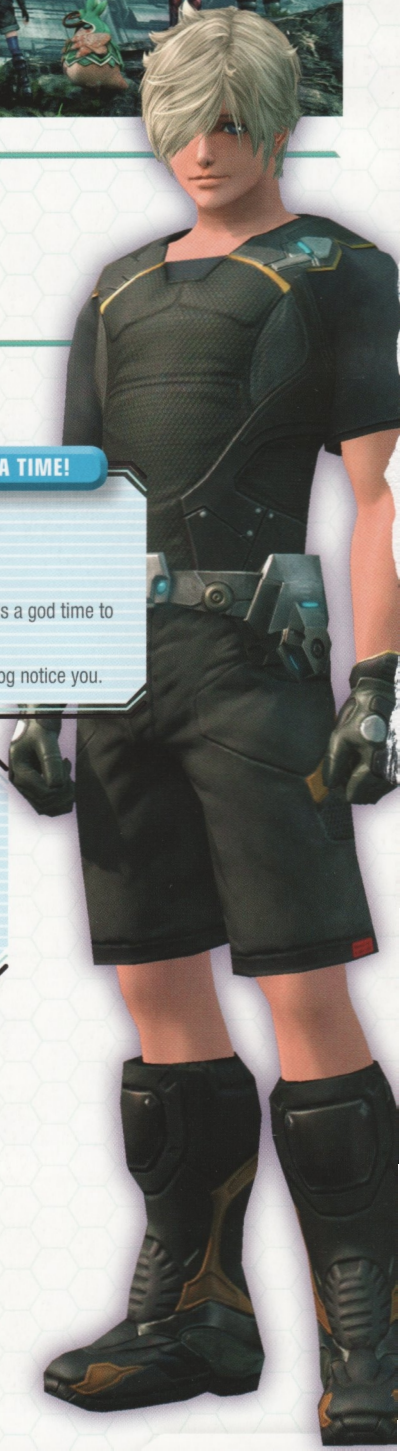

INVESTIGATE THE DATA PROBE AT OBLIVIA'S TWIN ARCHES.

The path here is straightforward, but keep an eye out for the large indigens roaming the area. Once you investigate the wrecked probe, Phog points you to another one.

2

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE DATA PROBE ON OBLIVIA'S AAROEY PLAIN.

3

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE DATA PROBE AT OBLIVIA'S TWIN ARCHES.

Yes, you have indeed been here before. Just go with it. Once you arrive, Phog slowly starts to realize something.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"This one's pulled out of the ground just like the others."

Answer

Speculate: Say that something is obviously digging the data probes up.

Correct: Remind Phog that you have already checked this location.

Phog

"Guess I haven't made much progress on that front."

Answer

Comfort: Remind Phog that no one is perfect.

Scold: Yell at Phog to get his act together.

Counsel: Tell Phog that all progress is built on such mistakes.

4

OBJECTIVE

REGROUP AND INVESTIGATE THE DATA PROBE ON OBLIVIA'S AAROY PLAIN.

Again, you've already been, but just go with it. This time, the trip proves fruitful—you run into the Ganglion.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"Sorry, what were we talking about? Oh, right. The Ganglion. So what should we do about them?"

Answer

Suggest: Propose that you take out the Ganglion forces for disturbing the data probes.

Query: Ask Phog what he wants to do.

5

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE QMOEVA
DIVIDER ON OBLIVIA'S
AAROY PLAIN.

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK
CRAFTER ON OBLIVIA'S
AAROY PLAIN.

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"It's actually kind of odd to feel this comfortable with a stranger."

Answer

Offer: Tell Phog that you want to take on more missions together.

Praise: Tell Phog that he showed great courage.

Correct: Tell Phog not to get too comfortable.

Lin is having a bit of trouble with some machinery she's tended, and her engineer's pride won't let her rest easy about it.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THE REPAIR JOB

Team up with Lin and fix the electrical fault.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO BART AT NLA'S WEST GATE.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Surprised?"

Answer

Inquire: Ask if she's always done both.

Grin: Note how much fun she seems to be having.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO BART AT NLA'S WEST GATE.

Bart is actually above the west gate, where you came through on your first time to New LA.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"What do you think?"

Answer

Grumble: Complain loudly about how hungry you are.

Persist: Insist that you should fix the problem for good.

2

GATHER THREE L-002 POWER CABLES IN PRIMORDIA'S STARFALL BASIN.

The good news is that the radar tells you the areas where you gather these parts in nearby treasure chests. The bad news is that there are some heavy-hitting Ganglion Skells over there (around-level 50!). Stay clear of the Skells as you look for the power cables.

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 14

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 3.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Start this mission and you'll find that Yelv has a rather... forward personality. Within seconds, you're drafted into taking on a mission.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"C'mere a minute. I got something you're about to do for me."

Answer

Agree: Do as the man says.

Beg off: Say that you have to go wash your hair.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Run along and handle 'em. Should be a cake walk. Real easy street."

Answer

Rebuff: Tell him to get lost.

Agree: Say that you'll do them.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: MEETING YELV

You were pressed into taking on some missions by a man named Yelv. They seem like fairly straightforward tasks; hopefully it won't take too long.

1

OBJECTIVE

COMPLETE ALL THREE NORMAL MISSIONS:

» MISSION A: GATHER THREE RIZATTICES IN PRIMORDIA.

» MISSION B: DEFEAT TWO YOUNG CINICULAS IN PRIMORDIA.

» MISSION C: DEFEAT FIVE METAL BLATTAS IN PRIMORDIA.

If you don't already have them, refer to the Collectibles section in the Data chapter for the rizattices. The blattas are lower-level fodder that can be easily beaten at your current level—just watch out for their numbers and don't let them swarm you. The ciniculas should be right at your level as well—take them on one at a time and you should have no problems.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO YELV ON NORTH FOUNDERS STREET IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Looks like they're done. You have a hard time or what?"

Answer

Confirm: Say that they were a nightmare.

Deny: Say they were easy.

Suitably impressed with how you handled his test, Yelv joins you for a mission.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE BLADE CONCOURSE WITH YELV.

No matter what choice you make here, you must collect the debris.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Well, pard? You gettin' any chuckles here?"

Answer

Hunt: Choose to fight the indigen.

Gather: Choose to gather the strawlennies.

Reclaim: Choose to find the White Whale parts.

4

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S NORTH COAST AND RETRIEVE THE DEBRIS.

Indigens lurk near the debris, including a tyrant, but they can be stepped around. However, get close enough to the debris and you'll be attacked by a few nasties.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Time to teach these indigens who owns this little piece of Mira!"

Answer

Nod: Tell Yelv that you are ready to kick some butt.

Caution: Suggest hanging back and observing your enemy.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THREE HERMIT INSIDIAS AT OBLIVIA'S NORTH COAST AND EXAMINE THE DEBRIS.

HERMIT INSIDIA X3

LV. 15

The insidias should be right at or below your party's level, so this shouldn't go badly at all. Flank the enemy, hit hard, and have all party members concentrate fire on one insidia at a time. Watch out for their physically devastating front-facing Rock Shots.

Once you win, examine the debris, then report to Eleonora to complete the mission.

6

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA AT THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"We're gonna be working together a long time, you and me. Best to get to know each other."

Answer

Pry: Ask what Eleonora meant when she said that Yelv was "looking for something."

Grin: Tell Yelv a cold one sounds good.

RENEWED WILL

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 15 » REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN. » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: IRINA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Team Elma runs into an off-duty Irina, but so do a couple of hecklers, who insult everyone Irina holds dear. Is this the start of a street fight? This affinity mission is a requirement for Chapter 5.

Q&A TIME!

Heckler

"Ho ho, this oughtta be good! Let's go!"

Answer

Raise fists: Prepare to fight.

Hang back: Wait and see what happens.

Q&A TIME!

Irina

"Just forget it."

Answer

Change subject: Ask what brings Vandham here.

Probe further: Ask Irina what's the matter.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: RENEWED WILL

You received a new mission from Irina—defeat the indigens, whose increasing numbers have become something of a problem.

1

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT FOUR MATINAL EVELLOS IN PRIMORDIA'S GRIEVING PLAINS.

The evellos are your standard indigens—not boss grade at all. When you find them, they should be roughly level 11. Dispatch them and move on.

2

OBJECTIVE

A NEARBY BLADE TEAM IS UNDER ATTACK. HEAD TO PRIMORDIA'S GRIEVING PLAINS.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE BRUME AURAVIS IN PRIMORDIA'S GRIEVING PLAINS.

BRUME AURAVIS

LV. 16

Since this is a four-on-one fight, you should have little problem, but just the same, watch out for its Tail Twirl and area-of-effect Roar attack. It's got the high ground, so stand yours and persevere.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Tatsu gets news of a Nopon caravan that's moved into Noctilum—his home caravan. Elma suggests they pay a visit.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THE TIES THAT BIND

Head to Tatsu's home of Dodonga Caravan and get him to confront his past.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE DODONGA CARAVAN AT NOCTILUM'S WHALE'S NOSTRIL.

The Whale's Nostril is actually a cave, so use the Follow Ball to light the way, along with your mini-map. The Dodonga Caravan is easy to spot—just look for the cluster of Nopon and tents.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO KOKO AT NOCTILUM'S WHALE'S NOSTRIL.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"And I'm Lin. Nice to meetcha!"

Answer

Flatter: Mention that Koko looks lovely.

Tease: Say that Koko looks good enough to eat.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Glasses are only thing Tatsu have to remember Dadapon."

Answer

Aid: Offer to help find the glasses.

Brush off: Tell Tatsu to get over it already.

2

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR TATSU'S FATHER'S GLASSES ON THE SHORE SOUTH OF PRIMORDIA'S BIAHNO LAKE.

3

RETRIEVE TATSU'S FATHER'S GLASSES FROM PRIMORDIA'S HEADWATER CAVERN.

The entrance to the cave has some high-level indigens (around level 30) lurking about who will attack on sight. Step around them if you don't want to waste time, or challenge them if you want to try for some more levels.

Inside the cave, however, is a much less threatening group of enemies. Look behind the insidia to find a red-gem collectible containing glasses, and fight the enemies, if they attack.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO KOKO AT THE DODONGA CARAVAN IN NOCTILUM'S WHALE'S NOSTRIL.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Are you sure you don't want to stay with your family?"

Answer

Agree: Tell him families should stick together.

Disagree: Tell him he should stay (in case you need rations...).

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

It's Vandham time once again! This time he's here because—well, he's bored. Team Elma wastes no time in teasing him about this.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Hey, yeah! Where do I sign up for a cushy job like that?"

Answer

Mock: Claim that even Tatsu could do Vandham's job.

Suck up: Say that only Vandham could do his job.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A DAY IN THE LIFE

You decided to observe Commander Vandham at work for an entire day. Go follow him around.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO BARISTA COURT IN THE MORNING.

Barista Court is in the Commercial District of NLA. Get there during the early hours.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE HANGAR IN THE AFTERNOON.

3

GET A BLUE ELECTRICAL TENTACLE FROM THE DUOGUILLS IN PRIMORDIA.

You can find duoguills at Cliffside Beach. Keep fighting them until they drop the material you need. Target the tentacle and break it off for a higher chance at the item dropping. Be prepared for this to take some time.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO CEDRIC AT THE HANGAR IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

5

OBJECTIVE

GATHER INFORMATION ON THE COMMANDER'S NIGHTTIME PLACE OF WORK.

You can find a person not too far from the hangar who will tell you that Vandham's nighttime base of operation is BLADE Tower.

6

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE BLADE TOWER DOOR AT NIGHT.

7

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE SAILING GREX IN PRIMORDIA'S BIAHNO GRASSLANDS.

SAILING GREX

LV. 16

While the sailing grex isn't a boss-class indigen, it is part of a pack. It's level 16 and is surrounded by a whole mess of level 12 fighter grexes. Depending on your levels, you might be fine charging in and concentrating your entire party's fire on the sailing grex. If you're cautious, then hang back and take out the fighter grexes one by one before moving in for the big daddy.

Keep in mind that only the sailing grex must be vanquished to successfully complete the objective.

8

OBJECTIVE

RETURN TO BLADE TOWER AND REPORT TO COMMANDER VANDHAM.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Meet Alexa! She's an Outfitter who is, like, toooooo obsessed with Skells and is fond of drafting live test subjects whenever they show up! Like you just did. Look, there's no time to explain, okay? It's time to fight her latest machine! Go, go, go! This affinity mission is a requirement for Chapter 6.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"And since you're so tough, the data should be great!"

Answer

Query: Ask Alexa what she needs you to do.

Worry: Ask Alexa if she really wants you to fight a Skell.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: WEAPONIZED

Alexa from the Outfitters has requested your help with testing a new type of weapon.

1

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT ALEXA SPECIAL AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR.

ALEXA SPECIAL

LV. 16

Given the prerequisites for entering this chapter, your levels should be higher than your foe's, and its attacks aren't much to write home about. Whale on it until it cries uncle.

Q&A TIME!

Tika

"Look, you mind handling the next test in place of Alexa?"

Answer

Accept: Say that no mission is too big or small for you.

Hesitate: Tell Tika that you need to think it over.

Decline: Turn down Tika's offer.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO SYLVALUM'S NEEDLE ROCK SANDSEA.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"He wasn't in Tika's orders, but we could use him in our test anyway."

Answer

Agree: Claim that the bigger the subject is, the better the data should be.

Object: Say that the prototype might not be up to the task.

The papils are small insectoid indigens that go down with little trouble, though you might want to pick them off one by one and concentrate your fire if you haven't yet hit level 20.

If you decided to also go for the arenatect, keep in mind that it's the same level as the Alexa special, but it's bigger and its attacks hit far harder. Hit hard and restore your party whenever possible.

Emerge victorious, and the testing session is over.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Not quite as fun as a Skell test, but still pretty great, huh?"

Answer

Agree: Say that you wouldn't mind more missions like this one.

Disagree: Say that you were bored.

3

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» USE THE RAMJET RIFLE TO DEFEAT A TRUMP ARENATECT AT SYLVALUM'S NEEDLE ROCK SANDSEA (OPTIONAL).

» USE THE RAMJET RIFLE TO DEFEAT 5 TRUMP PAPILS IN SYLVALUM'S NEEDLE ROCK SANDSEA.

Make sure you have the Ramjet Rifle equipped before you start the fight—nothing you kill with a different weapon will count toward the objective.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Vandham has shown up with a special mission for Team Elma: Rescue Lao's stranded Pathfinder team.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"Who knows what the hell that boy is thinkin'?"

Answer

Worry: Ask if Lao might be in some sort of trouble.

Dismiss: Say that Lao's behavior is disappointing at best..

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A FRIEND IN NEED

Lao's team has run out of supplies. Find them and help them out.

1

OBJECTIVE

BRING SUPPLIES TO SAIDEN IN OBLIVIA'S BARBARICH DESERT.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE MEETING POINT IN FRONT OF OBLIVIA'S LEANING RING.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT SIX CHASM FORFEXES NEAR OBLIVIA'S LEANING RING.

The forfexes are just ahead, and they should all be below your party's level. If they're close to yours, though, pick them off one by one.

4

OBJECTIVE

HEAD PAST THE CANYON SOUTH OF OBLIVIA'S LEANING RING.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Come on, let's keep that thing away from them!"

Answer

Affirm: Nod and say nothing's getting past me.

Boast: Say you'll kick enough ass for everyone.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT A FIERCE VIGENT SOUTH OF OBLIVIA'S LEANING RING.

FIERCE VIGENT

LV. 19

The vigent isn't high in level, but he's absolutely massive! While flanking him is the best offense option, he does have a slam attack that can hurt you no matter where you position yourself. He doesn't have anything special outside of hard physical hits, but he does have a thick hide, so prepare for a protracted battle.

This mission starts with a gentleman at a diner. Join him for drinks and answer his questions to proceed.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"Bah. Guess I'm outta options..."

Answer

Query: Ask the man if he's all right.

Watch: Hang back and say nothing.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"Right, then! You ready for the main event?"

Answer

Query: Ask what's up next.

Suggest: Say that perhaps he should get some sleep.

Rally: Offer to buy the next round.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"Let's drink. I'm buyin'!"

Answer

Join: Agree to a drink.

Decline: Turn down the offer.

Protest: Claim that you're underage.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"Care to join me, seeing as we're old pals and all now?"

Answer

Accept: Agree to help Frye with whatever he needs.

Decline: Say that you're busy.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BOTTOMS UP

Out of pity for an individual named Frye, you decided to take on an Interceptor task. Your goal is to defeat the enemy reported to be patrolling parts of Sylvalum.

1

DEFEAT TWO SAPPHIRE FORFEXES IN SYLVALUM'S SEABIRD'S BEAK REGION.

It's very possible to trigger this mission before you have a Skell. If you do have one, great! Get moving. However, if you don't, get ready to swim across an entire ocean. Fortunately, Seabird's Beak is right up the southern coast, so you won't get lost once you discover the continent. If you want to save yourself a long swim, use the land bridge from northern Primordia to Sylvalum. Be careful though; it is filled with level 30 prine and qmoevas.

That's the hard part, however. The forfexes are under-leveled and are easily dispatched.

2

DEFEAT THREE CREEK UNAFULGES IN SYLVALUM'S SEABIRD'S BEAK REGION.

These enemies are of a slightly higher level but are still easily taken care of.

5

DEFEAT A GAFF PUGILITH AT SYLVALUM'S SEABIRD'S BEAK REGION.

This is the last fight! The gaff pugilith level 21. Bring some anti-beam defenses and dogpile swiftly.

3

DEFEAT THREE STRANGE LICEORS IN SYLVALUM'S NEEDLE ROCK SANDSEA.

Needle Rock Barrens is slightly north of Seabird's Bill, and your quarry is once again of a slightly higher level. Level up or upgrade your Arts/Skills to maintain parity. Watch out for larger, stronger indigens roaming around!

4

DEFEAT TWO WHITE PROGEN AT SYLVALUM'S SEABIRD'S BEAK REGION.

The progen are roughly the same level as the liceors, but they're bigger. Flank them as necessary and chain your attacks. Topple if possible.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"Today was easy street. Didn't know I was in the company of a master!"

Answer

Query: Ask how useful you were.

Inquire: Ask Frye if he usually takes on such missions alone.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"I'd work with you again any day, no question."

Answer

Agree: Concur that you make a good team.

Invite: Say Frye should forget work and join you for a drink.

Your next mission companion is a Harrier with an unshakable will and a fiery heart. You'll have to prove that the flame that burns within you is just as intense as his!

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Does your heart burn with a flame hot enough to forge a true BLADE?"

Answer

Assure: Squint your eyes and nod grimly.

Insist: Tell him he has no right to question your heart.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"It's what some Eastern cultures used to call teachers and wise men back on Earth."

Answer

Press: Ask Bozé to tell you more about these Eastern cultures.

Move on: Ignore Bozé's prattle and direct him back to the mission.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THE MAD MONK

Search for the missing BLADEs with Bozé.

1

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S VITRIOL CESSPOOL.

Your path will take you over several hills until you reach a cave. Use the Follow Ball to ensure an efficient journey.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO JEJEBBA IN NOCTILUM'S VITRIOL CESSPOOL.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Come. Let us tarry with this degenerate beast no longer."

Answer

Follow: Ignore the wounded Ma-non and move on.

Demand: Insist that you stay and help the Jejaba.

To heal the Ma-non, you need to find muneria flowers. Consult the Collectibles section in the Data chapter for their whereabouts. Unlock 90% of the dialogue choices in the game, your choice here affects the story and character dialogue later on.

You might notice that Bozé appears to be[un]easy around xenoforms. However, making choices that are benevolent towards xenoforms in this and his other affinity missions may cause a shift in his attitude. Try helping the Ma-Non here, and see where it gets you later on!

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO THE SURVIVORS IN NOCTILUM'S VITRIOL CESSPOOL.

Q&A TIME!

Reggie

"Huh? Are you... Did you come here to save me?"

Answer

Assure: Tell him it's all going to be okay.

Insist: Demand a status report on the double.

Head farther into the cavern, minding the poison waters—get out of them as soon as you can so you can heal any damage they do.

There are also indigens who can be up to twice your party's level lurking around—and some will attack on sight! Move past their point of view. Eventually you'll find a BLADE survivor: Reggie.

4

DEFEND THE VITRIOL CESSPOOL FROM ATTACK FOR TWO MINUTES.

You'll first be set upon by infinitely spawning blattas, whose levels are in the low teens. While not powerful, they can hurt in numbers if you let them get a stray shot in. Protect your lower-level party members

Once the blattas are done, forfexes are next. They'll still be below your party's level, but strength is still in numbers and these guys hit harder! Continue using standard tactics, but as you pummel them. You have to survive for two minutes. Area-of-effect Arts work rather well here.

consider concentrating fire on single targets for this one. After two more minutes of this, you're done!

5

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO REGGIE IN NOCTILUM'S VITRIOL CESSPOOL.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Wouldn't you agree?"

Answer

Scoff: Say that a coward like Reggie endangers everyone.

Encourage: Tell Reggie that he will regret quitting for the rest of his days.

6

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA IN THE BLADE CONCOURSE.

Q&A TIME!

Eleonora

"They usually get a little overwhelmed from all the lectures."

Answer

Downplay: Claim that you have learned much from Bozé.

Brag: Assure Eleonora that you are not like other BLADEs.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"You can carry this weight, son!"

Answer

Intercede: Prevent Bozé from hitting Reggie.

Watch: Look on as Bozé reprimands Reggie.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"I can make you one of the true BLADE elites!... Well? What say you?"

Answer

Accept: Offer yourself to Bozé as his pupil.

Decline: Turn Bozé down in no uncertain terms.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Still, he's got a heart like a gong, that one. Strike it firm, and it rings true."

Answer

Stare: Admit that you do not understand Bozé at all.

Admire: Claim that Bozé's lesson was quite informative.

Answer

Grin: Tell him he'd better know a good place.

Frown: Tell Doug you'd really prefer cash.

Use the mini-map and Follow Ball to lead you to three mysterious flowers, which act as data.

Once you investigate all the sites, you find out that Doug is in battle, but he's holding, and the mission comes first.

2

OBJECTIVE

COLLECT THE FOURTH PIECE OF DATA AT NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

The last signal is in Qing Long Glade, and it looks like all of these flowers are drawing indigens! Defend yourselves!

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT FIVE ARROW GERMIVORES IN NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

ARROW GERMIVORE X5

LV. 14-16

Start with the lower-level germivores, then move to the highest. Have your team concentrate their fire until all are destroyed.

Beat the small fry, and then the big boss joins the fray, backed up by even more germivores! Doug runs in and helps out, making the fight four-on-five.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT FIVE ARROW GERMIVORES IN NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

» DEFEAT THE ARROW CINICULA IN NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

ARROW CINICULA

LV. 18

Get the germivores out the way absolutely as fast as possible, in the same manner as the previous fight—you don't want them screwing up your big hits on the cinicula. Bust out your area-of-effect attacks, as the germivores like to bunch up.

Once you've taken care of them, attack the cinicula from anywhere but the front. Go for its legs and Topple whenever possible. The cinicula is very slow but it packs a wallop. This can be a long fight even if you're several levels above the cinicula, but consistency in your tactics will lead to victory.

2

OBJECTIVE

MEET MATHIAS AT THE INTEGRATED PRODUCTION PLANT IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

3

OBJECTIVE

FOLLOW MATHIAS TO PRIMORDIA'S CLIFFSIDE BEACH.

4

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT A SHALLOWS GREX AT PRIMORDIA'S CLIFFSIDE BEACH.

SHALLOWS GREX

LV. 20

A single grex, even medium-sized and at level 20, should be a small matter for your party at your current level. Use whatever attacks you wish to.

5

OBJECTIVE

GATHER THREE UNITS OF KIRAN CATNIP IN PRIMORDIA.

Refer to the Collectibles section of the Data chapter for places where the catnip can be found.

6

OBJECTIVE

GIVE THE KIRAN CATNIP TO MATHIAS AT PRIMORDIA'S CLIFFSIDE BEACH.

7

OBJECTIVE

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

You're now placed alongside Hope Alenzi, one of New LA's best and most respected Mediators. However, a Nopon named Lularita comes to Hope asking for help with a combat matter, which Mediators aren't very equipped for. This puts Hope in a bind. Help her jump into the fray!

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"I apologize for the wait. Now then, how can I help you today?"

Answer

Query: Ask Hope what she does, exactly.
Confess: Tell Hope you are struggling to find 10 natural pearls.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Er, what about you? Do know anything about this?"

Answer

Suggest: Say that the world must be made safe before thinking about bringing children into it.
Lecture: Say that bringing children into a world like this is selfish and wrong.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"I'm so, so sorry, but this is something I just can't handle alone..."

Answer

Assist: Offer to assist Hope with the problem.
Watch: Wait and see what happens.

Bide Your Time

While it is possible to start this mission as early as Chapter 4, it's not recommended. This mission requires that you travel to Cauldros, so it's best to wait until you have a Skell, have already been to Cauldros, or are a higher level.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

Head to Cauldros with Hope and save the Nopon caravan there.

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO LULARITA AT CAULDROS'S DRONGO CARAVAN.

Q&A TIME!

Lularita

"Pollen orbs stolen! Lularita injured! This is worst day ever!"

Answer

Worry: Ask Lularita if she is all right.

Dismiss: Tell Lularita that she looks fine.

Q&A TIME!

Lularita

"Whatever they are, I'm sure you can handle them. Right?"

Answer

Agree: Tell Hope that you have everything under control.

Disagree: Tell Hope that she needs to pull her weight on this mission.

2

DEFEAT FIVE MOLD CARO AT THE SCHOLES BATTLEFIELDS.

The mold caro are actually laughably easy, with levels in the teens. You should have no problem dispatching them, but watch out for the much higher level indigens and mechs in the vicinity.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO LULARITA AT CAULDROS'S DRONGO CARAVAN.

Q&A TIME!

Lularita

"Five stars for you! Would use again!"

Answer

Grumble: Say that you deserve at least some thanks, if not payment.

Accept: Tell Lularita you're happy to help anytime.

4

OBJECTIVE

REPORT TO ORNELLA IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Ornella

"Anyway some regulars dropped off a thank-you gift, so you might as well take it."

Answer

Accept: Tell Ornella that it is very kind of her.

Decline: Tell Ornella that you can't accept it.

Q&A TIME!

Ornella

"Anyway, maybe consider it? You seem to be a good influence on her."

Answer

Accept: Say that you'd love to have Hope help out now and then.

Query: Ask Hope what will happen with all the people coming to see her.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

It's Vandham time, and he's got a mission for... Tatsu? It's time for the little guy's ambassador powers to come into play. BLADE wants Tatsu to forge an alliance treaty with the Nopon race.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: BFFS

Convince the Nopon to sign a friendship treaty that welcomes them to New LA.

1

COMPLETE BOTH OBJECTIVES:

- » DODONGA CARAVAN: GET THE DODONGA CARAVAN ELDER TO SIGN THE NOPON FRIENDSHIP TREATY.
- » DORIAN CARAVAN: GET THE DORIAN CARAVAN ELDER TO SIGN THE NOPON FRIENDSHIP TREATY.

We'll cover each mission in order.

DODONGA MISSION OBJECTIVE

1

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S DODONGA CARAVAN.

The Dodonga Caravan is in the Whale's Nostril cave; use the Follow Ball to get there easily.

2

SEARCH FOR KOKO NEAR NOCTILUM'S CASCADE ISLE.

3

DEFEAT AN AGILE CAECUS NEAR NOCTILUM'S CASCADE ISLE.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"The Nopon could make a crucial strategic ally."

Answer

Assume: Say it's because they're a powerful economic force.

Guess: Say it's because they're SOOOO cute!

AGILE CAECUS

LV. 25

This enemy lives up to its name—it attacks quickly! However, it also tends to stay in one place and challenges you alone, so you hold the damage and maneuverability advantage.

DODONGA MISSION OBJECTIVE

- 4 TALK TO KOKO NEAR NOCTILUM'S CASCADE ISLE.

Q&A TIME!

Kaka

Answer

"Now be good Tatsu and help Mamapon carry it home."

Nod: Note that mothers are nothing to mess with.

Drool: Admire how tasty the indigen looks.

DORIAN MISSION OBJECTIVE

- 1 HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S DORIAN CARAVAN.

If you're still on foot, then you have to do a lot of northern walking and some swimming to get to the Dorian Caravan. Take the easternmost path through East Ibra Ravine. Eventually you find the caravan itself on a small island.

Mujiji, the economical caravan leader, will only sign the treaty after a show of goodwill, to the tune of 30,000 credits.

Q&A TIME!

Mujiji

Answer

"Hmmm. Mujiji settle for...THIS MUCH!"

Decline: Exclaim that 30,000 credits is way too much.

Comment: Say you expected no less from a race of merchants.

DORIAN MISSION OBJECTIVE

- 2 PAY MUJIFI 30,000 CREDITS.

If you don't have the amount, then this is a good time to manage your FrontierNav data probes for maximum credit output. Wait for their yield, then give over the dough and you get your treaty. Simple as that.

2 OBJECTIVE REPORT BACK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT THE BLADE BARRACKS.

After a cutscene the mission's over. You receive access to the Nopon Commerce Guild's R&D department at the Armory for your trouble. The Nopon also migrate into New LA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Start this mission and you find a woman Irina has a real problem with. She goes by only "The Murderess," and right from the start Irina is all ready to tell you how much bad news she is. Something about being shot in the back.

Right off the bat, however, she takes a shine to you and decides to join you on an op. Surely, the power of friendship can prove Irina wrong?

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Especially considering the intriguing new friend you have there."

Answer

Greet: Tell the Murderess that it is very nice to meet her.

Flatter: Tell the Murderess that she is both observant AND beautiful.

Downplay: Tell the Murderess that you are nothing special.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Terribly glad to be TEAMMATES AGAIN! Riight?"

Answer

Accept: Say that Irina should give her a try.

Decline: Turn down the Murderess.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: MY DREAM

You took on a new job with Irina's acquaintance, the Murderess. And with a name like that, what could possibly go wrong?

1

INVESTIGATE THE WHITE WHALE DEBRIS IN NOCTILUM'S MIDDLE HUSHFLOOD.

Upon arrival, go ahead and investigate the clearly marked debris—and then prepare to be punished for your naïveté.

Q&A TIME!

Irina

"Are you kidding me?"

Answer

Question: Ask the Murderess if she's betraying you.

Trust: Check if there's an indigen behind you.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Now! Since we're all acquainted, you have a choice to make. Give up your claim to the reward money...or we break your knees."

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: A FALSE HOPE

Multiple BLADE members are missing, and the victims all seem to be associated with Hope somehow. Work with her to unravel the mystery.

1

OBJECTIVE

GATHER INTEL ON THE DISAPPEARANCES FROM THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

The information you're looking for is located on the southeast corner of the yellow radius given on your mini-map, in the Commercial District.

2

OBJECTIVE

ASK ADA IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT FOR INFORMATION.

Ada is in the hangar, near the big elevator to the Administration District.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"This is so strange... what's going on?"

Answer

Probe: Ask Ada for more information about the meeting.

Assume: Tell Hope that someone must be impersonating her.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"I won't have you risking yourself like that, Ada!"

Answer

Accept aid: Tell Hope she should take Ada up on her offer.

Decline aid: Tell Ada it's too dangerous to use her as bait.

Answer

"My buddy and me would even sneak off-base and moonlight as bouncers in seedy bars."

Agree: Join in on Yelv's plan.
Inquire: Ask about Yelv's army days.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: ARMS AND THE MAN

It seems that Yelv is a bit bored with his current missions. Listen to local gossip and find something interesting for him to do.

1

OBJECTIVE

EAVESDROP IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT AND LOOK FOR SOME INTERESTING WORK.

The info you're looking for is in the southwestern area of the yellow radius given on the mini-map, in the Commercial District.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE SUNSHINE CAFÉ IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

Answer

"I'm sold, pard!
Sold hard!"

Urge: Ask Yelv what he is waiting for.
Resist: Wonder aloud if there are more pressing missions.

3

LOOK FOR THE WASHED-UP WRECKAGE ON OBLIVIA'S GREAT WASHINGTON ISLE.

You're headed to the southeast island off the coast of Oblivia. It's easy to get there, especially if you have a Skell on hand. Once there, you run into trouble.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

Answer

"What do you figure their kind even makes of the old ship, huh?"

Observe: Say that it is just a place for them to hole up for the night.
Speculate: Wonder if they collect the wreckage as treasure.

4

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THREE UNYIELDING FORFEXES ON OBLIVIA'S GREAT WASHINGTON ISLE.

UNYIELDING FORFEX X3

LV. 28

Forfexes aren't tough, or smart, but they are bigger than you if you're fighting on foot, and they have tough hides that can give Skells a hard time. Flank and concentrate your fire on one at a time, emphasizing damage-dealing Arts. You want to value speedy kills here more than anything.

5

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE WRECKAGE ON OBLIVIA'S GREAT WASHINGTON ISLE.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"I knew it! He's out there! He's alive!"

Answer

Stare: Tell Yelv that you do not understand what he is saying.

Soothe: Suggest that Yelv calms down.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"It's about my best friend, so let's keep it between us, yeah?"

Answer

Agree: Promise Yelv that you will not tell a soul.

Offer: Tell Yelv that he can wait if he prefers to.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Even gave his mimeosome the same cross-shaped scar he had."

Answer

Inquire: Ask Yelv what his friend was like.

Caution: Tell Yelv that his friend is likely dead.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Guess I can't help thinking about him when I see you. Can't help talking, either."

Answer

Inquire: Ask how you fit in with all this.

Speculate: Ask if there is some kind of physical resemblance.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

This is simultaneously one of the easiest and hardest missions in the game. The Director General has a special mission for Team Elma—one that requires tactics and espionage—but not much action. Two out of three isn't bad? This affinity mission is a requirement for Chapter 9.

Q&A TIME!

Maurice

"But it makes gathering intel nearly impossible."

Answer

Question: Ask what kind of intel he's looking for.

Argue: Claim that lives are more important than intel.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: SPY GAMES

Gather information on the Ganglion by infiltrating their fortress. As it is advisable to avoid conflict, you should choose a route with few enemies.

1

OBJECTIVE

RETURN TO THE BLADE BARRACKS
AND PREPARE.

Head to the barracks and you are confronted by Nagi, who gives you his own briefing—and a suggested point of infiltration—before letting you move out.

2

OBJECTIVE

INFILTRATE OBLIVIA'S JAIR FORTRESS AND OBTAIN INFORMATION.

Jair Fortress will be dangerous for players taking this mission on; the forces there are level 50 or higher! Don't be afraid to fast-travel back to the top of the fortress if you think you might get discovered.

From the top of the fast-travel point, turn south and drop to the level below. From there, continue south across a relatively quiet plain, then west until you get to a structure. The Follow Ball can and will actually plot a good path for you once you're on this plain.

Once inside, Lin works her hacking mojo, and you are attacked.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THREE MARNUCKS.

MARNUCK X3

LV. 30

The good news is that these Marnucks aren't level 50. They are, however, level 30, meaning you've got your work cut out for you. Still, you can handle them like any other Ganglion troopers. Hit them hard at the back and sides, and concentrate fire if you want to whittle their firepower easily.

4

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO DIRECTOR GENERAL CHAUSSON INSIDE BLADE TOWER.

Save yourself the grief of escaping the fortress on foot, and just fast-travel back.

5

OBJECTIVE

FIND PFLEFFEN IN THE STARBOARD SIDE OF THE MA-NON SHIP AND HAVE HIM ANALYZE THE DATA.

6

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO DIRECTOR GENERAL CHAUSSON INSIDE BLADE TOWER.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"He sent his son on a mission just before the White Whale took off."

Answer

Consider: Wonder aloud why he would do something like that.

Inquire: Ask about the promise Bozé made.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

A frantic Reggie runs up to Bozé to tell him that Clarissa, another of Bozé's students, has gone MIA. After some words of wisdom and a quick briefing, Bozé asks for your help.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: BOZÉ'S WAY

One of Bozé's students is missing in Noctilum. Work with Bozé to find her.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

Look for the wrecked Skell in the midst of the glade.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Any idea where Clarissa and her crew could be?"

Answer

Shake head: Claim that you have no idea.

Deduce: Say that this looks like the Ganglion's work.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S ENSCONCED CITADEL.

3

HEAD INSIDE THE ENSCONCED CITADEL.

This is much easier if you have a flying Skell. Simply make your way to the top of the tower where Clarissa is being held. Otherwise, you have to run up the middle, which involves dealing with a level 28 tyrant and some Prone soldiers. If your party is only around level 30, this may be a close fight.

Q&A TIME!

Zealot Glennar

"Funny Earth aliens stronger than expected!"

Answer

Demand: Insist that the Prone release Clarissa as promised.

Taunt: Mock the Prone in order to draw their attention to you.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT TWO PRONE FIGHTERS IN NOCTILUM'S ENSCONCED CITADEL.

PRONE FIGHTER X2

LV. 28

If you ran up the middle and through the tower, then this fight should prove no problem. Handle these Prone the same way you fought when you came in. If you have a flying Skell, then this fight will be even less of a problem. Smack them until they die.

ZEALOT GLENNAR

LV. 29

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"What purpose do I serve if I can't keep a single promise?"

Answer

Inquire: Ask Bozé about the promise he made to his students.

Comfort: Remind Bozé that he has another student right here.

5

INVESTIGATE CLARISSA'S CORPSE AT NOCTILUM'S ENSCONCED CITADEL.

Bozé

"He made the cut at the last minute, but only just."

Answer

Encourage: Comfort the saddened Bozé.

Lecture: Tell Bozé to stop hiding behind his memories.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"I need her soul to find the peace it never had here on Mira."

Inquire about Solan: Ask whether Solan and Phog are brothers.

Inquire about Frye: Ask Phog if Frye is his brother.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"It's... a bit of a long story. Do you mind listening?"

Answer

Accept: Say that you're all ears.

Decline: Tell Phog that you're too busy for soliloquies.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"Frye couldn't see how someone with his experience and rank could be denied—and he raised holy hell about it."

Answer

Nod: Say that Frye must have really loved their father.

Scoff: Mock Frye for his daddy issues.

Query: Ask why their father wasn't selected for the Earthlife Colonization Project.

Q&A TIME!

FIND THE NOPON AT ISHMAEL HILLS IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"Yes, all true I'm afraid. My partner here will attest to it."

Answer

Confirm: Say that it's all true and more.

Deny: Laugh at their absurd claims.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"Well, I and my new assistant here. Isn't that right?"

Answer

Wonder: Ask H.B. if he's really going to steal a Harrier job.

Agree: Nod grimly and prepare for battle.

2

TALK TO THE NOPON AT NOCTILUM'S LOTUS KEEP BUILDING SITE.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"I'll not permit another fragile life to be snuffed out by this...monster!"

Answer

Agree: Tell H.B. that you're just as angry as he is.

Query: Ask H.B. why he's becoming so emotional.

3

HEAD TO THE BLOOD-KING'S CAMP AT NOCTILUM'S SAPPHIRE TABLE.

If you have not surveyed 30% of Noctilum yet, then the second objective begins with talking to Eleonora. You are then tasked with reaching 30% surveyance of Noctilum, then talking with Eleonora once more before talking to the Nopon at Lotus Keep.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT BLOOD-KING GELVO BANTH AT NOCTILUM'S SAPPHIRE TABLE.
- » DEFEAT THE PRONE BOXES AT NOCTILUM'S SAPPHIRE TABLE.
- » DEFEAT THE PRONE HEARTHKEEPERS AT NOCTILUM'S SAPPHIRE TABLE.

PRONE BOX X2

LV. 30

PRONE HEARTHKEEPER X2

LV. 34

BLOOD-KING GELVO BANTH

LV. 40

The blood-king is a whopping eight levels above this mission's price of admission, and his posse is pretty tough, too, plus they outnumber you. If you're in Skells, you'll be all right. If not, you're going to have to resort to hit-and-run tactics and lots of buffs and debuffs. Concentrating fire on the boxes and hearthkeepers is a must, then go for the blood-king himself. Debuff, Topple, or use Overdrive whenever possible!

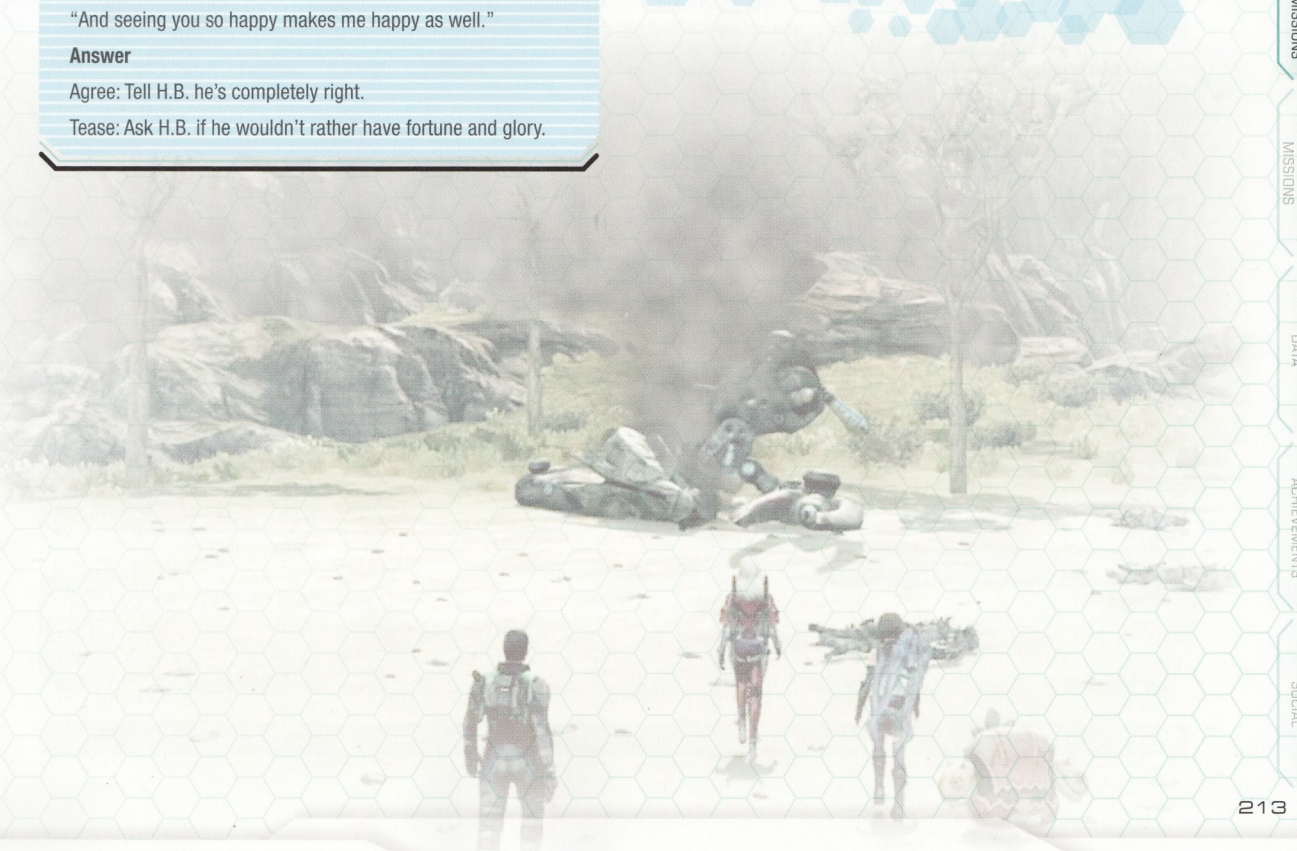

5
OBJECTIVE
REPORT TO PULALA IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT.
Q&A TIME!
H.B.

"And seeing you so happy makes me happy as well."

Answer

Agree: Tell H.B. he's completely right.

Tease: Ask H.B. if he wouldn't rather have fortune and glory.

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 33.

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.

» OBTAIN A SKELL LICENSE.

» ACCEPT THE "FLIGHT MODULE" BASIC MISSION FROM THE MISSION BOARD.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

This mission is one of the biggies, and it's highly beneficial to complete it ASAP. This gives you the flight module for your Skells—once you have it, there's almost nowhere you can't go on Mira.

That said, such power requires a test of worthiness: You'll have to take on this entire mission by yourself if you want the goods.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"But that's all a perfectly natural part of the R&D process! Right?"

Answer

Agree: Say that such things are an acceptable price to pay for science.

Disagree: Say that no project is worth such risk.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"Sorry to surprise you with this, but can you go salvage those materials?"

Answer

Accept: Say that you'll handle it.

Decline: Tell Commander Vandham that you're no good at gathering missions.

TATSU'S TIPS: HELP IN ADVANCE

Take a look at this mission's objectives before starting it. You can go out with your full party and do your fighting and gathering so that when you do start the mission, what's left will be child's play!

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A GIRL'S WINGS

The Skell flight module has failed in testing a few too many times. See if you can help it get through development.

- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 8.
- » COMPLETE THE "A GREAT DIVIDE" AFFINITY MISSION.

- » COMPLETE THE "A FOGGY DILEMMA" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » COMPLETE THE "BOTTOMS UP" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: PHOG AND FRYE.

PHOG OR FRYE?

This mission has two completely different battle scenarios, depending on whom you choose to accompany at the mission's start. Thus, choosing to defend with Phog is covered first, then choosing to strike out with Frye.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

NLA has acquired intelligence that the Ganglion are about to try an attack on the city. Defend the city!

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BLITZKRIEG (PHOG)

A large-scale military maneuver is about to begin. Together with Phog, you'll be defending New LA.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"Stay safe, Frye."

Answer

Query: Ask Phog if he is worried about the mission.

Sympathize: Tell Phog you're sorry he and Frye still are not on good terms.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO WALTER ON THE EAST GATE PLAIN IN PRIMORDIA AND BEGIN THE DEFENSE.

Q&A TIME!

Walter

"So, then, all ready to begin?"

Answer

Affirm: Say that you were born ready.

Shake Head: Indicate that you need time to prepare.

2

HOLD OFF THE ENEMY ONSLAUGHT ON THE EAST GATE PLAIN IN PRIMORDIA FOR THREE MINUTES.

You fight groups of Marnuck grunts that will be below your level no matter what. Dispatch them however you see fit, but beware their larger numbers as you do so.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"I'm thankful for all the work we've done together."

Answer

Downplay: Tell Phog that he got where he is through his own efforts.

Brag: Remind Phog how awesome your advice is.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO PRIMORDIA'S BEDROCK HOLD AND RESCUE FRYE.

4

HOLD OFF THE ENEMY ONSLAUGHT AT PRIMORDIA'S BEDROCK HOLD FOR FIVE MINUTES.

If at all possible, bring your Skells. They mean the difference between an easy time or a somewhat tough fight. You fight the same Marnuck mooks as before, but this time they have a huge Galdr unit with them as well as a couple of Qmoevas, and you have to hold out for five minutes instead of three.

Skells can utterly rock this battlefield. However, if you're on the ground, order your party members to concentrate fire on everyone they come across.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

"Guess I should thank you, too."

Answer

Nod: Say that you just did what any friend would do.

Mooch: Tell Frye that he can pay you back with drinks.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BLITZKRIEG (FRYE)

A large-scale military maneuver is about to begin. Together with Frye, you launch an assault on Primordia's Bedrock Hold.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

Answer

"You've gone on missions with Phog before, right? How, uh...how was he?"

Praise: Tell Frye that Phog performed excellently.
 Chuckle: Tell Frye that Phog is...unique, but that it is part of his charm.
 Criticize: Bluntly tell Frye that Phog was difficult to work with.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"I never have any clue what he's thinking."

Answer

Argue: Tell Frye what Phog told you about their father.

Listen: Hear Frye out.

1

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT THE MENACING MARNUCK IN PRIMORDIA'S BEDROCK HOLD.
- » DEFEAT THE MARNUCK GUNNER IN PRIMORDIA'S BEDROCK HOLD.
- » DEFEAT THE GUARD QMOEVA IN PRIMORDIA'S BEDROCK HOLD.

MENACING MARNUCK

LV. 34

MARNUCK GUNNER

LV. 35

GUARD QMOEVA

LV. 36

This is one of those missions that's laughably easy with Skells and rather hard without. So get some Skells, roll over to the fortress, eyeball the Qmoeva, then destroy it and the two grunts beside it.

Air support with levels in the 40s may show up while you're dispatching your quarry, but they're not required hunting, so if you're afraid for your Skells, either concentrate and take them out quickly before going for your real targets, or simply make sure the job is done, then run like heck.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"You ready to party?"

Answer

Accept: Tell Frye that you're up for anything.

Decline: Say that you're worried about the others.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE EAST GATE PLAIN IN PRIMORDIA AND RESCUE PHOG.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"You ready? We're not letting this city fall!"

Answer

Nod: Confirm that you're ready to go.

Shake your head: Say that you need time to prepare.

3

OBJECTIVE

HOLD OFF THE ENEMY ONSLAUGHT ON THE EAST GATE PLAIN IN PRIMORDIA FOR THREE MINUTES.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

"You're coming too, right?"

Answer

Accept: Say that you wouldn't miss it.

Decline: Give the brothers some time to catch up.

Arts Learned: Crisis Zone (Dual Sword), Bullet Twister (Gatling Gun)

Once again, Skells make an absolute world of difference. You're fighting massive Galdrs along with Marnuck mooks. They come two at a time, so concentrate fire on individual enemies, especially if you're on the ground.

Hold out for three minutes and you're in the clear.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Vandham says he's got a mission that's right up your alley—something dangerous. Dagahn and Ryyz have been spotted in Noctilum. It's up to Team Elma to check it out. This affinity mission is a requirement for Chapter 10.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: MANHUNT

There have been reports that the pair who raided New LA have been sighted in Noctilum. Go there and investigate.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE TO INVESTIGATE.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"It's strange... a campfire doesn't strike me as their style..."

Answer

Advise: Suggest you take a look around.

Caution: Warn the others that you heard something.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"What do you think?"

Answer

Agree: Go with Lin's plan and shake them down for intel.

Disagree: Keep searching instead.

Please note, choosing to "Keep searching instead" bypasses the next listed objective.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK SOLDIER AT NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK SOLDIER AT NOCTILUM'S QING LONG GLADE.

The Marnucks are below your party's level and can be taken on like any other troopers. Go ahead and defeat them so you can interrogate them, then continue your search.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S SHARK'S JAWS.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK COMMANDER AT NOCTILUM'S SHARK'S JAWS.

» DEFEAT THE MARNUCK SOLDIERS AT NOCTILUM'S SHARK'S JAWS.

MARNUCK SOLDIER X5

LV. 21-30

MARNUCK COMMANDER

LV. 31-40

The numbers make this battle much tougher if you're on foot. If you feel comfortable with being able to take out the commander in a timely fashion, then concentrate your fire on him. Otherwise, take out the soldiers first, as quickly as possible, by taking each one on four-on-one. As in most fights, lowering numbers and heavy hits are the most important priorities.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Well, either way, it's not safe here."

Answer

Worry: Express concern for the two of them.
Interrogate: Demand to know their background.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Rumors have surfaced of infighting between Ganglion factions. Can BLADE take advantage of this while also expanding its sphere of influence?

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: PROSPECTIVE PARTNERS

Chausson has decided to expand his investigation of the Ganglion to include all of the Miran land masses.

1

OBJECTIVE

EXPLORE 20 PERCENT OF MIRA.

2

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO DIRECTOR GENERAL CHAUSSON INSIDE BLADE TOWER.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Wrothian? Tatsu hear that name someplace before..."

Answer

Remember: Recall that those were the lion-esque people.

Admire: Describe them as a proud and fierce people.

Grumble: Claim they're all a bunch of conniving furballs.

Q&A TIME!

Chausson

"And on less than amicable terms."

Answer

Propose: Suggest forming an alliance.

Assert: Claim this is your chance to wipe the Wrothians out for good.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE BATTLEGROUND AT NOCTILUM'S MIDDLE HUSHFLOOD AND GATHER INFORMATION.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"I can't wait to get this stuff home and analyze it!"

Answer

Warn: Say that Chausson might have his own motives.

Query: Ask Elma if she knows more than she's saying.

4

GATHER PARTS FROM WROTHIAN SKELLS.

You need three parts, and they're all clearly labeled around the area. Run around and examine every part you can until you hit the next cutscene. Be mindful of any indigens in the area.

Note that while you only need three parts, if you grab all the parts, Chausson acknowledges your thoroughness upon your return. This doesn't affect the gameplay—it's just nice.

5

OBJECTIVE

REPORT BACK TO DIRECTOR GENERAL CHAUSSON INSIDE BLADE TOWER.

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 36.

» AFFINITY: ALEXA (2 HEARTS).

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.

» COMPLETE THE "WEAPONIZED" AFFINITY MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: ALEXA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Alexa's been having trouble with her Outfitter duties, and she's beating herself up over it. However, the situation might not be as simple as it initially seems...

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"It's so depressing..."

Answer

Query: Ask Alexa what happened.

Comfort: Tell Alexa that no matter what happened, she'll get through it.

Guess: Ask Alexa if she trashed a Skell.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Honestly, I'm bummed."

Answer

Assert: Assure Alexa that the explosion was not her fault.

Encourage: Tell Alexa that she will just have to knock it out of the park next time.

Challenge: Ask Alexa if she is really going to let one mistake crush her spirit.

NEW HEART-TO-HEART MISSION: WHAT THE SKELL?!

Alexa is feeling down after the failed weapon test. Help cheer her up.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO CAMBER AT THE HANGAR IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Mika

"So thanks for the vacation. ...Really."

Answer

Suggest: Tell them to just do their missions with ground gear.

Protest: Say that they can't blame Alexa for a parts shortage.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» GET FIVE STANDARD BLADE MODULES FROM FLEET SHRADS OR OTHERS IN CAULDROS.

» GATHER SIX PAN-ANALYSIS CHIPS IN CAULDROS.

You can find swift shrads on Adder Byroad in Cauldros, which will give up the modules. Refer to the Collectibles section of the Data chapter for the chips.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO CAMBER AT THE HANGAR IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO TIKA AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

5

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THREE CANYON CANTORS IN SYLVALUM WITH THE SPARKJET RIFLE AT NIGHT.

» DEFEAT RODRIGUEZ, THE TWIN-TUSKED, IN CAULDROS WITH THE SPARKJET RIFLE.

RODRIGUEZ, THE TWIN-TUSKED

LV. 35

The beasts you're after are big and pack a punch, but are also very susceptible to debuffs and Toppie, so abuse them whenever you can. Meanwhile, Rodriguez is a tyrant, so you'll have to be on your guard.

6

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO TIKA AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Tika

"Is there anyone who'd want to see you get hurt?"

Answer

Dismiss: Say that everyone loves Alexa.

Agree: Say that someone is clearly gunning for her.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Ohmigosh. I have a STALKER? Seriously?"

Answer

Suggest: Say that you should ask around to see if anyone saw anything.

Joke: Say that it was you all along.

7

OBJECTIVE

LOOK FOR EYEWITNESS ACCOUNTS ALONG THE ROAD FROM THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT, THEN FIND THE CRIMINAL.

You find eyewitnesses talking about a fleeing female BLADE member at the entrance to the Outfitters Test Hangar and near the steps you encounter after crossing from the Industrial District to the Commercial District.

Meanwhile, the woman you're after is lurking below the Commercial District. Go down those same steps.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Help me out here. Why is she mad at me?"

Answer

Explain: Say that Mika thinks Alexa is trying to steal the man she loves.

Query: Ask Alexa if she really doesn't understand.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"C'mon, help me out here. This lady is crackers."

Answer

Censure: Tell Mika that this is all her fault.

Agree: Say that Alexa is right—Skells are more important than love.

Tease: Say that a woman who is nuts about Skells should not be calling anyone crackers.

BOZÉ'S IGNORANCE

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 37.

» AFFINITY: BOZÉ (4 HEARTS).

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.

» COMPLETE THE "PRONE SWEET PRONE" MISSION.

» COMPLETE THE "BOZÉ'S WAY" AFFINITY MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: BOZÉ LOWES.

Caution: Prepare for Harsh Conditions

The nature of this mission requires highly specialized preparation to ensure that it goes smoothly. Before you accept it, make sure you're thoroughly prepared.

Specifically, you want lava-proofing, as you'll be heading into a cavern where lava is exceedingly hard to avoid. Buy the Terrain Damage Reducer XX augment for all four members of your party.

This requires fighting grotto mortifoles at FN Site 221 in Noctilum for fluffy tufts and planting probes in Sylvalum so that you receive the marine rutile resource. See the Map Contents section of the Data chapter for more specifics.

Once you have enough of the requested materials, you can purchase the augment. Get four, equip them to any slot-bearing ground gear, and you're good to go! Let's get this party started. Caves like the Infernal Ledges don't allow Skell entry, so you won't be able to use your Skells here.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

We see Bozé getting ready to undertake a particularly dangerous Harrier mission.

Reggie

"Licking my wounds after getting pummeled by that same beast, sensei."

Answer

Chastise: Shout at Reggie for running away yet again.

Comfort: Tell Reggie to keep his chin up.

Q&A TIME!

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BOZÉ'S IGNORANCE

A number of Pathfinders have been attacked by a particularly aggressive indigen. Team up with Bozé to defeat it.

1

HEAD TO CAULDROS'S INFERNAL LEDGES AND TAKE DOWN THE INDIGEN KNOWN AS TRIGGER SCINTIMURE.

This is the overarching mission objective. However, more objectives come into play as you make your way into the Infernal Ledges.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Let's go hunt the monster we came for and reclaim the good name of the Harriers."

Answer

Aid: Insist that you help the Prone.

Agree: Ignore the Prone and move on.

Q&A TIME!

ST816: Stalio

"Bah! You've wasted my perfect performance AND my precious time!"

Answer

Interrogate: Ask the stranger who she is and what she wants.

Inquire: Ask what the hell just happened.

2

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT ST816: STALIO IN CAULDROS'S INFERNAL LEDGES

ST816: STALIO

LV. 44

Treat Stalio like any other Definian—dangerous and painful. Gang up on her with concentrated attacks and don't let up for a second. Armor strong against electrical attacks can help.

If you helped the Ma-non back in "The Mad Monk," you'll have to fight only Stalio here. If you did not help them, then you'll have to deal with multiple enemies alongside her later on.

3

DEFEAT THE TRIGGER SCINTIMURE IN CAULDROS'S INFERNAL LEDGES.

Now for the main event. Head farther into the cave and you'll find your quarry around pools of lava that are hard for your party to avoid. If you got those Terrain Damage Reducer XX augments, however, you won't feel a thing. You want a party that's around level 50 to take care of this indigen swiftly.

TRIGGER SCINTIMURE

LV. 46

There's a good chance you won't see half of this guy's attacks, as he spends the fight hovering above you. Try to stand on the rock and use whatever melee or ranged attacks will reach him. Have your party members do the same. As with the Definians, use debuffs and watch out for electrical attacks.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Bozé

"Well? What's your take on all this?"

Answer

Respect: Insist that you owe the Ma-non your lives.

Rage: Claim that your hatred of the Ganglion has only grown stronger.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

It looks like H.B. and Commander Vandham are once again at odds. Perhaps a friendly rival can help set things straight?

Q&A TIME!

Eleonora

"If he and the Commander don't lay this feud to rest, it's liable to explode!"

Answer

Inquire: Ask H.B. what is going on with him and Vandham.

Persuade: Tell H.B. that he has to meet Vandham halfway.

H.B.

"You can see that, can't you?"

Answer

Agree: Say that H.B. is one hundred percent correct.

Disagree: Tell H.B. that he needs to follow BLADE rules.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: CLIMBING THE LADDER

Work with H.B. to complete the task.

1

DEFEAT THREE SOLDIER INSIDIAS NEAR NOCTILUM'S FUKAI PASS.

This ends up being a matter of scale: If you're in Skells, the insidias will be much smaller than you and can be kicked around like soccer balls. If you're on foot, then they're a hair bigger than you, and you should team up on single targets while watching out for surrounding indigens. If you're ground-bound, try to be around level 40 as well.

2

LOOK AROUND NOCTILUM'S WEEPING WHITEWOOD.

You need to find the queen to cull the indigen growth. Look around the northeastern part of the yellow radius given on your mini-map until you find the white dot. Lara Nara is your actual objective.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"It's difficult, but...no. The mission must come first."

Answer

Query: Ask H.B. how he can abandon a fellow BLADE.

Inquire: Ask why H.B. is so eager to finish this mission.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"How can you ask that? I just want to keep everyone in New LA safe."

Answer

Confirm: Ask whether H.B. honestly believes he is trying to help others.

Accuse: Tell H.B. that he only cares about his own pride.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"I understand the commander's frustrations, but did I really deserve this?"

Answer

Confirm: Agree with H.B. that Vandham doesn't like him.

Deny: Tell H.B. that Vandham loves him.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE EMPRESS INSIDIA IN NOCTILUM'S WEEPING WHITEWOOD.

Go directly northeast to face down the empress insidia.

EMPRESS INSIDIA

LV. 45

Either get in your Skells or be in your mid-40s level-wise on the ground. This insidia can be handled like the ones earlier in the mission—it just hits harder and has a tougher hide.

4

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND REPORT.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"So the next time he says somethin' stupid, just give him a little punch, okay?"

Answer

Agree: Tell Vandham to leave it to you.

Disagree: Say that Vandham can do his own punching.

Q&A TIME!

H.B.

"If I might ask, who do you feel is the greater talent—the Commander or me?"

Answer

Say Vandham: Tell H.B. that Vandham is by far the superior talent.

Say H.B.: Tell H.B. that he is superior.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

L approaches Team Elma with a problem. His shop, while profitable, is in a bit of a creative rut. You know how it is.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: L'S CONUNDRUM

Gather new materials to help L expand his business.

1

OBJECTIVE

COMPLETE ALL THREE OBJECTIVES:

- » MATERIAL HUNT A: GATHER 10 UNITS OF CHAMELEON SAND IN OBLIVIA; GATHER 10 PIECES OF GLUTTONUTAN CLAY IN NOCTILUM.
- » MATERIAL HUNT B: USE FRONTIERNV TO LOCATE TWO PIECES OF BOILED-EGG ORE; FIND FIVE GUN SNAKES IN CAULDROS.
- » MATERIAL HUNT C: GET THREE MULTI-WIRES FROM THE SHRADS OF CAULDROS; FIND FOUR ABYSSAL CRICKETS IN CAULDROS.

For the collectibles, refer to the Collectibles section of the Data chapter of this guide, and refer to the section on FrontierNav in the Data chapter for the ore. Finally, you can fight shrads on the Adder Byroad in Cauldros for the multi-wires.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO L'S SHOP IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

You're approached by two customers looking for items to suit their situations. Whichever items you choose for them, the scenes here always play out the same. However, you can learn the outcomes of your choices by talking to these characters later on. Thomas is located outside the East Gate and Nelly is located near the Restricted Hangar Entrance in the area south of Doug's hangout.

After your short stint as L's special shop assistant, this mission's over!

TATSU'S TIPS: THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

Try to choose less obvious items than what would normally come to mind given the problems presented. Giving Thomas the honeysmoke and Nelly the high-temperature pot will actually have disastrous effects!

- COMPLETE CHAPTER 5.
- COMPLETE THE MISSION "WATER WOES".
- COMPLETE CHAPTER 6 AND EXPLORE 30% OF NOCTILUM.
- COMPLETE THE MISSION "RESCUE AT THE ENSCONCED CITADEL", "SUN'CELEG RISES" AND "LAKESIDE GETAWAY."
- COMPLETE CHAPTER 7.
- COMPLETE THE MISSIONS "THE JOURNEY BEGINS", "LIFE GOES ON" AND GOOD NEIGHBORS.
- COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.
- UPON COMPLETING THE ABOVE REQUIREMENTS, "HAYWIRE!" SHOULD BE ACCESSIBLE BY SEEING ROSIE AT THE BIAHNO WATER-PURIFICATION PLANT IN PRIMORDIA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

The Murderess has her sights on you once more for a "game" she plays with her friends. Do well enough and you might gain a little more insight into how she thinks.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Yup."

Answer

Query: Ask what they're dragging you into.

Resist: Assert that you won't do anything illegal.

Boast: Say that you'll do anything she wants and more.

Answer

Choose left: Pick the card on the left.

Choose middle: Pick the card in the middle.

Choose right: Pick the card on the right.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THE LITTLE RICH GIRL

You joined the Murderess and Yolanda on their hunt. Use an especially weak weapon to defeat an indigen.

1

ACHIEVE ANY OBJECTIVE:

- » DEFEAT A DISASTER VIGENT WITH THE SCRAP DUO IN PRIMORDIA.
- » TALK TO YOLANDA ON DIVISION DRIVE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND GIVE UP.

What's life without a little adventure? Go ahead and buy a piddly Scrap Duo from the shop terminal, then head out to hunt. Remember to switch to a class or change your lead character to one that is actually able to equip the Duo (Dual Swords).

DISASTER VIGENT

LV. 40

The vigent is large, hits hard, and can buff himself up and hit even harder. Counter this with as many debuffs and usages of Bind as possible. Or you could go the far easier route...

TATSU'S TIPS: CHEAT THE CHEATER!

The vigent's already tough without you having to fight it with a weapon that does barely any damage! However, here's a fun tip to beat Yolanda at her own underhanded game: Start the battle on foot and hit the Vigent with the Scrap Duo once. Once you've done that, get back into your Skell. The game will still count your win as having been accomplished with the Scrap Duo!

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO YOLANDA ON DIVISION DRIVE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Yolanda

"Fine again. The pot was 2,101 credits. Here you go."

Answer

Query: Ask the Murderess for your share of the pot.

Celebrate: Suggest moving the party over to the diner.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

4

OBJECTIVE

COMPLETE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» HACKERS: ACCESS THE CONSOLES IN THE GANGLION BASE IN EACH REGION TO OBTAIN THE DATA.

» SECURING LAN'CORD: ACCESS THE CONSOLES IN THE GANGLION BASES IN EACH REGION TO FIND LAN'CORD.

The two Ganglion bases which aren't Lakeview Stronghold (where the data is housed) contain Lan'cord's location instead. This includes Jair Fortress. If you exercise that option, be sure your party's levels are in the 50s.

Lakeview Stronghold in Noctillum contains the data you're looking for. There's less ground to cover in this stronghold but just as many enemies to deal with, if not more.

With all the pieces in place, go for Lan'cord, who is near Lake Basel in Oblivia.

Q&A TIME!

Lan'cord

"I'm shocked to see they've sent lesser life-forms like you humans."

Answer

Query: Ask Lan'cord why he didn't join the rest of his kind.

Thank: Say that you owe him for the water-purification plant.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Talking. Too much."

Answer

Stare: Stand in shocked amazement at the Murderess's actions.

Intervene: Remind the Murderess that BLADE needs him alive.

Argue: Say that you were hoping to beat Lan'cord into submission.

5

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Eleonora

"Wh-what? You're just kidding around, right Murderess?"

Answer

Tease: Say that the fat reward has made the Murderess giddy.

Explain: Tell Eleonora that the Orphe talked too much for the Murderess's taste.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"But I'm one step closer to my dream. So of course I'm happy."

Answer

Inquire: Ask the Murderess about her dream.

Pry: Ask the Murderess what credits have to do with her dream.

BOOT CAMP

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 41.

» AFFINITY: GWIN (1 HEART).

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 10.

» THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR MUST NOT BE IN USE.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

“Well, if you’re in a place like this...”

Answer

Deduce: Assume his problem is combat-related.

Speculate: Ask if he’s having lady trouble.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

For this mission, Gwin comes to you, Elma, and Lin for what amounts to a self-improvement session. Help him become a better soldier and a better BLADE. This affinity mission is a requirement for Chapter 11.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BOOT CAMP

Train with Gwin to help him get stronger.

1

OBJECTIVE

HAVE A PRACTICE BATTLE WITH GWIN IN THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR.

GWIN

LV. 40

Gwin can use all of the Arts that he’s received up to this point, but he’s a lower level than the rest of you and it’s a three-on-one battle. Handle him the same way you would handle a Ganglion trooper, and you’ll be fine.

Q&A TIME!

Gwin

"It's no use. My weapons just don't pack enough punch. I need better gear."

Answer

Agree: Tell him his little pea-shooter is useless.

Press: Ask if he really thinks it's the weapon's fault.

2

OBJECTIVE

PURCHASE A SOLDIER ASSAULT RIFLE AT THE SHOP.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO GWIN IN THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR.

Elma gives Gwin a low-level gun for training purposes. With this in mind, it's off to perform a few sub-missions.

4

OBJECTIVE

COMPLETE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» ELMA'S TASK A: DEFEAT TWO SILVER SUIDS USING A SOLDIER ASSAULT RIFLE IN PRIMORDIA.

» ELMA'S TASK B: DEFEAT TWO SILVER FEMINA SUIDS USING A SOLDIER ASSAULT RIFLE IN PRIMORDIA.

» ELMA'S TASK C: DEFEAT TWO TOUGH ARMORED SUIDS WITH A SOLDIER ASSAULT RIFLE IN PRIMORDIA.

Q&A TIME!

Gwin

"M-ma'am, yes, ma'am!"

Answer

Mutter: Comment about what a taskmaster Elma is.

Defend: Say that Elma was too harsh on Gwin.

All of the indigens Elma asks you to fight are below your level, and even though Gwin has a pea shooter with him, you're allowed to take the whole party, rendering power issues moot. If you have Skells, you can use them for this mission—just make sure Gwin fights on foot and uses ranged attacks. Be sure to equip Gwin with the recently purchased Soldier Assault Rifle if you haven't done so already. For the tough armored suids, use debuffs to lower physical resistance; otherwise, they can take a while.

5

OBJECTIVE

RETURN TO THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

After some training, Gwin wants a rematch. Oblige him.

6

OBJECTIVE

HAVE ANOTHER PRACTICE BATTLE WITH GWIN IN THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR.

GWIN

LV. 46

If you came into the hangar with your Skells, then you can actually use them on Gwin for minimum hassle (and maximum hilarity). Either way, Gwin fights exactly as he did before, except he is now six levels higher than he used to be. Don't let that extra power throw you off your game.

Q&A TIME!

Gwin

"I always envied that...and him. That's why I want to be just like him..."

Answer

Lecture: Tell Gwin that he must surpass Leon, not just admire him.
Provoke: Tell Gwin he'll never live up to Leon's standard.

(3 HEARTS).

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 10.

» COMPLETE THE "NAGI'S TIME" AFFINITY MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS:
ELMA, LIN, AND NAGI.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"This sounds serious."

Answer

Inquire: Ask about the Mediators.

Query: Ask where they were taken.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

A BLADE team has been captured. Defense Secretary Nagi decides to step in personally.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: REPORTING FOR DUTY

Orton's team has been taken by the Ganglion. Work with Secretary Nagi to save them.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO SYLVALUM'S HILAL STRONGHOLD.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO THE SURVIVORS INSIDE SYLVALUM'S HILAL STRONGHOLD.

Fight or fly your way to the building at the back of the stronghold and open the door at the ground floor. Then climb to the top to find the survivors.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"We lost her."

Answer

Avenge: Swear to avenge Marla, no matter the cost.

Promise: Vow to get Orton home safe.

3OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO SYLVALUM'S BADR STRONGHOLD AND RESCUE THE SURVIVORS.

Once again, fight or fly your way to the rear building on the right. You can enter from the top or bottom.

4OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » REPEL THE MARNUCK COMMANDER.
- » REPEL TWO MARNUCK SOLDIERS.

MARNUCK SOLDIER X2LV. 41*MARNUCK COMMANDER*LV. 48

For all of the fanfare accompanying it, this actually isn't much of a boss battle. Outside of the difference in levels, the commander can be treated exactly like his soldiers. Use standard flanking and fire-concentration techniques, and do your best not to have one character draw aggro on all three enemies (this goes double if Lin is in your party, which she likely is. Be cautious if she has the Trash Talk Art equipped!). Finally, don't let the Marnucks gain the high ground using the steps.

Q&A TIME!

Nagi

"Elma, you take point. Clear a path ahead."

Answer

Refuse: Say that you'll carry Orton.

Aid: Offer to take point.

5

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE MIMEOSOME MAINTENANCE CENTER IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

A CHALLENGER APPROACHES

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 10.

» COMPLETE "PROSPECTIVE PARTNERS".

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Chausson has decided to go forth with the plan to form an alliance with the Wrothians. However, they are a fierce and proud race who usually use fighting to solve even diplomatic disputes. In other words, bring your highest-level party members and most powerful Skills—you'll need them.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A CHALLENGER APPROACHES

Deliver the letter from Director General Chausson and join forces with the Wrothians.

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S WROTHIAN STRONGHOLD.

If you've placed a probe at FrontierNav Site 315 in Oblivia, fast-travel there to get right to the action and request an audience with Ga Jiarg.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Buidhe

"I would not have it happen again."

Answer

Persuade: Tell Ga Buidhe that it's very important you see the prince.

Gripe: Insist that Ga Buidhe let you see the prince at once.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Buidhe

"I care not for your opinion on this matter."

Answer

Press: Say that Ga Jiarg should decide for himself.

Beg: Plead with Ga Buidhe to let you through.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Buidhe

"Such is the Wrothian way!"

Answer

Accept: Take on Ga Buidhe's challenge.

Reject: Say you did not come to fight.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » DEFEAT GA BUIDHE.
- » DEFEAT ZO BORRI.
- » DEFEAT ZO FWOR.

ZO BORRI

LV. 44

ZO FWOR

LV. 44

GA BUIDHE

LV. 46

Diplomacy has...succeeded? Since the Wrothians are a warrior race, however, you still have to fight and fight hard. If you're not comparatively leveled, then go ahead and get in your Skells (this is a little easier if you lose the battle once) so you can do what damage you can.

Be sure to concentrate your four-on-one fire on Ga Buidhe's backup; they are similar to the Wrothians you fought in Chapter 9. Stay on your feet and move to advantageous positions whenever possible, because it's easy for them to run rings around you and get in a frontal attack.

The real problem, however, is Ga Buidhe, who has absolutely insane evasive abilities, especially if you're below her in levels. Make sure you're at least her level, and preferably a few levels above, if you want to have any hope of your attacks not whiffing. Ga Buidhe is also a speed demon and has lightning-fast flying kicks and projectile attacks at her disposal. She, too, fights like she did in Chapter 9, but she's powered up for this encounter.

In the end, use your best armor and debuffs, exercise liberal use of Overdrive, and don't be afraid to use the Skell flight module if you have one and snipe the Wrothians from afar to minimize damage.

Winning the battle gains you an audience with the prince, who asks for medicine in exchange for signing your treaty.

3

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ANY OBJECTIVE:

- » OBTAIN FIVE MED KITS FROM THE STORAGE SUPPLY ROOM IN SYLVALUM'S HILAL STRONGHOLD.
- » OBTAIN FIVE MED KITS FROM JEFFREY IN FRONT OF THE RESTRICTED HANGAR IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Ga Jiarg

"Mira is a harsh land. Should our survival mean your doom, it must be so."

Answer

Nod: Say you'll cross that bridge when you come to it.

Laugh: Tell Ga Jiarg you would relish the challenge.

Muse: Wonder if the alliance might last longer than Ga Jiarg thinks.

Q&A TIME!

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO GA JIARG IN OBLIVIA'S WROTHIAN STRONGHOLD.

You can get medicine from either location. If you go to NLA, Jeffrey will need 100,000 credits to give you his medicine. Whichever you choose, bring them back to Ga Jiarg to forge the alliance and have the Six Stars arms manufacturer added to Armory R&D.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Sensing that something might be wrong with Hope, Ada approaches you and Team Elma for assistance.

Q&A TIME!

Ada

"You know if anything's up? I'm worried about her."

Answer

Evade: Say that you have no clue what is bugging Hope.

Guess: Tell Ada that Hope must be mourning Ornella's death.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"It's made me scared to help anyone—and now I'm just paralyzed."

Answer

Encourage: Tell Hope that she is not a burden on anyone.

Suggest: Tell Hope that she is overcomplicating things.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Sorry, I...I was just thinking."

Answer

Worry: Tell Hope that she appears to be on the verge of tears.

Query: Ask Hope what is wrong.

Q&A TIME!

Ada

"Did you pick up on any ways we might be able to cheer her up?"

Answer

Divulge: Tell Ada everything.

Withhold: Keep Hope's words to yourself.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: A PRESENT FOR HOPE

Cheer up Hope by looking for information regarding her father's missing journal.

1

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » FIND THE FIRST PIECE OF INTEL ON THE CRASH IN THE UPPER LEVEL OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.
- » FIND THE SECOND PIECE OF INTEL ON THE CRASH IN THE UPPER LEVEL OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.
- » FIND THE THIRD PIECE OF INTEL ON THE CRASH IN THE UPPER LEVEL OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

The first piece of intel is directly in front of BLADE Tower. The second piece is along the right side of BLADE Tower. Finally, the third is directly next to Wolf at Mission Control.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ADA AT DELIVERANCE PARK IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Ada

"Forget the details and just party all night. Who!"

Answer

Lie: Tell Hope that it is a top-secret research project.

Evade: Tell Hope that you also cannot wait to party all night.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO QUENTIN ON EAST MELVILLE STREET IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Um...do you mean...me?"

Answer

Hush: Remind Quentin of the confidentiality of this mission.

Divert: Quickly ask Quentin how work is going, to change the topic.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO LULARITA AT CAULDROS'S MOUNT M'GANDO.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Is there something going on I should know about?"

Answer

Lie: Tell Hope that it's just a crazy chain of coincidences.

Hint: Say that whatever it is, Hope is going to like it.

5

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE WRECKAGE AT CAULDROS'S FORGOTTEN MINING FRIGATES.

The wreckage is located at one of Cauldros's high bridges. You can use your flying Skills to swat the indigen flying alongside it. There are also teleporter pads which will take you up to the mining frigates.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Was this why we came all the way out here? Why everyone was involved?"

Answer

Confirm: Tell Hope you did it to pay her back, and hand the journal over.

Gift: Yell "Surprise!" and give Hope a big smile.

6

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ADA AT DELIVERANCE PARK IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"How do I face Ada and the others when I can't trust them not to hurt me?"

Answer

Assure: Tell Hope that no one else is going to hurt her.

Force: Take Hope by the arm and lead her to Ada.

Q&A TIME!

Ada

"They need you, Hope. And so do I. So please don't ever doubt that again."

Answer

Praise: Tell Hope that she deserves this for all her hard work.

Query: Ask Hope whether this finally allays her doubts.

Q&A TIME!

Hope

"Oh, welcome back! You find that 'thing' yet?"

Answer

Confirm: Nod and give a thumbs-up.

Query: Ask Ada if there's a riot starting.

NEW IN NEW LA

Q&A TIME!

Chausson

"I do not appreciate your characterizing it as a threat."

Answer

Rebut: Ask what part of this is mutual.

Question: Ask why Rock has to fight.

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 44.

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 9.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: LIN, ELMA

» COMPLETE THE "MANHUNT" AFFINITY MISSION.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Celica and Rock have a problem—while both are welcome in New LA, Rock needs to prove himself useful to stay in the city—preferably by fighting the Ganglion. One problem with that, however: Rock is a pacifist. Celica decides to take matters into her own hands.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: NEW IN NEW LA

Celica came up with an idea on how she and Rock could better contribute to New LA, then went into the wilderness. Follow her and ensure that she is safe.

1

OBJECTIVE

FIND INFORMATION ON CELICA'S WHEREABOUTS IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

You can find the informant next to the Armory.

2

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO BLADE TOWER IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND SPEAK WITH COMMANDER VANDHAM.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE BLADE BARRACKS ENTRANCE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND TALK TO ROCK.

As usual, Rock's hard to miss—he's sitting directly in front of the BLADE Barracks. Talk to him so he can beg you for help with Celica.

4

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR CELICA
IN SYLVALUM'S
BEHEMOTH'S SHADOWS.

It's easier to land a Skell near the rendezvous point shown on the mini-map and then use the Follow Ball—this cave's easy to miss from high above.

Q&A TIME!

Rock

Answer

"N-no, I'll go. I have to help Celica."

Assure: Tell Rock that you've got things covered if he wants to stay.

Support: Say that you'll protect the both of them.

5

OBJECTIVE

HEAD INTO THE DEEPEST REACHES OF SYLVALUM'S
BEHEMOTH'S SHADOWS.

This place is absolutely teeming with indigens with levels in the low 40s—try to have your party up to at least level 45 before trekking through here if you want to have the easiest time. You'll hit one cutscene in the middle of your journey and trigger another one involving Celica when you reach your destination—as well as a boss battle. Expect to have to ditch your Skells partway in as well.

6

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE DIMNET XIPHIAS AT SYLVALUM'S BEHEMOTH'S SHADOWS.

DIMNET XIPHIAS

LV. 44

If you have at least one Skell, this won't be a tough battle—you've handled enemies of similar size and level on the way here. The slight challenge comes from the high mobility of the xiphias, combined with the fact that there are other indigens in this clearing, one of which is a tyrant.

Do your best to single out the xiphias and pound on it despite its movements. Then, once you beat it, high-tail it out of the clearing you're in and fast-travel back to the cave's entrance as soon as you're in the clear to be able to fulfill the next objective.

7

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO CELICA IN SYLVALUM'S BEHEMOTH'S SHADOWS.

If you fast-traveled out, Celica should be just ahead, at the entrance.

Q&A TIME!

Celica

"Is everyone all right?"

Answer

Boast: Flex your muscles and smile.
Worry: Ask Celica the same question.

8

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO COMMANDER VANDHAM AT BLADE TOWER IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Rock! Isn't! FIGHTING!"

Answer

Surrender: Concede that there's no other option but for Rock to fight.
Insist: Say Rock will only fight over your dead body.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"Careful, you'll make him blush."

Answer

Apologize: Tell Chausson you pegged him wrong.
Approve: Give Chausson a knowing nod.

Frye

"Besides, we've got some grade-A backup, right?"

Answer

Agree: Nod confidently.

Wait: Say you can't decide until you know the mission details.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Phog and Frye have put together a mission that can benefit all of New LA—if they can keep indigens off of their backs. That's where you come in.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BROTHERLY LOVE

There have been reports of a new kind of resource in Sylvalum. Go on a joint mission with the Prospectors and Interceptors and see what's what.

1

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE RESOURCES NEAR SYLVALUM'S BADR STONEBRIDGE.

Before you head out, gather a party of Skells (preferably with at least level 50 frames) and outfit them with your best weapons, including G-Busters. This mission isn't kidding—it likes to surprise you with formidable indigens at the worst times.

Follow the mini-map to your destination, and use your Skells to take out the tyrant next to the site. G-Busters will give you plenty of opportunities to Bind it, making it a fairly easy win.

This will be the pattern for the rest of the mission, so be ready.

Q&A TIME!

Phog

“Huh?”

Answer

Express surprise: Show your shock at the resource vanishing.

Mock: Accuse Phog of screwing up.

2

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE RESOURCES NEAR SYLVALUM'S ANVIL ROCK ONE.

3

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE RESOURCES NEAR SYLVALUM'S NORTH CINDERDUNES.

4

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE RESOURCES NEAR SYLVALUM'S SOUTH HARDHEART CANYON.

5

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO WALTER ON DIVISION DRIVE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

“Yeah, I'm all out of ideas. What do you think?”

Answer

Suggest: Wonder aloud if physical contact is the issue.

Speculate: Theorize that the material may be sentient.

Q&A TIME!

Frye

“And don't worry, there's a spot on the team for you, too.”

Answer

Accept: Agree to join and thank them for the offer.

Decline: Refuse Frye's offer.

Suggest: Say they should call it the Super Christoph Brothers.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Team Elma and Celica decide to check in on Rock. He's doing well in construction... with some minor caveats.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: FITTING IN

Just as Celica and Rock seemed to be slowly getting used to life in New LA, trouble occurred.

1

OBJECTIVE

CHECK THE SITUATION AT THE CONSTRUCTION SITE IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

Rock

"Yeah. I'm just sad there's nothing I can do for him."

Answer

Inquire: Ask what the problem is.

Encourage: Tell Rock there's no reason he can't help.

Q&A TIME!

2

OBJECTIVE

SEARCH FOR INFORMATION ABOUT AEROZIUM IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

Look no farther than the Nopon Bazaar in the Commercial District for the info you want.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO MUJIJI AT OBLIVIA'S DORIAN CARAVAN.

4

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S FLOATING REEF AND FIND FOUR PIECES OF AEROZIUM.

You'll have to head high into the sky for this one, but these collectibles are covered by navigation. Follow the mini-map. All of the aeroxium can be found in a single place!

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"That's why you were so passionate about Rock not fighting."

Answer

Praise: Say that Celica is very considerate of others.

Grumble: Say what a waste it is that Rock won't fight.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE STRATOSPHERIC BALAENA ON OBLIVIA'S FLOATING REEF.

STRATOSPHERIC BALAENA

LV. 46

This indigen's got a tough hide that makes even fighting it in Skells tough! Did we mention that it's larger than a Skell as well?

If at all possible, go for its appendages to get rid of its more annoying Arts. Otherwise, do whatever you can to Bind it and deal as much damage as possible. Persistence will bring it down, but every attack you allow it to land simply makes the job that much harder.

6

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: TWO PEAS IN A POD

Vandham wants to discuss the development of a new weapon with you.

1 OBJECTIVE
HEAD TO THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

2 OBJECTIVE
ACHIEVE ANY OBJECTIVE:
» TALK TO ALAN AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.
» TALK TO BRENNA AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

This guide covers talking to Brenna first, then Alan, but whichever order you follow, the outcome is pretty much the same. You'll get info from both characters about Skell weaponry and go on the same gathering errands, just in reverse order from each other.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"I guess not..."

Answer

Concede: Tell Lin that she tried her best.

Persist: Insist that you can get around that problem.

4 OBJECTIVE
TALK TO BRENNA AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

5 OBJECTIVE
TALK TO ALAN AT THE OUTFITTERS TEST HANGAR IN THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Alan

"I'd love to see it happen, but Earth's technology just isn't there yet."

Answer

Agree: Console Lin on the end of her good idea.

Disagree: Point out that you are no longer ON Earth.

6 OBJECTIVE
GET THREE QMOEVAN CAPACITORS FROM THE QMOEVAS IN OBLIVIA.

A good place to start grinding for these is our old friend, Jair Fortress. You don't even have to run up the middle of the fortress with guns blazing, either—there are some Qmoevas on the coast to the east. When you beat them, fast-travel back to the fortress's entrance to respawn the enemies and keep defeating them until you get the capacitors you need.

You'll have to talk to a couple more people, but otherwise, this quest is in the bag.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

A curious Nopon customer walks into L's shop of curiosities with a curious shopping list.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THE NOPON HEIR

The "Nopon heir" is apparently quite ill. Work with Tora to find the materials for a cure.

1

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » GET THREE AEVITER STAR WINGS FROM SAND AEVITERS OR OTHERS IN SYLVALUM.
- » GET AN OBSIDIAN FRAGMENT FROM ETERNAL MILLESAURS OR OTHERS IN PRIMORDIA.

Aeviters can be found around Sylvalum's Needle Rock Sandsea—look for the bat-like protrusions sticking out of the sand. Meanwhile, you've seen everlasting millesaurs since the start of the game—they hang out around Primordia's bodies of water. You will, however, require some Skells with level 50 frames (in your party of four Skells, period) to take them out—two is a good number.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO TORA IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO NOCTILUM'S DIVINE ROOST.

Your arrival at this destination is the part where you realize you've been sent on a suicide mission. Anyone who's played Xenoblade Chronicles already knows that Telethias are trouble. If you're reading this book and you haven't—well, you're in trouble.

4

GET A GUARDIAN ETHERSCALE FROM TELETHIA, THE ENDBRINGER AT THE DIVINE ROOST.

TELETHIA, THE ENDBRINGER

LV. 99

Yes, it's level 99. Yes, you're going to have to fight it. Fortunately, no, you don't have to beat it. You just have to...scratch it. Give it a mosquito bite, because that's what you are to it, really.

If you don't have G-Busters on your Skells, get them—they're the quickest way to shave off the 5 percent of its health that you need to get out of this encounter alive. Its attacks will make short work of you if you take too long, so, you know...don't.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"Is it...letting us go?"

Answer

Boast: Claim you'll be back to finish it off.

Nod: Say that you and the Ruler of Fates understand each other.

5

OBJECTIVE

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: FATHERS AND SONS

You received an emergency call from some Prospectors. Head to the rescue point in Primordia and help out.

Q&A TIME!

Vandham

"It's from Keifer and Leland Cole."

Answer

Guess: Ask if they are father and son.

Assume: Ask if they're brothers.

Vandham's received a distress call from a...notable family duo. It's in a pretty dangerous area, though, so the job's going to need all of Team Elma.

1

TALK TO KIEFER COLE IN PRIMORDIA'S STONELATTICE CAVERN.

Stonelattice Cavern can be a little tricky to find. Fast-travel to FN Site 105 (see the Segment Details section of the Data chapter if you've never been there before) and fly to the west, around the cliff. You'll see the cavern dug into the mountain.

2

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO LELAND COLE INSIDE PRIMORDIA'S STONELATTICE CAVERN.

Go ahead and fly inside, then up and to the south until you find Leland. He's a little tricky to nail down, but the Follow Ball will see you through if you need it to.

He's also near a level 59 indigen. However, said indigen has some pretty soft hide—a few good whacks with a G-Buster and missiles will take care of it.

3

OBJECTIVE

INVESTIGATE THE MINERALS IN PRIMORDIA'S STONELATTICE CAVERN AND RETRIEVE FIVE PIECES OF FLEMTIDE.

All of the minerals are clearly marked, and four of them should be easy to grab—they're guarded by weaker indigenes. Note that you'll have to disembark from your Skell to pick them up, so make sure you park it in a safe place to avoid a lava bath.

The fifth mineral, however, is guarded by a level 68 tyrant. Caesar, the Hundred-eyed is weak to thermal and ether attacks and has minimal resistance to gravity weapons such as G-Busters. Given a Skell's typical weapon loadout, he won't be very hard to take down, but persistence is key.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO LELAND COLE IN PRIMORDIA'S STONELATTICE CAVERN.

5

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO KIEFER COLE AT BLADE TOWER.

Q&A TIME!

Lin

"He's 80, and...kind of hot. That is so gross."

Answer

Boast: Claim you knew Leland was the son all along.

Confirm: Ask if Kiefer is Leland's...son?

Art Learned: Quick Cannon (Assault Rifle)

RAPID MISFIRE

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 50.

» AFFINITY: ALEXA (4 HEARTS).

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 11.

» COMPLETE THE "WHAT THE SKELL?!" AFFINITY MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: ALEXA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Once again it's time to peek into Alexa's exciting life as a tester! Something's always going wrong—but when working with weapons, mishaps can be extra-dangerous.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Something about a laser that can track targets burrowing underground. Kinda ruins the magic, right?"

Answer

Talk offense: Say that a giant sword is the best magic around.

Talk defense: Say that a giant shield is the best magic around.

Disagree: Say that weapons should be convenient and useful.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Were they in their Skells at the time?"

Answer

Scold: Chastise Alexa for thinking of the Skells first.

Nod: Say that it's a good question.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"I'm going to look for them. You'll come too, right?"

Answer

Agree: Say that you're ready to go.

Disagree: Say that this isn't your job.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: RAPID MISFIRE

Looks like a weapons test went bad. Help Alexa rescue the injured.

1

HEAD TO THE ACCIDENT SITE AT NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

Look for the wrecked Skells.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"She never told Camber how she felt!"

Answer

Comfort: Remind Alexa what a good friend Mika was.

Watch: Let Alexa be alone with her grief.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Judging from the debris, this accounts for two of the Skells."

Answer

Praise: Tell Alexa she has a good eye.

Apologize: Say that you're sorry Alexa had to see the Skells like this.

2

SEARCH FOR CAMBER NEAR NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

This one's tricky if you don't know where to look. There's a wrecked Skell on an inlet across the lake. Get as close as you can, and then Camber will appear.

Q&A TIME!

Camber

"Then you...Do you know?"

Answer

Explain: Tell Camber that Mika died protecting him.

Lie: Tell Camber that Mika left New LA to find her fortune.

Mourn: Look solemnly into Camber's eyes.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Hey, wait a second... You notice anything odd about Camber's Skell and the others?"

Answer

Examine: Say that the damage is different.

3

INVESTIGATE THE SKELLS AT THE ACCIDENT SITE AT NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"Which means..."

Answer

Conclude: Say that Mika was attacked by an enemy.

Guess: Surmise that Mika and Hannah must have been fighting each other.

4

TALK TO MIKA AT NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

5

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

» DEFEAT THE SCOUT GALDR AT NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

» DEFEAT TWO SCOUT QMOEVAS AT NOCTILUM'S DECAPOTAMON.

SCOUT GALDR

LV. 54

SCOUT QMOEVA X2

LV. 50

Skills with level 50 frames will make this job easier, but if you're stuck with level 30s, have all party members concentrate their fire on the Qmoevas first, then go for the Galdre. Actually, even if you have more powerful Skills, that's still a good call.

Q&A TIME!

Alexa

"And now it's my dream to save someone's life like that someday."

Answer

Agree: Say that sounds like the Alexa you know.

Observe: Note that Camber pilots a jet-black Skell.

Art Learned: Maximum Voltage (Javelin)

- » COMPLETE CHAPTER 11.
- » COMPLETE THE "ARMS AND THE MAN" AFFINITY MISSION.
- » SURVEY 50 PERCENT OF OBLIVIA.
- » OBTAIN THE MIMESOME LEFT LEG.
- » OBTAIN THE MIMESOME RIGHT LEG.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

It's been a bit of a scavenger hunt, but it's time to unravel the mystery behind Yelv's main motivation—his missing friend.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"We're almost there."

Answer

Correct: Remind Yelv that he still needs the right arm.

Comfort: Say it will be nice to finally lay him to rest.

TIP: PIECING IT TOGETHER

Looking for the leg pieces you need to start this mission? Look no farther than Lake Basel and East Ibra Ravine!

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"If we triangulate from where the other parts turned up, we can narrow down the search."

Answer

Insist: Make Yelv face the truth that his friend is gone.

Nod: Tell Yelv that you will do whatever he needs.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: YELV'S PARTNER

Using the locations where the arms and legs were found, determine the location where Yelv's friend fell and search for him.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"Oh, for the love of clams—you told her about that?"

Answer

Deny: Say you haven't told a soul.

Evade: Claim that your memory isn't the greatest.

2

OBJECTIVE

EXPLORE OVER 60 PERCENT OF OBLIVIA.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE CALCULATED LOCATION AT OBLIVIA'S EDDIE'S CONQUEST.

Eddie's Conquest is a hole dug into the mountain close to Oblivia's Twin Arches. You can enter from above or from the side of the mountain.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"I knew it...he's alive! He stuck it out here all on his own!"

Answer

Agree: Say that must be him.

Warn: Tell Yelv to be careful.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE GALE MILSAADI AT OBLIVIA'S EDDIE'S CONQUEST.

GALE MILSAADI

LV. 52

Milsaadi are never a joke—they move as swiftly and hit as hard as any Wrothian. To make matters worse, this one can even take a decent amount of Skell punishment! Debuff and use Topple as much as possible as you pile on the damage.

4

OBJECTIVE

APPROACH THE WRECKAGE AT OBLIVIA'S EDDIE'S CONQUEST AND INVESTIGATE.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"It's the rest of him, but he's..."

Answer

Comfort: Tell Yelv how sorry you are.

Urge: Tell Yelv that he has to accept this and move on.

Q&A TIME!

Yelv

"We were together from the start, but now it's just me. Alone..."

Answer

Counsel: Tell Yelv that he needs to learn to stand on his own two feet.

Assure: Remind Yelv that he is not alone.

Art Learned: Master Gunner (Raygun)

LIONHEARTED

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"Are friends going to leave hurt kitty cat all alone?"

Answer

Abandon: Claim that saving Ga Jiarg is more important.

Aid: Insist that Ni Zain needs immediate medical attention.

MISSION PREREQUISITES

» LEVEL: 51.

» COMPLETE CHAPTER 12.

» COMPLETE THE "A CHALLENGER APPROACHES" AFFINITY MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: ELMA AND LIN.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

One of Prince Ga Jiarg's soldiers, Ni Zain, took part in a failed mission to recapture Wrothian Skells from the Ganglion. Ga Jiarg has now taken matters into his own hands. Ni Zain asks for your assistance.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: LIONHEARTED

You received a urgent call from Ni Zain. Go and help Ga Jiarg.

1

HEAD TO CAULDROS'S GANGLION WEAPONS HANGAR.

2

DEFEAT THREE NAMELESS CALADARS.

NAMELESS CALADAR X3

LV. 52

The Caladars aren't too tough, but they fight a lot like Wrothian warriors on the ground—speedy melee attacks and devastating energy Arts. If your Skells are level 50 or higher, then treat the Caladars like you would normal mooks. If you have level 30 frames, then concentrate fire on one Skell at a time. You can also Bind them.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Jiarg

"Assist us in destroying the Wrothian Skells that remain under Ganglion control."

Answer

Agree: Aid Ga Jiarg in destroying the Skells.

Propose: Suggest capturing the Skells instead of destroying them.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Buidhe

"We've already destroyed three. That should leave 10 more somewhere in the area."

Answer

Propose: Suggest each of you take out half the remaining Skells.

Wager: Challenge Ga Jiarg to see who can destroy six Skells first.

3

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT FIVE NAMELESS CALADARS FOUND SOMEWHERE IN CAULDROS.

If you wagered with Ga Jiarg in the last Q&A Time, then your objective will be to defeat more nameless Caladars than the Wrothians. However, you'll still end up only taking out five either way. For an easy time, team up on each Caladar while watching for other forces in the bases they inhabit.

4

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT A NAMELESS CALADAR IN CAULDROS'S KW'ARAH CLOISTER.

The final Caladar has been given a bump in levels, but it's still alone. Treat it like the rest, while staying vigilant about how much damage it deals.

Q&A TIME!

Ga Buidhe

"Yes, my prince."

Answer

Smile: Tell Ga Jiarg that's what friends are for.

Nod: Tell Ga Jiarg they owe you one next time you're in trouble.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

Lin is deep in thought about what to do regarding an important situation that involves Tatsus—one Tatsus absolutely can't know about until the time is right.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: BIRTHDAY BOY

Lin has tasked you with a mission that must be kept secret from Tatsus. Officially it's Mediator work, but in reality it involves gathering a number of Nopon recipes.

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » ASK FOR RECIPES FROM THE NOPON ELDER'S AIDE.
- » ASK FOR RECIPES FROM A NOPON WHO'S ALWAYS HUNGRY.
- » ASK FOR RECIPES FROM A WEALTHY NOPON MAIDEN WHO GREW UP BEING TREATED LIKE A PRINCESS.

Take your tour around New LA, asking Nopon for recipes.

The Nopon elder's aide is Ngogo, who can be found at the Nopon Bazaar in the Commercial District.

Q&A TIME!

Ngogo

"Recipe has been passed down from house of elder to house of elder. It involve many special rules and rites."

Answer

Inquire: Ask Ngogo about the rules and rites.

Press: Tell Ngogo that you are here for a recipe, not a lecture.

Q&A TIME!

Ngogo

"Next, they... Wait, friend is interested in hearing more, yes?"

Answer

Nod: Tell Ngogo to continue his explanation.

Stop: Tell Ngogo to just give you the recipe already.

The hungry Nopon is Pirapira, who can be found at a dumpster off one of the Commercial District's side streets.

Q&A TIME!

Pirapira

"It use local ingredients gathered at source and need no special implements. Oh, and it CRAZY nutritious!"

Answer

Inquire: Ask Pirapira to hear more.

Insist: Tell Pirapira to just give you the recipe already.

Finally, the royal-treatment Nopon is Warawa, who can be found in the Residential District's Deliverance Park. Talk to her last.

Q&A TIME!

Warawa

"But taste of mamapon cooking was special."

Answer

Inquire: Ask Warawa to say more.

Demand: Tell Warawa to just give you the recipe already.

Once you're done gathering recipes, a misunderstanding occurs, and Tatsus runs off.

2

OBJECTIVE

RETURN TO THE BLADE BARRACKS AND LOOK FOR TATSU.

Check the dinner tables near Lin's cooking area to find a note.

3

OBJECTIVE

GO TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT AND LISTEN FOR INFO REGARDING TATSU'S WHEREABOUTS.

You'll find the info you need at the transports just outside the entrance to BLADE Tower.

4

OBJECTIVE

LOOK FOR TATSU AT CAULDROS'S FORGOTTEN MINING FRIGATES.

You find Tatsu just in time to see him in the jaws of an indigen! Teach it not to mess with Lin's meal-to-be... erm, friend. That's it. Friend.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE GRUDGE TERSQUAL ATTACKING TATSU.

GRUDGE TERSQUAL

LV. 56

This indigen is very susceptible to Bind, and you should use it at every opportunity. Otherwise, so long as your Skills are up to snuff and your levels are close to the tersqual's, standard battle tactics will win the day. Debuff where necessary.

Q&A TIME!

Tatsu

"L...Linly..."

Answer

Congratulate: Wish Tatsu a happy birthday.

Encourage: Tell Tatsu to eat as much as he likes.

» COMPLETE THE "SPARKING A SMILE" MISSION.

» REQUIRED MEMBERS: MIA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

You've been watching Mia's back as she's grown from a plucky reject into a true BLADE operative. It's time to witness the fruits of that nurture and reflect on that journey—through the eyes of a Nopon.

Q&A TIME!

Mia

Answer

"What do you do?!"

Search: Say that you track him down right away.

Wait: Say that you stay put and wait for him to arrive.

Q&A TIME!

Mia

Answer

"You remember this place? We first met here at this very spot."

Affirm: Tell Mia you remember it like it was yesterday.

Deny: Say you forgot.

Q&A TIME!

Mia

Answer

"I'm still not half the explorers they were, but I like to think they'd be proud."

Confirm: Tell Mia you're sure her parents would be proud.

Chide: Tell Mia her folks would think she still has a lot of growing up to do.

Q&A TIME!

Tora

Answer

"But yes! With coin in hand, Tora not lose to stupid Tatsu. Then Tora can go see dadapon and mamapon."

Query: Ask Tora why he's upset with Tatsu.

Assume: Ask whether Tora can't meet his parents before he obtains the coin.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: MIA GROWS UP

The recent BLADE recruit Mia has been in touch. Time to go on a mission with her.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO NAN AT THE NOPON BAZAAR IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Elder Nan
(muttering)

Answer

Support: Say that Tora's ability to talk you into this nonsense must count for something.

Bribe: Offer to introduce elder Nan to some cute Nopon later.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » GET A LUCKY RAINBOW WHISKER FROM THE BALAENAS IN PRIMORDIA.
- » ACQUIRE A FLOATSTONE SHARD FROM PRIMORDIA'S TALON ROCK SUMMIT.
- » USE FRONTIERNV TO LOCATE A PIECE OF BONJELIUM.

Head in your flying Skell to Talon Rock Summit for an easily locatable shard, and use the Bestiary in the Data chapter for the whisker (or grab it at the Network Terminal using reward tickets). You can check the Segment Details in the Data Chapter for places to mine for bonjelum, but this late in the game, odds are you've already got plenty.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO NAN AT THE NOPON BAZAAR IN THE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

4

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO MAMARA AT OBLIVIA'S DORIAN CARAVAN.

Mia

"Did you know that, Chief?"

Answer

Boast: Tell Mia that everyone who's anyone knows that.

Deny: Say that you had no idea...and that it's kind of horrifying.

Q&A TIME!

Tora

"No time for lengthy begging! Go and save Dadapon! Please?"

Answer

Accept: Agree to rescue Tora's father.

Bargain: Tell Tora you'll rescue his father for a price.

Q&A TIME!

5

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO DADATO AT ONE OF OBLIVIA'S FLOATING ISLANDS.

The floating islands are high in the sky—use the mini-map to direct you to the correct one.

Note that a massive level 60 indigen may attack you if it sees or hears you. However, you can potentially avoid this scenario by approaching Dadato from outside the indigen's line of sight and without using your thrusters.

Q&A TIME!

Dadato

"Huh? Friends not look like birds. Did friends come to help Dadato?"

Answer

Confirm: Tell Dadato that he's safe now.

Explain: Tell Dadato that Tora negotiated for your assistance.

6

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO OBLIVIA'S DORIAN CARAVAN.

Mia

"Don't you think so, Chief?"

Answer

Agree: Confess that you can see the resemblance.

Disagree: Say that Tora's a lot more with-it than Mia was.

Q&A TIME!

Mia

"I feel like I've asked this before, Chief, but if my folks were still alive... do you think they'd look at me now, all professional, and be...proud?"

Answer

Affirm: Tell Mia you're sure her parents would be floored with pride.

Deny: Tell Mia that she still has a ways to go.

- » RESTRICTED MEMBERS: IRINA.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

In this mission, the Murderess finally lives up to her name...or does she?

Q&A TIME!

BLADE

"Come with us. We'd like to question you about some homicides."

Answer

Moan: Tell the Murderess you knew it would come to this.

Query: Ask if the Murderess is being formally charged.

Confess: Break down and admit that you did it.

Q&A TIME!

BLADE

"So yeah, we're suspicious. And more than a little."

Answer

Argue: Claim that a Definian must be behind it, like with Hope.

Defend: Say that the Murderess would never do something like that.

Q&A TIME!

BLADE

"So you want us to ignore a suspect? What happens when another BLADE dies?"

Answer

Suggest: Tell the officer that he needs to build a stronger case.

Propose: Offer to find the real killer yourself.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: SERIAL THRILLER

Find the person responsible for the murders and clear the Murderess's name.

1

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

2

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ALL OBJECTIVES:

- » FIND THE FIRST PIECE OF INTEL ON THE INCIDENT FROM DIVISION DRIVE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.
- » FIND THE SECOND PIECE OF INTEL NEAR THE HANGAR IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.
- » FIND THE THIRD PIECE OF INTEL NEAR THE MAINTENANCE CENTER IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

The first piece of info is in the Prospectors' Hangar at Division Drive, the second is along the edge of the Administration District near the connecting bridge to the Commercial and Industrial Districts, and the third is past the Mimeosome Maintenance Center, near the edge barricades.

3

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO ELEONORA ON THE BLADE CONCOURSE IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Eleonora

"Pretty weird, huh?"

Answer

Assert: Claim that the bodies are a message.

Assume: Guess that the Ganglion are behind it.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"This is my dream. Not a day goes by where I don't—"

Answer

Suggest: Offer to put a bounty out on Gibbon.

Worry: Ask the Murderess if she's planning revenge.

Query: Tell the Murderess that you thought her dream was to restore her family name.

Q&A TIME!

Eleonora

"That's not the—Hey, you have to help me stop her!"

Answer

Persuade: Tell the Murderess to consider Irina.

Caution: Tell the Murderess that killing Dale Gibbon could impact her other dream.

Offer: Tell the Murderess that you'll go with her.

4

OBJECTIVE

ACHIEVE ANY OBJECTIVE:

- » TALK TO DART AT OBLIVIA'S KING'S FALLS.
- » TALK TO MARTIN AT SYLVALUM'S LAKE CIEL.

Head to Sylvalum. Watch out for indigens.

5

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT INTERFEARANCE AT SYLVALUM'S LAKE CIEL.

INTERFEARANCE

LV. 57

For a Skell with such a cool name, its bark is bigger than its bite. Watch out for its laser and homing missiles, but otherwise it crumples to a couple of good smacks from a Skell G-Buster, to say nothing of four.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"I'm here because they believed in me."

Answer

Praise: Tell the Murderess you're glad she seems to be coming around.

Query: Ask the Murderess if she's sure she doesn't need vengeance.

6

OBJECTIVE

TALK TO IRINA AT THE MAINTENANCE CENTER IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT.

Q&A TIME!

Murderess

"Sounds like a plan. You're in too, right?"

Answer

Make Irina pay: Say you'll come if Irina buys.

Make the Murderess pay: Say you'll come if the Murderess buys.

Treat: Offer to buy drinks for the ladies.

THEN AND NOW

Armor Up!

Before tackling this mission, you will need to up your firepower considerably. Consider grabbing at least two level 50 Skell frames to take on the two level 80 bosses at the end of this mission! You can gain access to the level 50 frames in the shop terminal by reaching maximum R&D levels with the Sakuraba Industries and Grenada GG corporations. The level 50 Skells will still cost a boatload of credits, however.

MISSION WALKTHROUGH

With peace having been achieved, Team Elma is naturally restless. Therefore, Elma hand-crafts her own special mission for them.

NEW AFFINITY MISSION: THEN AND NOW

Elma has requested your help for a special task. It's not really the kind of thing you can turn down...

1

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO PRIMORDIA'S FALLSHORN ISLE ON A CLEAR EVENING.

Observe the heartwarming cutscene, but also get ready for an unexpected boss battle!

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"I can't. This is...personal."

Answer

Assert: Claim that you won't abandon her.

Warn: Say she's getting too emotional.

2

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT THE DEMISE ICTUS ON FALLSHORN ISLE.

DEMISE ICTUS

LV. 60

This mission is actually a wake-up call that postgame-specific material will be a cut above in terms of challenge. That said, given where you currently are in the game, there's no reason you shouldn't be coming into this battle with four characters close to this boss's level and at least three Skills armed to the teeth.

Such a combination actually makes this boss rather easy, and there are no special strategies to speak of for beating it other than to abuse Bind at every opportunity. Enjoy your victory when it arrives, however—this is merely the calm before the storm.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"As your leader, I failed you."

Answer

Mutiny: Claim that you are the leader now.

Joke: Say that at least you aren't bored anymore.

3

OBJECTIVE

HEAD TO THE KEEGAN RIDGE IN OBLIVIA AND FIND THE RECLAIMERS.

4

OBJECTIVE

DEFEAT TWO GLEAMING SPHINXES IN OBLIVIA'S KEEGAN RIDGE.

GLEAMING SPHINX X2

LV. 80

You're going to want at least two level 50 Skells on your party and two other Skells at least at level 30. Armor them up to the gills and give them the most powerful single-targeting weapons possible, including G-Busters. Get all of your party members to level 60 if you can. If you have at least this minimum amount of power going in, then you stand a good chance.

Concentrate all of your party's fire on one sphinx at a time no matter what. Also, stay away from area-of-effect attacks. This is because there are other indigens in the area who can whittle you down while you're trying to take out these monsters as quickly as you can. Instead, concentrate on debuffs, buffs, and just plain hitting hard.

Q&A TIME!

Elma

"But life moves on, and people with it—no matter where they end up."

Answer

Grin: Say you can imagine worse places to start over.

Assert: Say you won't just move on—you'll prosper.

ABOUT DEFINIAN DOWNFALL

"Definian Downfall" is a mission you must complete in order to get Mia as a party member. However, it's behind quite a few mission chains, some of which won't be completable until near endgame. We recommend completing Chapter 11 of the main story before looking these Normal Missions up:

ALEX VS. XENOS:

Alien Nation
Shotgun Diplomacy
The Line of Fire
Alex's Last Stand

PROFESSOR B:

Mystery Man
Professor B's Return

THE DEFINIANS:

Attack on Blahno Hills
Water Woes
The Miracle Maker
Rites of Ruin
Good Fortun
Definian Downfall

BRANCHING MISSION OUTCOMES

MISSION NAME	RESULT A	RESULT B
City Saviors	You defeated all of the little suids.	You decided to spare the little suids. "A Painful Lesson" mission unlocks later on.
The Celeste Three	You were ambushed by the Celeste Three, but emerged victorious. However, the safe requires a fourth key to open.	Fosdyke attacked you, but you emerged victorious. However, the safe requires a fourth key to open.
A Proper Chopper	The helicopter made it back safely. Roscoe thanked you for saving his men.	The helicopter crashed while returning, killing Howard. Perhaps the repairs were faulty?
Alien Nation	You sided with Alex, electing to watch as he purged the alien threat to mankind's future.	You stood against Alex, electing to protect New LA's xenoform residents.
Lakeside Getaway	You succeeded in rescuing Ajoa from the indigens that attacked the Biahno Water-Purification Plant.	Indigens attacked the Biahno water-purification plant, killing the entire research team.
The Handy Ma-non	Task by task, you earned Sostenasa's trust. It seems the BLADEs have benefited greatly from his services.	While you were unable to win Sostenasa's trust, you at least feel closer to him than before.
Emotion Commotion	(Elemental Chunks Option) Dana's love was required. By observing the events, Chiopitus gained an understanding of human love.	(Red Thallus Antennae Option) Dana's love remained one-sided. Was Chiopitus at least able to see the complexity of human love?
The Fashionista	The undergarment designs failed, but your knowledge of Ma-non tastes resulted in a wild new perfume.	The undergarment designs failed, but your knowledge of Ma-non tastes resulted in a refreshing new perfume.
Here Come the Brides	Nemard married a fierce Prone, pleasing Auld Belgazus. The entire Ma-non Ship will likely be festive.	Nemard married a kind Prone, pleasing Auld Belgazus. The entire Ma-non ship will likely be festive.
Herbivores, Unite!	Speak to Yun'tonam before completing this quest and tell him not to eat the tree to trigger this option. With Mon'barac's help, the Great Tree was restored to life. He and Naza also seem to have worked out their differences. This can be accomplished by talking to Yun'tonam before growing the second tree. He will then not eat the Great Tree.	This time, the reborn Great Tree was eaten by Yun'tonam. Divisions between the Prone and Orphe appear to run quite deep...
Forbidden Love	Love overcame the barriers between species, and Leroy and Lavina were married.	Leroy and Lavina were not able to marry, but it's likely just a matter of time.
An Ancient Legend	Disaster has been averted. However, the large number of enemies resulted in casualties.	Disaster has been averted. Thanks to the help of the Cavern Clan, there were no casualties.
Training Day	Odsent's retraining was successful. It shouldn't be long before Zarch realizes his dream.	The dangerous Odsent was defeated. It seems there will be no unnecessary conflict with the Cavern Clan.
My Angel, My Lana	You brought Lana home safely, though Bubu seems a little upset at her recklessness.	Lana has decided to live with Walolo, leaving Bubu sad and alone.
A Tip of the Cap	You helped make a Santa hat. Nosusu looks delighted!	You helped make a pom-pom beanie. Nosusu looks delighted!
Special Delivery	You never learned the package's contents, but you delivered it to Bodada as instructed.	The package turned out to be fluffy—yet dangerous—pollen orbs. Now in Loma's hands, they will not reach the general Nopon population.
Supplies Surprise	It feels like she's using you, but you found Nalu's requested goods regardless.	You planted a trap in the goods as per Lularita's suggestion. It seems that Nalu is going to learn her lesson the hard way...
A Dish Served Cold	You stopped Zo Zazhi from getting killed and brought her back to New LA.	You stopped Zo Zazhi just in time and somehow managed to get her back to New LA.
Until the End	You successfully rescued Ge Jewhe. Hopefully she will never again leave Vi Sezha's side.	You could not rescue Ge Jewhe. However, stories of her heroism are sure to become the stuff of legend.
Leaving the Nest	After gaining his freedom, De Ezich relocated to New LA.	De Ezich decided to straighten himself out under the stern eye of his parents.
The Queen Is Dead	You crushed the queen jacul alongside the Three Talons. Now the Wrothians have one less worry in their lives.	You crushed the queen jacul alongside the Three Talons. They suffered casualties, but now the Wrothians have one less worry in their lives.
The Unbreakable Sword	You recovered the unbreakable sword for De Zing. No doubt he is off training with it right now.	You recovered the unbreakable sword for De Zing, who then gave you the blade in thanks.
Circle of Life	Kun'luarb passed, but new life was born via division, and senirapa water will bring more.	Kun'luarb is no more, but a drop of senirapa water ensures that new life will be born.
Pollution Solution	The hiring of the Zaruboggan helped prevent further damage, which made Liza's day.	The new employee didn't work out, but the Zaruboggan seem born for this kind of work.
Stop, Thief!	You found the stolen jewel and proved Shiraton's innocence.	You doubted Shiraton's innocence, but it turns out he was telling the truth all along.
The Old Gods	Golbogg, the god of the Zaruboggan and destroyer of Bedun, actually looks just like a... human?	Upon examining the disk, you found that not only does Golbogg exist, but he is also humanlike in form. With his hypothesis destroyed, Toluera is in despair.
Definian Downfall	Fortun is dead, and the three Definian sisters dealt with. Erio will finally be able to live in peace.	Fortun's personality has changed, and the three sisters were defeated. Erio and her mother can now live in peace.
Rise of the Blood Lobster	You killed the Blood Lobster, who was actually Justin. He died with a smile on his face.	You spared the Blood Lobster, who was actually Justin. He wailed in despair at your mercy, as it spoiled his grand ending.

MISSION NAME	RESULT A	RESULT B
The Art of War	You defeated the leader of the Lotus Keep Building Site and routed the Ganglion, thus proving the validity of Sajir's battle plan.	You defeated other enemies in the Lotus Keep building site besides the leader—thus failing to properly enact Sajir's battle plan.
The Repair Job	The electrical fault was repaired. It's a patch job, but it should hold for a little while.	You fixed the electrical fault and replaced all the parts, leaving it better than you found it. Lin seems pleased.
The Mad Monk	You completed Bozé's mission and rescued his former academy student. Go to BLADE Tower for the next affinity mission.	You completed the mission with Bozé and helped both the xeniform and Bozé's former academy student. Go to BLADE Tower for the next affinity mission.
Mayhem	May has learned the value of cooperation and returned to New LA ready to make friends.	May seems determined to continue with her solitary investigations of Oblivia.
Water Woes	It's now safe for work to continue, and there were no issues during the tests—but Ajoa still seems worried.	There were no issues during the tests, but Ajoa still seems worried. Regardless, production can now be ramped up.
Frontier Spirit	You found the spring and also helped Bates out of a jam—which made quite the impression on Corwin.	It seems that Bates has run into a little trouble. But his team will surely take care of its members' problems.
Unknown Assailant	(Go West Option) You saved Corwin's team. Their numbers have been depleted, but with Raleigh's determination and the team's frontier spirit, they'll surely recover.	(Go South Option) Unfortunately, Corwin couldn't be saved. What will become of his team?
Murder Most Foul	You took down the killer, but unfortunately could not save Ackwar's life.	You and Ackwar exposed Powell as the killer and defeated him. To do this you must have overheard the bomb disposal tip near the Restricted Hangar Entrance and attempt to defuse the bomb.
Shotgun Diplomacy	You succeeded in convincing Alex that his ways were in error, but his ally interfered.	You failed to convince Alex. Perhaps it's simply impossible for him to see eye to eye with you...
Snipe Hunt	You eliminated the sniper. The Ma-non are no longer exposed to this Ganglion threat.	It cost you, but at least the Ma-non are no longer exposed to the Ganglion sniper threat.
The Party Line	The Ma-non candidate was taken care of, and a Nopon candidate chosen as the spokesperson instead.	Sun'barac announced his candidacy. This looks good for xeno-human relations.
Tree-mendous	You rescued the captives with no casualties, and also caught a glimpse of the Tree Clan's courage, for not a single one yielded to the Cavern Clan.	The chief's son, Uzoma Vassago, battled to the end before finally dying with honor. It seems the Tree Clan's hatred of the Cavern Clan is intensifying.
Kidnapped: Uzoma Vassago	Using Kepha Holly to save him, you successfully rescued the kidnapped Uzoma Vassago.	Uzoma Vassago refused to yield to the Cavern Clan, but perished at the hands of an indigen.
The Ultimate Price	During the mission, Team Gus was wiped out by indigens. Perhaps it was karma.	By helping Gus, you fell into his trap and could not complete the mission. Quincy, however, seems to have taken a liking to you.
Slovity's Rampage	You defeated Megisia without injuring Slovity's men.	You defeated Megisia, but couldn't help killing Slovity's men.
The Trading Floor	You collected the kiweggs requested by the Prone, but received no payment for your services.	The Prone demands were resolved by the sword. You didn't earn much for your trouble.
Sparking a Smile	The pep returned to Nan's step after the fireworks. Ngogo also looked delighted at not having to listen to Nan complain.	There was trouble along the way, but the fireworks display was a success, and Pisa found a new objective for her life.
Castle in the Sky	You obtained eyewitness reports, tracked down the thief, and returned the cargo. Kuta was delighted.	You encountered Bobora, whose account led you to the thief and the stolen cargo. Kuta was delighted.
The Big Bang	You gave the requested materials to Popote, thereby concluding the preparations. He will now head to New LA while Pisa makes the fireworks.	You gave the requested materials to Popote, thereby concluding the preparations. Pisa will now head to New LA while Popote makes the fireworks.
Lend an Ear	After much back and forth, Gu Ladha was appointed as a liaison to the humans.	Gu Ladha gained some confidence after the intense sparring match. No doubt she will make a fine soldier.
The Duel (Part IV)	You regained the sword. However, Gi Zang was injured by a surprise attack from an enemy imitating Tolba.	You defeated the enemy imitating Tolba Wolfen and regained the sword.
Lionhearted	You helped Ga Jiarg's team destroy the Skells, gaining their respect in the process.	You destroyed more Skells than Ga Jiarg's team, gaining their respect in the process.
My Dream	You submitted to the Murderess and wound up giving up both credit for the job and your reward. ...What a jerk.	You confronted the Murderess and had to beat back the attacks of her followers...What a jerk.
Bozé's Ignorance	You repelled the xeniforms and defeated the indigen. It seems there is little hope of Bozé's xenophobia abating any time soon...	You repelled the xeniforms using a Ma-non device and defeated the indigen. Bozé seems to have opened his mind a little...
Weaponized	By choosing the stronger enemy, you helped Alexa test the Ramjet Rifle, and she gave you a prototype version in return. Go to the Outfitters Test Hangar for the next affinity mission.	You helped Alexa test the prototype weapon. Go to the Outfitters Test Hangar for the next affinity mission.
The Little Rich Girl	You won the bet with Yolanda and captured Lan'cord, thus completing your mission with the Murderess.	You lost the bet with Yolanda, but caught Lan'cord, thus completing your mission with the Murderess.
The Good Thief	Select Watch, Soothe, Disagree, and Wait to convince the thief to return the voltant.	The voltant was discarded into the reservoir, but thanks to Phoskeran, no permanent damage was done.
A Fateful Choice	Run'tonam and company were wiped out. You informed On'tonam of Run'tonam's demise.	Run'tonam and company were wiped out. You were able to bring her Ovah home.
A Dubious Operation	You reported Roselle's crime to HQ and protected Shiraton.	You decided to look the other way when it came to Roselle's plan to charge high prices for disposing of dangerous pollutants.

OFF THE RECORD

When you reach level 4 in any BLADE field skill, mysterious missions entitled "Off the Record" will show up in Mission Control. The objectives to these missions are hidden behind riddles, and for good reason: Completing these missions allows you to push your field skills to level 5! Here are the keys to cracking the code.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL LEVEL 5

"In the court of the forest gods, a brood of sentinels here do flock."	Discover the Sentinel's Nest location, located on the east side of the Divine Roost in Noctilum.
"Across the table where titans feast hides an insect you must defeat."	Defeat Calore, the Lava Walker. This tyrant hides in the lava outside of the Infernal Ledges cave in Cauldros, northwest of Titan's Table.
"If you seek a pure white shell, to the east does it now dwell."	Collect white forxex shells from land forxexes or others in Oblivia.
"In fields of green in New LA, ask in the morning to find the way."	Talk to Solan near Deliverance Park (Residential District) in the morning.

MECHANICAL LEVEL 5

"Soar deep into the skies and seek the forgotten land's ultimate peak."	Discover Mount Edge Peak, the highest point in Oblivia aside from the Floating Reef. Naturally, you'll need a Skell with the flight module installed for this.
"After dawn o'er land of white, a rare red foe appears to smite."	Defeat Lyla's Galdri, a rare tyrant that appears east of Lake Ciel in Sylvalum between 5:00 and 7:00 in the morning. It will appear beneath the Noctilucous Sphere and fly north to a cliff, where it will wait until disappearing at 7:00.
"Etchings of ancient beasts to find? Seek a stony shore in fired climes."	Collect savage sketches, a rare collectible found on the eastern cliffs of Cauldros.
"In suburban glory in a setting sun, the afflicted tell of what's to come."	Talk to Solan in the Residential District in the evening, in an alley in Ishmael Hills.

BIOLOGICAL LEVEL 5

"Take this elevated corn to hand, atop the peaks of a delusional land."	Collect pale maize, a rare collectible from the top of the Delusian Mountains in Sylvalum.
"Atop the forest's eternal cascade, a bitter baron awaits the blade."	Defeat several acid diluses, located on the west side at the top of Everwhelm Falls in Noctilum.
"Above an early land do hover, courting birds whose seal you covet."	Collect auravis courtship feathers from auravises in Primordia or Oblivia.
"Where ordnance takes first breath, collect your spoils after sunset."	Talk to Solan in the Outfitters Test Hangar at night.

THE SKELL LICENSE EXAM

Finish Chapter 6 of the main story and you'll be able to approach Vandham to apply for a license to pilot your very own Skell! However, getting the license won't be easy. You'll have to complete missions from every single division of BLADE.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 1

The proficiency exam from the Pathfinders.

Objective: Install a data probe at FrontierNav Site 117 in Primordia.

Site 117 is directly northeast from New LA. Refer to the FrontierNav section of this guide's Data chapter for the location of the probe. Planting the probe requires only a level 1 Mechanical field skill.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 2

The proficiency exam from the Interceptors.

Objective: Defeat 12 blitz blatts in Noctilum.

The mini-map will point you to several places in Noctilum where blitz blatts are. Follow it and get the job done.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 3

The proficiency exam from the Harriers.

Objective: Defeat Shatskikh, the Flash in Primordia's Northpointe Cove (appearances rare).

Follow the mini-map and await Shatskikh's arrival. Shatskikh is a level 25 tyrant, so be on your guard! For a full rundown on this indigen, check the Bestiary/Enemy Index in this guide's Data chapter. If the tyrant is not present, fast travel to a nearby location and repeat until it spawns.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 4

The proficiency exam from the Reclaimers.

Objective: Obtain the solar starship map in Noctilum's Humdrum Peaks.

The mini-map and Follow Ball will lead you right to this one.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 5

The proficiency exam from the Curators.

Achieve All Objectives:

- Gather eight rock armadillos in Noctilum.
- Gather three beagflea squashes in Oblivia.
- Gather six multi-speckled ladybugs in Primordia.

Refer to the Collectible Locations section of this guide's Data chapter for the locations of these items. An efficient way to collect the Beagflea squash is to fast travel to the Dorian Caravan, collect a handful there, then fast travel to the spot, repeating these steps until you have all you need.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 6

The proficiency exam from the Prospectors.

Objective: Use FrontierNav to earn over 15,000 credits in a single return.

Refer to the FrontierNav section of this guide's Data chapter for places to plant probes and to optimally place research probes.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 7

The proficiency exam from the Outfitters.

Objectives:

Get the examination weapon from Tauler on Division Drive in the Administrative District.

Achieve any objective:

- Defeat three giant grexes in Primordia with a Trial Knife.
- Defeat three giant grexes in Primordia with a Trial Assault Rifle.
- Defeat three giant grexes in Primordia with a Trial Sword.

Tauler is right around the corner from the arms manufacturers' terminal. Go grab all three weapons from him, then equip your desired one of the three and go kick some grex butt. You can find some giant grexes along Biahno Hills and Biahno River, among other places.

PROFICIENCY EXAM 8

The proficiency exam from the Mediators.

Achieve Any Objective:

- Complete "The Handy Ma-non."
- Complete "The Pip-Squeak."
- Complete "That's In-Credible!"

Go ahead and check around New LA for any one of these missions. You can find details on all of them in the Normal Missions section of this guide's Walkthrough. Scan the objectives, pick the one you feel most confident doing, then get it done.

CLAIM YOUR RIDE!

Once you've gotten all eight tests under your belt, talk to Walter in the Hangar in the Administrative District. Enjoy your new Skell!

RISE OF THE BLOOD LOBSTER

After finishing Chapter 3, as well as completing the "A Hero's Ride" normal mission, head to the left of the Outfitters test hangar entrance to find a cute but curious stuffed lobster.

Watch out, though—these lobsters hide explosives! The Blood Lobster makes his debut here, threatening to blow up New LA unless you find all of his little toys. In addition the one you've just found, there are 100 stuffed lobsters in all. Use the locations provided below to save the city!

While you can start the quest after Chapter 3, you cannot complete this mission until Chapter 11, at the earliest. Finding all of the stuffed lobsters will require the use of a Skell, and a flying Skell makes things much easier.

You'll only be able to collect the first half of the lobsters for now. Once you grab Lobster 49, the second half will become collectable.

LOBSTERS – FIRST HALF

Stuffed Lobster 0 | Industrial District
Left from the Outfitters Test Hangar entrance. This is the stuffed lobster that begins the quest.

Stuffed Lobster 1 | Residential District/Ishmael Hills
White-painted, gray-roofed house at the border of Ishmael Hills. Check the garage.

Stuffed Lobster 2 | Administrative District/Armory Alley
On the roof left of the Shop Terminal.

Stuffed Lobster 3 | Administrative District/Hangar
Skell maintenance area, close to Camber, near the steps.

Stuffed Lobster 4 | Administrative District/Armory Alley
Left side of BLADE Tower (slightly west of the warp to the Ma-Non Ship).

Stuffed Lobster 5 | Administrative District/BLADE Tower
Elevator side of BLADE Tower. Head past the edge, onto the slanted ramp.

Stuffed Lobster 6 | Administrative District
Across from the Mimeosome Maintenance Center, at the bottom of the red staircase. Check the end of the red pipe.

Stuffed Lobster 7 | Administrative District/Division Drive
Bridge above the Mediators.

Stuffed Lobster 8 | Administrative District/BLADE Concourse
At the top of the stairs to the far left of Mission Control.

Stuffed Lobster 9 | Administrative District/Division Drive
Face Division Drive's elevator, then head past it completely. You'll see a thin steel frame over some wire mesh with the lobster on it.

Stuffed Lobster 10 | Administrative District/Division Drive
Atop the crane close to where you picked up lobster 9.

Stuffed Lobster 11 | Administrative District
Above the highway running along the lower end of the Administrative District (close to the hangar). Look for the large pipes!

Stuffed Lobster 12 | Administrative District/BLADE Barracks
Roof above the BLADE Barracks entrance.

Stuffed Lobster 13 | Industrial District
On top of a container near the lower part of the West Gate's elevator.

Stuffed Lobster 14 | Industrial District
Atop a brace in the upper part of the West Gate's elevator.

Stuffed Lobster 15 | Industrial District
On top of the small building on the west side of the crossroads in front of the West Gate.

Stuffed Lobster 16 | Industrial District
Just under the crane near and above Professor B's research lab.

Stuffed Lobster 17 | Industrial District/Integrated Production Plant
Survey the Industrial District from above with your Skill, and look for the big building with "PLANT" written on it in big letters. It's hard to miss, trust us.

Stuffed Lobster 18 | Industrial District/Repenta Diner
Above the diner entrance, behind the "Repenta" sign.

Stuffed Lobster 19 | Commercial District
On the thin steel frame in front of where Bozé Lowes hangs out.

Stuffed Lobster 20 | Administrative District/Hangar
East from the door in front of the Hangar. Check the box near the area where BLADEs can often be seen fighting.

Stuffed Lobster 21 | Industrial District/Outfitters Test Hangar
Small balcony near Alan.

Stuffed Lobster 22 | Industrial District/Central Industrial District
On top of the container between Professor B's Lab and the transport.

Stuffed Lobster 23 | Industrial District/Outfitters Test Hangar
Past the big crane, where the road ends.

Stuffed Lobster 24 | Residential District/Lower Area
The northwest area of the Residential District, to the lower left of the open area after you descend the stairs.

Stuffed Lobster 25 | Commercial District/Lower Area
On top of a pipe below the point where the road stops in the south center area.

Stuffed Lobster 26 | Commercial District
East side, near the barricade by the entrance/exit.

Stuffed Lobster 27 | Commercial District
Southwest area, near the large truck atop the pile of metal and materials.

Stuffed Lobster 28 | Commercial District
The pillars on the waters between the Commercial and Residential Districts.

Stuffed Lobster 29 | Commercial District/Barista Court
Check the tree in the very midst of Barista Court.

Stuffed Lobster 30 | Commercial District/Barista Court
Directly to the side of Lobster 29, on top of the large building.

Stuffed Lobster 31 | Commercial District
Atop the orange L-shaped building in the southeastern section of the district.

Stuffed Lobster 32 | Commercial District
Directly west of the L-shaped building where you found lobster 31, in the middle of the parking lot.

Stuffed Lobster 33 | Commercial District
Northeast sector of the district, under a corner tree not far from where the Nopon Bazaar sets up.

Stuffed Lobster 34 | Commercial District
Northeast sector of the district, at the base of the tree that intersects the path leading between two large buildings. (In the picture, it's the tree shown directly next to the mini-map.)

Stuffed Lobster 35 | Residential District
Southwest corner, where the road comes to an end.

Stuffed Lobster 36 | Residential District
Backyard of a house directly across from the tennis courts.

Stuffed Lobster 37 | Residential District
Northwest, near the barricade and end of the road.

Stuffed Lobster 38 | Residential District
The large crane directly next to Phog's hangout (and over Phog's head).

Stuffed Lobster 39 | Residential District/Lower Area
Underneath the Water Purification Plant. Use the nearby drop-offs to go to the lower area and find it.

Stuffed Lobster 40 | Residential District
Brown roof of the house directly across the street from the cathedral's parking lot.

Stuffed Lobster 41 | Residential District/
Water Purification Plant
Above the pillar bearing the ECP emblem.

Stuffed Lobster 42 | Residential District
Southeast area. Look for the trees growing amidst a circle-patterned sidewalk.

Stuffed Lobster 43 | Residential District
Southeast area. Scan the road and look for three cars parked in a row.

Stuffed Lobster 44 | Administrative District/Hangar Area
On the other side of the fence, directly north of Doug's hangout.

Stuffed Lobster 45 | Ma-non Ship
Jump up behind the warp to BLADE Tower and proceed straight.

Stuffed Lobster 46 | Ma-non Ship
Lowest point of the lower starboard area.

Stuffed Lobster 47 | Ma-non Ship
Atop the centerpiece capsule pods in the lower starboard area of the ship.

Stuffed Lobster 48 | Ma-non Ship
Lower starboard area, near the back of the nuclear reactor, on the scaffold where Pfeffen is standing.

Stuffed Lobster 49 | Commercial District
Check the raw materials near Bozé's hangout.

Once you grab lobster 49, the Blood Lobster taunts you and sets off some fireworks.
Once the show is over, the lobsters in the next list become collectable!

LOBSTERS – SECOND HALF

Stuffed Lobster 50 | Administrative District

On the roof just around the corner from the arms manufacturers terminal.

Stuffed Lobster 51 | Administrative District/BLADE Tower

Atop the pillar that connects BLADE Tower to another building (look past the right side of BLADE Tower's power display).

Stuffed Lobster 52 | Administrative District/BLADE Tower

Atop the slimmer tower directly next to the top of BLADE Tower (look past the left side of BLADE Tower's power display).

Stuffed Lobster 53 | Administrative District/BLADE Tower

Under the fighter jet in front of BLADE Tower.

Stuffed Lobster 54 | Administrative District/Armory Alley

On a roof high up directly above the arms manufacturers terminal.

Stuffed Lobster 55 | Administrative District

Near the elevator nearby BLADE Tower, on top of the machine connected to the pipe.

Stuffed Lobster 56 | Administrative District/Division Drive

Roof above the Harriers' area.

Stuffed Lobster 57 | Administrative District/Hangar

Beside the large orange AXIOM crates in the northeast corner.

Stuffed Lobster 58 | Administrative District

Next to the Mimeosome Maintenance Center, at the edge of the roof above the Curators' area (Murderess's hangout).

Stuffed Lobster 59 | Administrative District/BLADE Tower

The very top of BLADE Tower!

Stuffed Lobster 60 | Administrative District

Check this narrow path between the fence and building near the south area of BLADE Tower. (It's just above where you found lobster 6.)

Stuffed Lobster 61 | Administrative District

Directly under the Hangar. If you've unlocked Yardley's avatar modification console, it's the same area.

Stuffed Lobster 62 | Industrial District

Under the West Gate elevator.

Stuffed Lobster 63 | Industrial District

Near the transport northwest of the West Gate, in the space between the red and green containers.

Stuffed Lobster 64 | Industrial District

Find the Transport Pilot, then look for the moving Skell behind the fence directly across from him. The lobster is here.

Stuffed Lobster 65 | Industrial District

Atop the container right next to where lobster 64 is.

Stuffed Lobster 66 | Industrial District

Check the push car just inside the Outfitters Test Hangar.

Stuffed Lobster 67 | Industrial District

Fly up the full length of the West Gate elevator shaft, then go inside the passage. It'll be to your left.

Stuffed Lobster 68 | Industrial District

Raw materials yard across the street from Repenta Diner.

Stuffed Lobster 69 | Administrative District/East Gate

Entrance of the East Gate, next to the Skells.

Stuffed Lobster 70 | Industrial District/Professor B's Lab

North area of the Industrial District. If you've encountered Professor B, check around the left corner of the building behind where he stands.

Stuffed Lobster 71 | Commercial District

Connection road between the Commercial and Industrial Districts.

Stuffed Lobster 72 | Industrial District/Integrated Production Plant

On top of the nearest waste processing unit to Rock and Celica's hangout.

Stuffed Lobster 73 | Industrial District/Outfitters Test Hangar

Narrow passage directly behind the Outfitters Test Hangar.

Stuffed Lobster 74 | Commercial District

Two buildings in the northeast are directly adjacent to each other (in the same area where you found lobster 34). Check the top of the taller, white building.

Stuffed Lobster 75 | Commercial District

In the same area, look for two orange trucks parked directly next to each other. The lobster is between them.

Stuffed Lobster 76 | Commercial District

The alleyway between the "ISYQUA" shop and the building where Victoria can be found.

Stuffed Lobster 77 | Commercial District

In front of the Blue Pocket Café next to Barista Court.

Stuffed Lobster 78 | Commercial District

Go back to the two buildings where you found lobsters 74 and 75. Around the corner left from the white building, the road ends. The lobster is on a ledge below that road.

Stuffed Lobster 79 | Commercial District

The pillars on the waters between the Commercial and Residential Districts. Basically a redo of lobster 28.

Stuffed Lobster 80 | Commercial District

There are thin steel girders connecting the Commercial District and the road leading out of the Administrative District. Check the lower one of these.

Stuffed Lobster 81 | Commercial District

South side of the Commercial District, on the red steel stairs.

Stuffed Lobster 82 | Commercial District

In the parking lot behind Army Pizza.

Stuffed Lobster 83 | Commercial District

Look between the two black trailers next to where Bozell Lowe's hangout is.

Stuffed Lobster 84 | Residential District/Cathedral

Under the cathedral bell.

Stuffed Lobster 85 | Residential District/Ishmael Hills

Southeast basketball court.

Stuffed Lobster 86 | Residential District

Deep within the residential housing across from the water-treatment plant. In the picture, it's the backyard of the bottom-right house.

Stuffed Lobster 87 | Residential District

Check the yard with the Skells and giant crane across from the Sports Complex. Between the two crates (with a third crate on top) is the lobster.

Stuffed Lobster 88 | Residential District

Row of four houses adjacent to the Sports Complex. White house, black roof: check its balcony.

Stuffed Lobster 89 | Residential District

Go down the red stairs across from the water-treatment plant. Halfway down is the lobster.

Stuffed Lobster 90 | Residential District

Keep going down the steps past lobster 89. The lobster is at the base of the steps.

Stuffed Lobster 91 | Administrative District

Ride the elevator near BLADE Tower to the bottom, then go down the steps to the little alcove.

Stuffed Lobster 92 | Administrative District

Look for the small narrow passageway in the middle of Armory Alley and go through it. Go straight until you see three triangularly stacked boxes. The lobster is behind these.

Stuffed Lobster 93 | Ma-non Ship/Deck

Between the starboard and port entrances, on top of the wall.

Stuffed Lobster 94 | Ma-non Ship/Port Side

Where the containers are piled up in the lower north area (Neraph is here as well).

Stuffed Lobster 95 | Ma-non Ship Area/Starboard Side
On top of the floating object in the lower south area.

Stuffed Lobster 96 | Ma-non Ship Area/Port Side
Lower northern area, on top of another floating object.

Stuffed Lobster 97 | Ma-non Ship Area/Port Side
Check under the platform outcropping at the very end of the ship.

Stuffed Lobster 98 | Administrative District/Division Drive
This stuffed lobster will not spawn until you have completed "Definian Downfall" and you have access to the Cauldros's Ganglion Antropolis. Check behind the boxes at the right side of the left Mediators area.

Once you collect lobster 98, you get another call from the Blood Lobster saying that the last lobster is with a justice-obsessed citizen of New LA. As you've already finished "A Hero's Ride," you know who that is. Talk to Justin in the Commercial District.

The Blood Lobster then challenges you to a final meeting at the Definian base. Head to Cauldros's Ganglion Antropolis for the final showdown.

Be sure to bring your highest-level party members and your best ground gear—you're about to storm one of the game's most fortified fortresses and take on one of its toughest ground bosses!

Rush past the enemies if you can, to the wide cave in the back, and go straight until you see the purple Skull. This is the Blood Despair, piloted by the Blood Lobster himself!

BLOOD DESPAIR

LV. 60

Beam	-10
Ether	25
Thermal	25
Electric	-10
Gravity	-25

The Blood Despair is one tough lobster! Preparation is the key here. Bring your gravity-based weapons and beam-resistant armor, load up any healing, buff, and debuff Arts you can feasibly hold among all your party members, and equip any skills that allow for extra damage against machinery.

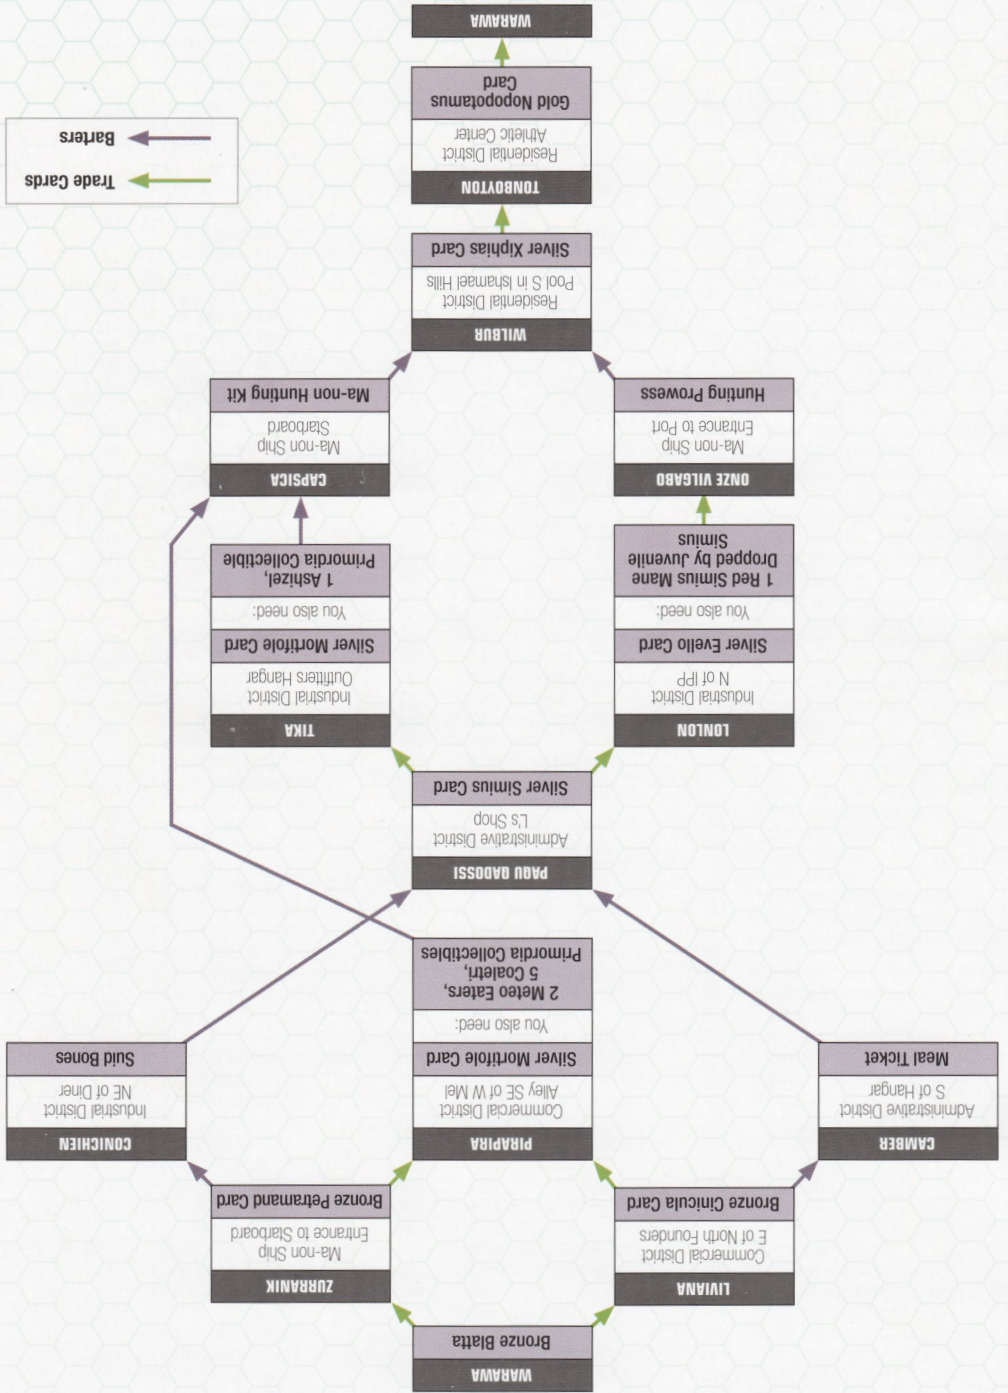

The Blood Despair likes to let loose with hard-hitting beam and physical attacks, but by far his two most dangerous trump cards are an area-of-effect attack called Negative Pulse (which inflicts all hit with Fatigue and Blackout while taking off a decent chunk of HP) and another area-of-effect attack called Meteor Launcher (which just really hurts upon impact). Be sure to do whatever you can to recover if you're hit with these attacks, or go for his appendages to try to disable his ability to launch them altogether.

Beat the Blood Despair for a surprising revelation about the Blood Lobster that we'll leave you to find out. Good luck!

TRADE AGREEMENT

This mission is a complicated trade chain quest that involves trading up a common trading card, the Bronze Blattia, to a special, rare card, the Gold Nopopotamus. Follow the chart below to make the trades you need to get that rare card!

FRONTIERNAV CONNECTIONS AND DATA

RARE RESOURCES

Rare resources can be mined by placing a FrontierNav probe in a location that contains that resource. See the Primer chapter for more information.

NAME	SELL PRICE	DESCRIPTION
Arc Sand Ore	100	An extremely fine mineral that feels more like flour than sand.
Aurorite	100	A translucent, cobalt-blue crystal that refracts light into a beautiful aurora.
Boiled-Egg Ore	750	This ore is white on the surface and orange on the inside—hence the name. When cut, it gives off a golden shimmer before turning white.
Bonjellium	3,000	A mineral found in the dung of small Miran wildlife. Highly toxic, it would likely prove instantly fatal were a human to ingest it.
Cimmerian Cinnabar	2,000	An ore that works well as a pigment, similar to the cinnabar found on Earth. It absorbs certain EM waves, making it particularly useful in stealth technologies.
Dawnstone	1,750	The first precious resource discovered by humans on Mira. Named as such to present the light of hope its finders sought in a time of adversity.
Enduron Lead	100	A mineral that is extremely difficult to process with human technology. Nearly unbreakable, it also boasts high elasticity and diamond-like hardness.
Everfreeze Ore	100	Once cooled, this ore maintains a low temperature for a very long time. Due to this unique property, its use as a superconductor is being investigated.
Foucaultium	500	An ore named after mineralogist Boris Foucault, whose mineral analysis technique made a significant contribution to the development of science on Earth.
Infernum	200	When electric stimulation is applied, this ore instantly heats to 30 million degrees Celsius. Some scientists theorize it could be made to reach even 50 million degrees.
Lionbone Bort	200	Extremely strong but deceptively light due to its internal hollows. Prized as a load-bearing industrial material.
Marine Rutile	1,500	An underwater radioactive needle crystal. Nicknamed “the sea urchin” by the scientists who study it, mostly due to its distinctive shape.
Ouroboros Crystal	2,250	A crystal with a molecular structure that resembles tail-devouring snakes. These beautifully pure crystals have appeared on the market as high-end jewelry.
Parheliion Platinum	2,500	A metal that contains a subtle, complex roughness on its surface that scatters light. It's very beautiful, but looking at it for too long can be dazzling, making one feel ill.
White Cometite	100	An ore with conductivity that changes in cycles thought to last nearly 70 years. A number of possible uses are currently being researched.

FRONTIERNAV SITE DATA

DATA AT A GLANCE

Production: Refers to the potential amount of miranium that can be mined from the segment where the probe is placed.

Revenue: Indicates how many credits the segment can potentially generate after the probe is placed.

Combat Support: How effective a battle probe will potentially be while it is placed in the segment.

In increasing order, ratings go F > E > D > C > B > A > S, with F being the lowest potential for the segment and S being the highest.

Sightseeing Spots Found: This indicates the number of sightseeing spots that can be discovered within the segment where the probe is placed.

Mineable Rare Resources: Any rare resources that can be mined when the probe is placed in the listed segment are mentioned here. Refer to the Rare Resources chart.

COLLECTOPEDIA

PRIMORDIA

REGION COMPLETE REWARD | BOOSTER PROBE G2

VEGETABLES

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | KNIFE SERIES

AJIRA MELON
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

A gourd-like vegetable encased in a black rind. The spongy, white insides have no taste at all, and are mostly used as a source of various vitamins.

LACEY POTATO
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A teardrop-shaped potato found in Primordia. Extremely bitter, it's unsuited for direct use in food, but is often used as a source of protein in processed foods.

SADELANA LETTUCE
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A heat-emitting lettuce whose flickering leaves resemble the sun. Oddly prone to self-combustion, it can only be found on rainy days.

MOSA CABBAGE
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Its fine strands make a furball shape, while its colorful hue promises a taste far more exotic than the humble cabbage it resembles.

KEPPO CARROT
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A carrot that splits into eight roots. Seven of these are ultra sweet, while the remaining one takes on a bitterness that makes even the most stoic eyes water.

AMIDRESIAN TOMATO
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A tomato that is able to hold impressive amounts of water. It appears only on rainy days, when its juicy flesh is enjoyed by many local indigens.

FRUITS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | GEMELS SERIES

CRANJELLY
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Its transparent skin encases a jelly-like granulated fruit. The juice may be sweet, but it is also extremely sticky and a real chore to clean. Handle with care!

ROCK-ORANGE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

An orange easily mistaken for a rock. It may have a soft and sumptuous taste, but many find it hard to look past its rather unappealing appearance.

STRAWLENNY
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A fruit that looks like a burdock, but tastes like a strawberry. It usually undergoes processing into a strawberry form in order to please a picky public.

STARLIGHT APPLE
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Beneath the black skin lies a seed that sparkles like a star, but also finds itself primed to go supernova. Sadly, removing the seed causes the fruit to lose its trademark glow.

MONDCHERRY
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Ingestion may cause feelings of euphoria, with side effects including chest thumping and shrieks of joy. However, its intense spice should be taken into consideration.

SONAR LEMON
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

An ultrasonic lemon whose calls are out of human hearing range. Miran natives who pick up on its wails can often be found desperately seeking out the source.

FLORA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | SAKURABA MEDIUM (MALE)

ZESIAN FLEAWORT
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A grass that immediately regenerates upon being cut. If chopped, each piece will grow into yet more grass, making incineration the only proven method of disposal.

NORANLILY
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A white lily that, when bathed in the light of the moon, emits a faint golden glow. Drawn towards its bloom, many types of insect are often found around its flower.

SWEET NERINE
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A flower that blooms only for a single fleeting moment each day before shying away come nightfall. Its color is truly magnificent for those lucky enough to witness it.

KIRAN CATNIP
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An alluring type of grass that has the power to entrance more than just felines. Its potent aroma attracts all manner of wildlife from miles around.

DOGA DANDELION
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300
LUCKY PANEL

This dandelion fires its seed at nearby wildlife, whereupon the seeds feed parasitically on their host. Accordingly, the life of the host is rarely long.

SONA HERB
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

An herb with a sweet, fresh, and relaxing aroma. Even the most lively of creatures is said to be calmed by the scent.

GARUDO PELLIONIA MINIMA
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

Although this plant grows throughout the land, its large seed often sprouts in narrow crevices, resulting in it becoming blocked off. It's considered an endangered species as a result.

NIRVANA JONQUIL
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A white flower with a modest bloom. Its height is unremarkable, as is its appearance. Yet once uprooted, it shines with an almost divine light.

FAUNA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD DUAL GUNS SERIES

RIZATTICE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Similar in appearance to a lizard—but almost completely desiccated due to an inability to store moisture. As such, it tends to hunt prey with high water content.

COALETRI
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A small, sleepy, koala-like animal with a number of wings on its back. These would be more useful if the animal wasn't so lazy.

GRINDING SQUIRREL
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A squirrel-like creature that uses extremely sharp teeth to carve a home in caves. If you venture into their lair, you're bound to come across their fearsome leader.

CRAWLING BAT
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A giant quadruped bat that uses its non-functional wings to pull its way along the ground in search of food. Vulnerable in the dark, it tends to rest only in well-lit areas.

GOLDEN SARDINE
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300
LUCKY PANEL

An excitable golden fish that is often seen leaping free of the water. Its taste resembles that of an Earth sardine.

ZIZI RABBIT
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A three-eared, gunpowder-eating hare. Sweeping battlefields of every last spent bullet, their moniker of "The Janitor" is apt. Their numbers have recently spiked.

ASHIZEL
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A large, snail-like, shelled creature. The shell contains a store of fatty blubber that is used for sustenance in times of severe famine.

INSECTS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD GRENADA MEDIUM (FEMALE)

BALL MOSQUITO
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

What looks like a small rubber ball flying through the air is in fact a mosquito. Its countless hair-covered mouths draw blood from a whole host of creatures.

STRETCHING LOCUST
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A locust that uses its retractable antennae to gather food. It lacks the jumping ability of its Earth namesake, instead using its legs to drag itself around.

TRACTOR BEETLE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A foot-long beetle with horns far tougher than those of their Earth namesake. It's usually able to take on any attackers who dare to challenge it.

MULTI-SPECKLED LADYBUG
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An insect that looks like a ladybug. Its spots increase in number as it ages, until it becomes fully black in its final years. It has an odd hatred for music, and will flee at the first note of a song.

METEO EATER
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A beetle-like insect that uses meteor shock waves as sustenance. It is able to instinctively seek out and locate potential landing zones prior to any meteorfall.

VAGABOND ANT
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

Solitary ants that wander across Mira seeking out their next home. Parenthood is a brief affair, with barely a day's rest before resuming their journey.

ASSASSIN SPRINGTAIL
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A fist-shaped springtail whose poison grows in potency with each day. In times of health their shell appears pink, though it completely bleaches out upon death.

NATURAL ARTIFACTS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD BLADES SERIES

LOGUNIE'S DRIFTWOOD
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Floating wood that swells up like a balloon as it absorbs water. Used by creatures such as the vagabond ant to travel downstream.

WHITE IRON SAND
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Sand with a high iron concentration. The process to extract this iron still eludes New LA scientists, though they are hard at work on new techniques.

FILLAL FILTH
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

The crystallized excrement of unidentified microorganisms that has turned transparent and now resembles a beautiful crystal.

ARNACIAN OREWOOD
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400
LUCKY PANEL

A diamond-like material that grows like bamboo on rainy days. It disappears when exposed to starlight.

AURORAN BONE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A rarely-sighted item seen in polar skies. Its origin and classification remain a mystery to everyone.

WRECKAGE

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SAKURABA SKELL (MALE)

DEFLECTION SHIELD MIRROR
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Originally designed to defend against the alien onslaught, it failed in its application when it overheated. It was eventually recycled as part of the White Whale's shield system.

ANHYDROUS RADIATOR
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A radiator from the White Whale that requires no coolant. It can be easily converted for use in cars and other vehicles.

HEATPROOF INOX PIPE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Plumbing used on the White Whale. It's made from an experimental form of stainless steel that is believed to be eternally rust- and corrosion-proof, no matter the external environment.

L-002 FUEL TANK
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A fuel tank that formed part of the White Whale's propulsion drive system. It is said to be the height of fuel-compression technology.

L-002 SPACE ANALYZER
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

This instrument analyzes the atmosphere. It also scans for microbial life, which can indicate whether or not a planet is inhabited.

US-X SPACE SUIT
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200
LUCKY PANEL

A suit that can withstand the vacuum of space for over 24 hours. This was considered to be the height of technology at the time of the White Whale's launch.

CENTRIFUGAL BEAM GENERATOR
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An artificial-gravity generator that produces a rotating beam. It allows the crew of a ship to live and work while in a zero-gravity environment.

RELICS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD ASSAULT SERIES

JAGGED MORTAR
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A mortar lined with tiny spurs that was used by local natives for making medicine. One can use the attached pestle to crush contents with ease.

ACORN ABACUS
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A counting frame that uses acorns for beads, leading to speculation that the native creators had some sort of financial system.

FACEWOOD
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A living mask made from the bark of a Miran tree. The bark grows in union with the face of the wearer, and was thought holy by ancient peoples for this reason.

HEMP WALLET
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A purse used by the ancient inhabitants of Mira. Listen to the jingle of the coins! If the previous owner had good luck with money, maybe a new owner will as well...

HUMMINGSTONE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A curious stone that emits a mellifluous hum. When this melody was heard by the native Mirans, it would inevitably lead to a raucous dance party.

XENOTECH

ROW COMPLETE REWARD PARCE SERIES
----------------------------------	--

HIGH ACCELERATOR
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A small alien jetpack that allows the user to flee from confrontation at absurd speeds.

CRUSH RING
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A cruel alien torture device that coils around the head, arms, and legs, severely constricting the victim.

T-RAY LIGHT
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A prototype high-tech device that allows the user to see through walls. It seems like true cutting-edge technology, but is unfortunately broken.

FLECKED BOTTLE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A mottled flask seemingly used to safely store precious liquid. Its seal has long since been broken, making its former contents a mystery for the ages.

GROSSIO CORE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A orb that emits a rather sinister glow. It possesses vast amounts of energy, but is harmful to humans.

CURIOS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SHIELD SERIES
-----------------------------------	--

MEDITATION POWDER
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A chemical powder made of an unknown element. When the Harrier Bozé gave it a sniff, he felt it improved his concentration, and thus decided to give it this name.

CALIFORNIA SUNSET
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A spherical crystal that shimmers with the baked orange glow of a California dusk. The Pathfinder Corwin named it in memory of the sunsets he saw as a child back in his home state.

MIRAGE SCOPE
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

The image presented to those who peer into this eyepiece is rarely consistent with reality. In fact, some of the views have been truly out-of-this world, which is why the Outfitter Camber gave it this name.

ANCIENT ALLURE
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

Covered in jumbled and indecipherable lettering, these cylindrical objects have been found scattered across Mira. The Pathfinder Clarissa gave them this name while struggling to decode them.

GODDESS'S KISS
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A carved stone shaped in the image of a beautiful goddess. On occasion, a tear-like liquid flows from its eyes. Entranced by the object's beauty, the Outfitter Christopher came up with its name.

NOCTILUM

REGION COMPLETE REWARD FUEL RECOVERY PROBE
--	--

VEGETABLES

ROW COMPLETE REWARD PAIVE SERIES
----------------------------------	--

CASERAS MUSHROOM
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

This fungus from Noctilum releases spores that send nearby creatures into a daze. Its subspecies imparts a bliss-like state on all who consume it.

ZANDEMO EGGPLANT
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A sweet, tough eggplant that grows from trees and absorbs their sap. It also draws out pathogens from within the tree, thus increasing the life of its parent.

FLOWERING MORROW FERN
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A plant with seemingly self-aware mouthed tendrils that extend outwards to hunt nearby insects. Rich in protein, they are in turn a source of nourishment for others.

FODORNALLOW GREENS
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

Flora that grows by absorbing plasma from the surrounding atmosphere. Its deep taste and numbing effects are coveted by chefs and foodies everywhere.

SIBERCASERAS MUSHROOM
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A subspecies of the caseras mushroom, that only appears once every 100 years. Those who taste it are said to live out their days in a pure, bliss-like state.

FRUITS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD GRENADA MEDIUM (MALE)
---	--

SOCHA GUAVA
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A palm-sized fruit that grows wild in the woods of Noctilum. Continued exposure to the sun's rays will dissolve the skin and reveal the flesh within.

PRAPAYA
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Upon ripening, this fruit will dislodge itself from the tree and fall to the ground, causing serious injury to any unfortunate enough to be in the way.

BABACO LEAF
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An unusually broad-leafed and sturdy plant that aggressively propagates itself, shoving aside other plants and even rocks as it grows.

AMANA DURIAN
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A luminescent fruit that grows within the giant flowers of Noctilum. Adorned with long, sharp thorns, those that fall prey to its glow usually meet a painful end.

LAVA MANGO
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A fruit with rubber-like elasticity. Its skin has been used in the clothing industry, while its sweet, chewy texture yields a sensation similar to that of gum.

SOUR PLUM
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

-------------	--

A sour plum that only grows in dark caves. Its taste can bring even the hardest of creatures to their knees, and sends most fleeing in terror.

BANANALEAF
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A dull-looking, banana-flavored leaf. Although loved by all for its flavor, its habit of camouflaging itself as just another leaf makes it a rather rare find.

GODMELON
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A rare, light-emitting melon. Worshipped since the dawn of time as a sacred fruit, a single bite of its flesh is said to inspire enlightenment. ...Or at least a smile.

FLORA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD MACHINE SERIES
------------------------------------	--

TIMID SUNFLOWER
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A short flower that, despite its name, avoids the sunlight at all costs. Forcing light upon it, however, will cause it to grow quite tall.

LEA LILY
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A plant with a tough, silver-colored flower that chimes like a bell upon catching the wind. Its clear tones offer visitors to Noctilum a brief moment of serenity.

CHAMELEON CREEPING PLANT
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

An insectivorous plant that lures prey into its jaws with a sweet aroma. These fallen insects become flecks on the plant's body, eventually mottling each petal.

MUNERIA FLOWER
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

No amount of plucking will stop this flower's petals from sprouting right back. It is said that eating it bestows similar effects, making it popular with the elderly.

SEKKA COSMOS
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A large cosmos plant whose petals move in response to stimulus. This has led many to believe that it may possess a certain degree of sentience.

FALSE CEDAR
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A large grass that at first glance looks like a tree. Contrary to appearances, however, it is extremely flexible and surprisingly easy to cut.

SLEEPING AMARYLLIS

SHINUYUNI GARLIC

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A root with a tapered horn shape that requires thick gloves for proper handling. Eating it grants superb recovery properties, but also horrific breath.

COSSE BEAN

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A thick casing houses multiple fist-sized beans. Eating just one provides a day's worth of nourishment, making them ideal for long journeys.

BEAGFLEA SQUASH

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

A new gourd that arrived with an alien race. Despite its bland taste, its ability to grow in the most sterile of land makes it an invaluable foodstuff.

WILL PEPPER

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A pepper that flashes red, yellow, blue, and then black in a continuous sequence. It's a feast for both the eyes and the stomach.

CHARUPA LEAVES

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A magnetically charged grass covered in iron dust. Its ability to remove excess iron from the body upon digestion makes it a widely used herbal remedy.

DOBOBORA BROCCOLI

TYPE	PRIME

By allowing its flowers to be eaten by Miran wildlife, this plant is able to propagate by dispersing its seed via their excrement.

GUDDO ROCAMBOLE

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Similar to Earth's romacbole plant, but able to grow at an abnormal daily rate. This plant is quite short lived, and unable to proliferate as a result.

BLAST CHARD

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

LUCKY PANEL

This plant contains a unique bitterness that is coveted among gourmands and chefs of New LA. Even coffee-type drinks can be derived from this wonder ingredient.

MYA OATS

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An unremarkable grass with emetic properties that cause those who ingest it to vomit. It can be used as either a medicine or poison.

MYUENA CACTUS
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A cactus with thorns as soft as the tentacle of a jellyfish. It is said that if rotting myuena cacti come into contact with the rain, they turn into silvery cactaceous resin.

KEPHA HOLLY
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A holly with large purple fruit. These fruits explode upon impact, dispersing their stores of pollen. Certain creatures find the smell of this pollen intolerable.

FAUNA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SAKURABA MEDIUM (FEMALE)

DORAGAROO

LUCKY PANEL

A small kangaroo-type creature able to leap many miles in a single jump. Its poor sense of direction often leads to it overshooting its intended target.

PHANTOM TANUKI
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A beast with space-distorting camouflage that allows it to morph into other forms. Hanging fatty deposits allows it to survive during lean periods.

DENEMOZUMI MOUSE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

The perfect species of mouse. When faced with adversity, they form into organized divisions and overpower their opponent with sheer numbers.

OCTO-SUKA
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A land-dwelling octopus-like creature with eight enormously long legs. Its unusually low bodyweight makes it highly likely to fracture in stiff winds.

JET TURTLE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A turtle-like creature that feeds mainly on the zizi rabbit. Able to fit its entire body within its shell, it uses rotation to zip along at astonishing speeds.

SAND CUCUMBER
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A sea cucumber-like creature that absorbs sand into its body for its survival. With 90 percent of its bodyweight being sand, it is able to quickly fill in any wounds.

GORMLESS MONKEY
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A small monkey with a featureless face, it relies on sound and movement to gain its bearings.

FLEETING BABOON

MOLEWORM
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A worm that draws its nourishment from miranium, boring ever deeper into the planet in search of this energy source. As such, it is rarely seen above ground.

IMPOSTER BUG
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A stink bug that resembles a Nopon from certain angles. The bug's cry is so intolerable to the Nopon, however, that they will do anything to avoid it.

SHADOW FLY
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A fly that refracts ambient light, illuminating its surroundings for miles. Don't be fooled by its pretty appearances—this carnivorous insect is a real handful.

COMMON STICK INSECT
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300
LUCKY PANEL

This insect, almost indistinguishable from branches, chooses not to hide itself in this way. Instead, it adopts a brownish hue on green branches, and a green one on brown branches.

WHIP SCORPION
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A long, soft-bodied scorpion that uses its whip-like tail to repel attackers. Constant use of the tail for various other endeavors has resulted in evolutionary loss of the stinger's venom.

SLASHER BEETLE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

ROW COMPLETE REWARD MACHINE II SERIES

SPINE-O-CORRECTOR
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

A spine-straightening device once very popular amongst the short-statured Nopon. It fell out of favor when its effects proved to be far more damaging than helpful.

THORNBOX
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A box for storing Nopon pollen-collection tools that are used to attract insects. The pollen is eaten and recycled by the insects before then being harvested.

PERISHED STONE SPEAR
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A spear invented by an ancient species once they took to walking upright. Their enlightenment came at a cost, however, as the same weapon eventually sealed their demise.

SANDSTONE ETCHING
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A lithograph etched by an ancient desert civilization from Oblivia. As it is currently indecipherable, the fate met by this culture is still unknown.

MAGICAL FINDING ROD
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A Nopon dowsing rod for locating ground water and mineral deposits. A coin on one end wobbles when it hits its target. Hardly the most scientific of methods, but it seems to work for them.

OUROBOROS BRACELET
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A dried snake that is eating its own tail. Used by the Nopon as a bracelet.

DRUM OF VALOR
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A drum made from the stomach of a beast. It is said to grant bravery to Nopon embarking on a lonely trek. If one listens close, they can almost hear it beating like a courageous heart.

STEEL TAIL SHEATH
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An alien tail protector emblazoned with a clan crest. The quality of workmanship indicates that it once belonged to an individual of some status.

HORNED HELMET
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A large, primitive helmet made from a resilient-looking shell. Its two protruding horns inspire terror in battle.

WARBONE
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A knuckle guard made from the skull of a fallen opponent. Its battle-worn look is accentuated by numerous scratches and dents that tell an epic story.

CURIOS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SAKURABA HEAVY (MALE)

STRONG IRON
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A rust-ravaged iron column with a tensile strength that defies reason. Despite being rusted to the core, it can easily withstand loads many times that of standard iron. Named by the Curator Howard.

CHAMELEON SAND
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Sand that is able to change its color—and with that, its taste. Ranging from salty when white to sweet when red, the possible variations are endless. Named by the Prospector Saronia.

VENUS JEWEL
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A jewel that sparkles like the first star of the evening. The Reclaimer Nastasha began wearing one as a charm to protect her companions, and the idea caught on with other BLADEs, leading to its name.

ECHO ROCK
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

An obnoxious rock that throws your words right back at you. Good luck confronting it, though, since it is dull and featureless as...well, a stone. The Curator Jengo named it with a smile.

ILLOGICAL ETCHINGS
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A lithograph that appears to hold encoded blueprints for a Skell-like robotic machine. The engineer Tika named it in frustration after staying up all night failing to decipher its instructions.

ANGEL STONE
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A transparent stone that holds a fossilized, angelic-looking creature. Transfixed by its heavenly beauty, the Harrier Adelbert gave it its name.

LOST MEMORY SYNTHESIZER
TYPE	PRIME

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A plant-based ointment used by the Nopon. It fell out of favor when its medicinal effects were found to be negligible.

STRAW BUOY
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A flotation device made from straw. Though it starts out as a huge straw ring, it rapidly shrinks to a more compact size when it contacts water.

SPORE BALLOON
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A spore repainted by the Nopon and sold as a child's balloon toy. Its value tanked when the true identity was finally discovered.

STARGAZER
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A long cylinder with carefully aligned stone lenses, often used as a telescope to view the stars. Unusually expensive for something that brings so much joy.

CAMOCLOAK
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300
LUCKY PANEL

The cloth used to make this cloak imitates its surroundings. It looks to have been invented by an advanced civilization that has since gone extinct.

SPIRIT WAND
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A branch adorned with hundreds of beautiful Miran flowers. It is used by the Nopon for spiritual worship.

XENOTECH

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | ASSAULT II SERIES

SHIMMERING SKIN
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A high-tech lava suit made from unknown materials. Unfortunately, as it operates on biometrics it will destroy itself if worn by any species other than its original creator.

DETILID DEVICE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

An excessively large hoop-shaped device that equips to the arm. The alien tech and size of the device mean that it is not easily handled by human operators.

MISSILE WIRING
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Wiring composed of countless fiber cables. Using this wire allowed for free control of launched missiles.

BERZERKER UNIT
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An item used to induce a rage-like state in battle. If given to one not able to tolerate the medication's effects, however, instant death is a certainty.

THUNDERBOLT EMBLEM
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A banner emblazoned with the crest of a militaristic alien clan. Its content boasts of that particular group's achievements on the battlefield.

TRYING CROWN
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A tight-fitting crown that can only be removed by breaking it. Thought to have been used in torture.

INTELLIGENT LIQUID METAL
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

There is said to be a large body of high-level info embedded within this liquid metal. Unfortunately, the liquid is currently inert and remains just out of reach.

CURIOS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD GRENADA SKELL (FEMALE)

DOUBLE HELICAL SALT
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100
LUCKY PANEL

A mysterious white object with a double helical structure. The Curator Caracas discovered and named it, but died of poisoning after tasting it.

BRILLIANT GREEN LIQUID
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

The liquid within this tube emits a brilliant green glow, but the unknown energy it produces is of no use in current weapons. The Prospector Leland Cole named it while laughing heartily.

FLOWERING EGG
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

An egg-shaped object that plays host to a variety of different flower species. Upon witnessing said flowers breaking out from the egg's shell to bloom, a speechless Prospector called Gale gave it this name.

QUEEN'S RAPTURE
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A snowy white, angelic feather that shimmers with an air of refined nobility. The Harrier Grette gave the item its name as she gazed at it, enraptured.

STONE SCREW
TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A screw made of stone that—despite being entirely natural in origin—can actually be used in the way the name suggests. After naming it, the Pathfinder Astea did in fact put it to use as a screw.

STARMAKER
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A black-box planetarium that projects an image of the galaxy Mira inhabits onto nearby surfaces. The Pathfinder Mondo named it as he gazed in abject silence at the projected stars.

HELLO TRANSMITTER
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

This looks like some kind of transmitting device, but no one knows where it is transmitting to. The Interceptor Ada named it after mumbling "hello, hello" into it numerous times with no response.

AFFINITY SOULCHAIN
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A chain of unbreakable triangular rings that are impossible to separate. Upon witnessing its unwavering strength, the Curator Quincy gave it this name to symbolize the bonds between friends.

CAULDROS

REGION COMPLETE REWARD STORAGE PROBE

VEGETABLES

ROW COMPLETE REWARD GRENADA LIGHT (FEMALE)

KYATARA ONION
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Peeling this onion's skin reveals an inedible middle. The subtly sweet taste of the outer layers, however, is something to be savored.

CHARGED CAYENNE
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A chili pepper infused with the energy of lightning, guaranteed to bring even the strongest to their knees. It's more at home in the arms industry than a kitchen.

BRAMBLOO SHOOT
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300
LUCKY PANEL

This may look like a tree, but it feels and tastes like bamboo. The fiercer indigens of Cauldros often use its outer cap to polish their fangs and tusks.

BELZADOZEBU SCALLIONS
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A poisonous black root that can kill even the largest of creatures. If left unchecked, it eventually ends its own existence as deadly toxins spread throughout its cells.

FRUITS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD GRENADA SKELL (MALE)

GYULALI
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A fruit with a meaty taste. Heating brings about strange anomalies in its flavor, with high temperatures evoking beef, and low temperatures pork.

LAVA CHESTNUT
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200
LUCKY PANEL

A heat-resistant seed, often found in lava, that forms into fruit-bearing rock upon cooling. Though sweet and nutritious, it remains a tough nut to crack.

IRON AKEBI FRUIT
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

With a skin as tough as iron, this akebi is well equipped to surviving its harsh environment. Having existed for countless millennia, there is doubtless extremely vital genetic information dormant within.

MOTTLED MUMS
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A fig with strong purification effects that thrives even in bad soil. So strong are its effects that it has the ability to diminish vital nutrition if taken without cause.

NIGHTMARE PINEAPPLE
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A black pineapple dotted with eye-like reticules. Those who touch it are said to be sent into a fit of nightmares. Only recommended for the strong of mind.

FLORA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SWORD SERIES

PORON TULIP
TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A large pollen-filled flower known for its rapid expansion. The pollen is unusually appetizing, making it much sought-after by the Nopon.

JAHARMUM
TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A golden chrysanthemum that grows and reproduces by drifting on the winds of Cauldros, absorbing sulfur as it goes. Just before death, it takes on the form of a sulfur crystal.

BOGANO WEED
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400
LUCKY PANEL

A hardy plant that refuses to burn even in the fiery rains of Cauldros. It is, however, extremely sensitive to cold.

MURANADIUM
TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

No wildlife—or species—can resist the charms of this plant. Harvested almost to extinction by the ancient Mirans, now it can only be found deep inside Cauldros.

FAUNA

ROW COMPLETE REWARD BLADES II SERIES

GUN SNAKE

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

LUCKY PANEL

A snake-like reptile that subsists on iron ore. Its stomach contains mounds of undigested rocks that are used as bullets to keep approaching predators at bay.

DEMON BOAR

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A five-eyed, boar-like beast. Despite its demonic appearance, it is surprisingly timid—often fleeing in terror at the sight of the smallest insect.

DULCET GOOSE

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A bird resembling the humble Earth goose, but with an entrancing angelic call. This good-natured bird will use its voice to guide others out of harm's way.

LAVA FOX

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A fox-like creature that draws nutrition from lava. Any other liquid will result in instant death, so their numbers tend to fall considerably after heavy downpours.

GIBNEY JACKAL

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

A rare species only found on Cauldros. At first glance it may be mistaken for a wolf—though its fearsome ruby eyes can be seen for miles.

INSECTS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD RALZES SERIES

SHOOTING FIREFLY

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

After hatching, this larva ages and dies within the same day. Its rare glow is beautiful to observe.

ABYSSAL CRICKET

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A huge red insect that shoots fire from its mouth, often igniting natural gas spumes in the process. It is the prime suspect in many unexplained explosions.

CETECEGEM BEETLE

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A very large beetle that can reach over three feet in length. It will imbibe and expel large volumes of water whenever threatened.

BULLET FLY

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

A tough-bodied and incredibly fast fly. Getting in their way will likely result in serious injury, so be careful when wandering the wilds of Cauldros.

PRICKLY CRICKET

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

An energetic cricket that is always busy stockpiling food. It attacks if disturbed, especially if it comes in contact with its nemesis—the vagabond ant.

NATURAL ARTIFACTS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD SNIPER RIFLE SERIES

COOLING LAVA

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A fragrant form of lava that can be eaten once cooled. Though completely non-toxic, it still may be a while before the item appears on the menus of New LA's finer restaurants.

ZALON DIRT

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A fertile soil that feeds by dissolving and absorbing insects and certain small animals. Most geologists believe it to have fine agricultural potential.

ROGEBRA SHOCKSTONE

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

This rock, formed in a lightning storm, stores lightning energy. It provides an electrical charge like a battery, but can be quite unstable.

AUTIGA POWDER

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

While this appears to be a powder, it behaves more like a plant. It can often be found clinging to rocks, much like a form of moss.

ZAGYRIN CRAGSTONE

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

An organic steel forged in the heat of Cauldros's lava lakes. It boasts legendary hardness due to its many layers.

CLIOROIL OIL

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

This treasured red oil is found on Cauldros surfaces during rainy days. It looks eerily like a pool of blood to the naked eye.

WRECKAGE

ROW COMPLETE REWARD FULGE II SERIES

SOLAR WIND CONVERTER

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

This device captured gas released into space by stars and converted it into energy for use in the propulsion system.

OXYGEN AIRBRAKE

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A braking mechanism that ran on pure oxygen. It could also be weaponized for battle situations if necessary.

EXALTING PAINT

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A fluorescent paint used on the White Whale. A high phosphorescence gives it the ability to emit absorbed light without a reduction in intensity.

AUTOPOSTURIZER

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A posture-control apparatus that protects against spatial disorientation during interstellar journeys. Primarily used by crew members undertaking repair details outside the ship.

PLANTER

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

A device that extracts water from rocks in order to aid the process of planetary terraforming. The discovery of Mira has rendered it somewhat pointless.

FN PROTOTYPE 3

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

One of the prototype models created during the development of FrontierNav. Not as advanced as the data probes currently in use, but not a bad effort.

OCTOPUS REGULATOR

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

A remote-controlled body featuring several limbs protruding from a spherical center. It is of particular use for those conducting sensitive operations in the vacuum of space.

RELICS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD LASTYR II SERIES

CHAMPOLINE

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A Nopon-sized trampoline made from an elastic, rubbery material. Once used at festival time, it has since been banned after a slew of injuries and lawsuits.

SHARPENING STONE

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A hard stone carved into the shape of a hammer and used in construction. For some reason, the whole tool is carved from stone—not just the head.

CHARRED CROCK

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A giant black vessel fashioned from lava. Said to have been constructed by a now-extinct civilization.

STONE LENS

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A polished, transparent stone often used as a lens. Nopon also value it for its ability to start fires.

DARK LANTERN

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A hand lamp that uses a secret Nopon oil formula to emit a beautiful light. Due to difficulties in producing the oil, such lanterns rarely shine anymore.

ICARUS WINGS

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

An invention of Nopon who dreamed of taking to the skies. Shockingly ineffective, though that doesn't deter the many Nopon who optimistically plummet to their deaths each year.

BOGANO SLEEPING BAG

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A fire-resistant, 20-foot-long sleeping bag woven from bogano weed. Originally made by giants, but now used as a yurt by grateful Nopon.

EXTRA-LARGE CASH BOX

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

A piggy bank used by ancient Nopon. Legend claims that those who broke it open before it was full would have money trouble for the rest of their days.

XENOTECH

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | SWORD II SERIES

PAN-ANALYSIS CHIPS

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

An item able to view and detect the entire range of electromagnetic waves, including infrared. It is also able to stand in for microscopes and telescopes.

SAVAGE CLAW

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

Specialized alien battle claws that appear to be used more as catalysts for energy-based attacks rather than for actual hand-to-hand fighting.

ELEMENTAL BATTERY

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

This device transforms airborne particles into electrical power, ensuring an almost inexhaustible supply of energy. It seems to have been used as a weapon by certain alien races.

SPATIAL CONTROL JOINTER

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A deceptively strong, yet compact, part for jointing and supporting large objects above the ground. Is currently used as a gravitational-control device.

DITHBLADE FRAGMENT

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

LUCKY PANEL

Blade fragments from an alien Skell. Its materials exhibit properties of both great strength and extreme lightness. It also appears to contain a slight electrical charge.

VOLTANT SCANNER

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

The panels on this item contain lamps that inform of any nearby toxins. As it requires alien-based technology to function, it doesn't seem to be usable by humans.

CURIOS

ROW COMPLETE REWARD | GRENADA HEAVY (MALE)

MEGA MUSCLE BUILDER

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A shock-absorbing component that seems to have been used in primitive automatons. The Interceptor Giotto used it as exercise equipment and gave it a name to suit his personal tastes.

ROD OF BRUTALITY +10

TYPE	COMMON
SELL PRICE	100

A cylindrical rod with a complex dimpled surface. While it somewhat resembles a key, the Murderess's first thought was how she could use it to pummel people. Suffice to say, she came up with the name.

CAPRICIOUS KETTLE

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

A cauldron that billows with thick black smoke and is engraved from top to bottom with strange symbols. After discovering it, the Prospector Harvey gave it a fanciful name in hopes of selling it for big money.

MEGAJOLT RATTLE

TYPE	RARE
SELL PRICE	200

Though it looks like a baby's trinket, the noise this rattle produces when shaken has the power to fell buildings. A Prospector named Ginger gave it its name, and it is currently being researched as a weapon.

ELITE SCEPTER

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

An ornately decorated scepter, speculated to have been utilized as a ceremonial piece for ancient nobility. Pathfinder H.B. thought it a perfect fit for himself and gave it this name.

DOOM MASK

TYPE	UNIQUE
SELL PRICE	300

Seemingly both mechanical and organic, this mask-shaped object has the ability to absorb bodily fluids. The Outfitter Alexa gave it its name in a fit of excitement.

SAVAGE SKETCH

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

LUCKY PANEL

A tablet depicting a scene of terror involving people fleeing from a dragon-like beast. Excited by this unknown creature that may or may not even exist, Prospector Vera came up with this name.

BOOK OF DEATH AND REBIRTH

TYPE	PRIME
SELL PRICE	400

This book is worn to nigh unreadability, but the illustrations of giants depicted within feel somehow nostalgic. Letrick, the cathedral overseer, broke into tears upon seeing it and gave it this name.

SOCIAL

Spend five minutes in New LA's Administrative District and it becomes abundantly clear that you're not the only BLADE operative in town. Not by a long shot. After you complete Chapter 3, you'll be able to harness BLADE's institutional might in a very exciting way—by cooperating and sharing with other players who are actively exploring their own parallel versions of Mira.

Xenoblade Chronicles X goes out of its way to let you choose just how profoundly the online multiplayer experience will manifest in your game. If you want to stay mostly closed off and focus on the story, you can do that, and you'll only encounter evidence of other players in a few specific instances. There are advantages to linking up, though, beyond camaraderie's intrinsic rewards—there's loot in it for you, in other words. Luckily, it's easy to switch between going solo and playing with strangers or friends.

SQUAD JOINED!

No. 03V-792Conquest Squads

Your request to join this squad has been approved.
Help further Mira's conquest by defeating dangerous indigens!

SQUADS

Once you unlock the online functionality, you get the option to choose a squad whenever you start a session. Think of squads as a way to set your online multiplayer preferences for a given session. If you decide you want to get in some cooperative play after banging out a few story missions, all you have to do is quit the game and select a different squad when you restart. You have three options.

LIFEHOLD SQUADS

Pick Lifehold squads if you want to keep to yourself for a session. There will still be online elements available to you, but you won't be pre-sorted into a lobby with other players looking for co-op partners.

CONQUEST SQUADS

If you want to focus on completing squad tasks and missions with other human players, pick Conquest squads. You'll get matched into a lobby of up to 32 random players who have all signed up for precisely this.

FRIEND SQUADS

Just as the name implies, the Friend Squad option brings up a list of your friends, allowing you to choose to join whatever squad they are in. Select this option if you know you have friends in-game and want to join up.

BLADE Reports

You communicate with the folks in your lobby via BLADE reports. Think of them as a squad-wide bulletins where you can report findings, coordinate squad tasks, or simply share your thoughts. When composing a report, you can set a topic and even flag it with a spoiler alert. Messages pop up on your screen frequently, but ones with the spoiler marker require you to press an extra button to reveal.

SQUAD TASKS

Being a BLADE is 24/7 work, and nowhere is this more evident than in squad tasks. Something always needs doing, and BLADE brass makes it easy for you know exactly what. On the bottom right of your screen, you'll frequently see a running tally of global objectives that need seeing to. This involves hunting specific types of indigens and collecting the listed relics or flora. Knocking out a squad task unlocks co-op squad missions in the BLADE Barracks. They garner you valuable reward tickets, useful for buying materials from the Network Console, as well as BLADE medals, which you need to participate in special squad missions.

SQUAD MISSIONS

As you finish squad tasks, visit the Network Console in the BLADE Barracks to check out squad missions that unlock. These are special sorties that you can take on with up to four players that net money, experience, reward tickets, and battle points. Some precious materials are only available if you complete squad missions, so if you're getting into crafting high-end gear, don't slack on these crucial BLADE duties!

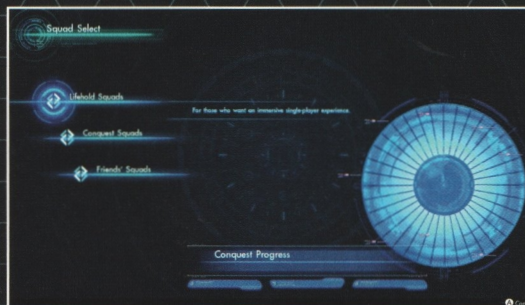

In squad missions, the name of the game is hunting specific indigens. Once your party is ready, you simply head out of the big door near the Network Console, and the hunt begins. You have a set time to complete the mission, as well as other limits to work within, including a minimum level, a maximum number of participants, a set amount of retries, and whether or not Skells are invited to the party. Meanwhile, a squad mission's sync level is the upper limit for participation, but if you're too high, you'll be brought down to match it for the duration.

Conquest Progress and Global Nemesis

As you and your squad complete tasks and missions, your progress contributes to the Conquest Progress meter you see when you start the game. This meter tracks the activity of every BLADE in service around the world. Once it's full, a powerful boss monster called a Global Nemesis will appear in the world, for all the players to do battle with and claim its precious appendages. Doing so costs valuable BLADE medals, so bring your A game!

You earn better rewards the more times you kill a Global Nemesis while it's out and about, so give them no quarter!

Time Attack and Support Missions

Two mission types are available from the Network Console: time attack and support missions. Time attack missions allow you to test your prowess against any of the game's bosses you've already faced, challenging you to beat completion speed records set by other players. Support missions, available after beating the game, send you on specific sorties that often garner big rewards. If you're short on cash, you can sometimes find some that pay out big chunks. Similarly, if you want to give your Affinity rating with a specific NPC a shot in the arm, high-level support missions will give you a head start.

Treasure Deals

When you're part of a squad, you can also share loot drops with players in your lobby. When you're in the sharing mood, simply select the treasure deal option when you're looting an enemy. You have the option of sending it directly to a player or putting it up for the whole squad to bid on in a lottery. What's in it for you? Division points. BLADE likes it when you share!

SCOUTING BLADES

Once the online features activate after you finish Chapter 3, you'll start to notice some new faces hanging around the BLADE Barracks and Administrative District, as well as out on the field. These eager BLADE operatives are other players' avatars, eager to enlist and serve you on your adventure. Doing so gives you access to some solid perks.

As you adventure with scouted BLADEs, a bar on their portrait gradually fills as you gather experience. When the bar fills, you become eligible for rewards in the form of division points, reward tickets, resources, and even personal greetings, if you're lucky.

The process of "scouting" these characters is simple. If you encounter one in New LA or on the field, simply walk up to them and request their service. If you have more specific needs, though, you can hit up the BLADE Scout Console in the Administrative District.

FIELD SCOUTING

Sometimes help appears just when you need it most! As you ramble through Mira's continents, you encounter BLADEs at the oddest places, from far-flung base camps to deep within hostile territory. BLADEs recruited in the field will hang out with you for 30 minutes, which might be just enough time to get over whatever hump was bedeviling you to begin with. Plus, you get access to whatever division buffs the given avatar benefits from due to their allegiance.

SCOUTING VIA BLADE SCOUT CONSOLE

Compared to the serendipity of an encounter on the field, scouting for recruits via the BLADE Scout Console in New LA's Administrative District lets you get down to brass tacks. You can specify level ranges, classes, and weapon types, and you'll get back a list of matching BLADE operatives. The bigger the level difference between you and them, the more it'll cost you to hire them, and you'll know at a glance exactly how long they'll be in your service.

Going on the Market

You can, of course, put your own character out there to serve your fellow BLADEs via the console. Doing so will register them in their current state, which means they'll go out in the field with whatever gear, Arts, Skills, and Soul Voices you had set at the time of their registration. The rewards for service include experience, collectibles, and resources. There's no real reason not to, and if for any reason you'd rather keep your character to yourself, you can deregister at any time.

Division Support

When you're playing in a squad, you have a chance of benefitting from some powerful buffs if there are other players hanging out in the same zone. This is division support in action. The same way that the division you belong to grants you a buff, so too do other players' divisions, and if you're in their vicinity, you reap the benefits. And if you happen upon a BLADE on the field, you can request their division buff instead of scouting them.

DIVISION SUPPORT BUFFS

DIVISION	BUFF NAME	BUFF EFFECT
PATHFINDERS	HP Support	Recovers HP over time.
INTERCEPTORS	Ranged Master	Increases the damage dealt by ranged weapons.
HARRIERS	Melee Master	Increases the damage dealt by melee weapons.
RECLAIMERS	Drop Sensor	Increases the chance of obtaining items from enemies.
CURATORS	Critical Master	Increases the chance of landing a critical hit.
PROSPECTORS	Defense Support	Decreases the amount of damage you take.
OUTFITTERS	R&D Support	Increases the number of R&D points you obtain.
MEDIATORS	TP Support	Allows you to accumulate TP even when attacking.

Division Rewards

It's good to be part of the club! Once per day, you're eligible for a special reward from your division in the form of consumable items. The precise selection depends on how doggedly you pursued your division's recommended activities. If you want to see how your gang is doing, check out the divisogram in the BLADE Scout Console. Here is a full list of possible division rewards.

REWARD	EFFECT
PERSONAL PATCH	Restores HP to maximum. Affects all party members but not Skells.
FRAME PATCH	Restores Skell Frame HP to maximum. Affects all party Skells in operation.
